

1-1880

Jacksonville Republican | January 1880

Jacksonville Republican (Jacksonville, Ala. : 1837-1895)

Follow this and additional works at: https://digitalcommons.jsu.edu/lib_ac_jackrepub

Recommended Citation

Jacksonville Republican (Jacksonville, Ala. : 1837-1895), "Jacksonville Republican | January 1880" (1880).
Jacksonville Republican. 425.
https://digitalcommons.jsu.edu/lib_ac_jackrepub/425

This Book is brought to you for free and open access by the Historical Newspapers at JSU Digital Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in Jacksonville Republican by an authorized administrator of JSU Digital Commons. For more information, please contact digitalcommons@jsu.edu.

Jacksonville Republican

"THE PRICE OF LIBERTY IS ETERNAL VIGILANCE."

VOLUME XLII.

JACKSONVILLE, ALABAMA, SATURDAY, JANUARY 3, 1880.

WHOLE NO. 2929.

THE REPUBLICAN.

EDITED, PRINTED AND PUBLISHED EVERY SATURDAY MORNING BY

J. F. & L. W. GRANT.

For one year in advance, $2.00
If not paid in advance, $3.00

Terms of Advertising:

One square of 10 lines or less, first insertion, 50 cents
Each subsequent insertion, 25 cents
Over one square counted as two, etc.
Quotations charged at advertising rates.
Marriage notices, 50 cents
ANNOUNCEMENT OF CANDIDATES.
For County Offices, $5.00
For State Offices, $10.00
Communications affecting the claims of candidates charged at advertising rates.

Advertisements:

One square of 10 lines, three months, $1.00
One square of 10 lines, six months, $1.50
One square of 10 lines, nine months, $2.00
One square of 10 lines, one year, $2.50
One-half column three months, $1.00
One-half column six months, $1.50
One-half column nine months, $2.00
One-half column one year, $2.50
One-third column three months, $1.00
One-third column six months, $1.50
One-third column nine months, $2.00
One-third column one year, $2.50
One column three months, $2.00
One column six months, $3.00
One column nine months, $4.00
One column one year, $5.00

A. WOODS,

ATTORNEY AT LAW,

JACKSONVILLE, ALA.

Special attention given to the collection of debts, the getting up of pension and land warrant claims, the making out of homestead entries of lands, and the execution of old forfeited homestead entries of lands. Office in the southwest corner of the court-house, opposite the Circuit Clerk's office.

JNO. H. CALDWELL, WM. M. HANES,

Caldwell, Hanes & Caldwell,

ATTORNEYS-AT-LAW

JACKSONVILLE, ALA.

SOLICITORS IN CHANCERY,

JACKSONVILLE, ALA.

Will practice in all the courts of the 12th judicial district and the supreme and federal courts of the State.

W. W. WOODWARD,

Attorney-at-Law

JACKSONVILLE, ALA.

Solicitor in Chancery.

Office formerly occupied by Geo. W. H. Forsyth, JACKSONVILLE, ALABAMA.

74th BRADFORD, H. L. STEVENSON

BRADFORD & STEVENSON,

Attorney-at-Law.

JACKSONVILLE, ALA.

Solicitors in Chancery.

JACKSONVILLE, ALA.

M. J. TURNLEY,

ATTORNEY-AT-LAW

JACKSONVILLE, ALA.

Solicitor in Chancery.

GADSDEN, ALA.

C. C. ELLIS, JOHN T. MARTIN

ELLIS & MARTIN,

ATTORNEYS AT LAW,

No. 7 Office Row, Jacksonville, Alabama.

Have associated in the practice of their profession, and will attend to all business connected with the courts of the 12th judicial district, and adjoining counties in the supreme court of the State.

H. L. STEVENSON,

ATTORNEY AT LAW

JACKSONVILLE, ALA.

J. D. ARNOLD,

SURGEON DENTIST

JACKSONVILLE, ALA.

All work executed in the most durable and scientific manner.

Charges very moderate. Jany 3, 1880

JOB

PRINTING

FROM

SMALL CARDS

TO

MAMMOTH POSTERS

EXECUTED

Neatly,

Cheap,

AND Promptly,

AT THE

REPUBLICAN OFFICE

"ROCK ME TO SLEEP."

Backward, turn backward, O Tiaud in your flight—

Make me a child again—just for to-night! Mother, come back from the colorless shore, Kiss me again to your heart as of yore; Kiss from my forehead the dew of care, Kiss from my hair the threads of my hair; Over my slumbers your loving watch keep— Rock me to sleep, Mother, rock me to sleep!

"Backward, flow backward, O swift tide of years! I am weary of toil, I am weary of tears; Toil with unrequited, tears all in vain, Take them, and give me my childhood again! I have grown weary of dust and decay, Weary of flinging my soul-wealth away, Weary of sowing for others to reap; Rock me to sleep, Mother, rock me to sleep!

"Tired of the hollow, the base, the untrue; Mother, O Mother! my heart calls for you! Bring me back to the place where I grew green, Blossoming and laden, our faces between; Yet with strong yearning and passionate pain, Long I to-night for your presence again. Come from the silence so long and so deep— Rock me to sleep, Mother, rock me to sleep!

"Over my heart in the days that have flown, No love like mother-love ever has shown; No other woman's smiles and endures, Faithful, unselfish, and patient, like yours: None like a mother can charm away pain From the sorrow, my soul and the world-weary brain.

Slumber's soft calm o'er my weary lids creep, Rock me to sleep, Mother, rock me to sleep! Come let your brown hair just lighted with gold, Fall on my shoulders again as of old; Let it fall over my forehead to-night, Shielding my eyes from the flickering light, For old's it's sunny-edged shadows once more.

Happily will through the sweet vision of yore; Lovingly, softly its bright willows weep— Rock me to sleep, Mother, rock me to sleep! "Mother, dear mother! the years have been long Since last I was hushed by your lullaby song; Since, then again—my soul it shall seem Womenhood's years have been only a dream Clasp to your arms in a loving embrace, With your soft, lit lips just sweeping my face.

Never hither to wake or to weep; Rock me to sleep, Mother, rock me to sleep!"

Mr. Parsons' Will.

It was my first visit to London since I had taken up my abode and entered on the practice of my profession as solicitor at Southampton.

In London I had a very dear friend, my old college friend, George Dickson; and as he was the only person I knew in the great metropolis, of course I lost no time in looking him up.

Three years had passed since our last meeting, but ten could have scarcely produced a change more marked than had taken place in the appearance and manner of my friend.

Our first greeting and friendly inquiries over, I longed, yet forbore, to ask the cause of my friend's melancholy. I felt sure, in due time, of being made the confidant of the secret, provided no motive of delicacy prompted its concealment.

"That evening in my room at the hotel, George told me his story. He had formed an attachment for a young lady, whose graces of mind and person he portrayed with all the fervor of a lover's eloquence. She had returned his affection, but her father had opposed his suit, having set his heart on the marriage of his daughter to a nephew of his.

This nephew was a young surgeon, of profligate character, my friend assured me—but that may have been prejudice—was long, but unsuccessfully, wooed his cousin, to whom his offers were as repugnant as to her father they were acceptable.

Some months since, Mr. Parsons, the young lady's father, had gone into Hampshire on business, accompanied by his nephew. At Southampton he was seized with a sudden illness, which terminated fatally in three days.

On the day preceding his death he had executed a will (which had since been duly proved by the depositions of the attesting witness), containing a request that his daughter, to whom he left the whole of his estate, should accept the hand of his nephew in marriage, coupled with the provision that in case the latter offered, and she refused within a specified time to enter into the proposed union, the whole estate devised for the daughter should be forfeited to the nephew.

To sacrifice her fortune to her heart's choice would not have cost Julia Parsons a moment's hesitation; and nothing could have more delighted George Dickson than to have an opportunity of showing how superior his devotion was to all thought of personal advantage. But her father's dying request, in Julia's eyes, was sacred. It had surprised and startled her, it is true, as in her conferences on the most kindly remonstrances, and had never hinted at anything coercive.

Young Parsons, the nephew, had not the magnanimity to forego his ungenerous advantage. He might have been content with his cousin's fortune alone, and his right to that depended on his offer and her rejection of an alliance which she felt in conscience bound to accept. The brief season of grace which she had been compelled to beg even with tears had already nearly passed, and a few more days would witness the condemnation of two lives to hopeless misery.

At the conclusion of my friend's narrative, in which, for reasons that I may hereafter be developed, I felt a peculiar interest, I prevailed upon him to accompany me to a place of amusement to which I had previously procured tickets.

When we reached the theatre the performance had already begun, but we succeeded in finding seats which commanded a fine view both of the stage and the audience.

In a few moments George touched me on the elbow. "Observe the gentleman nearly opposite, in the front row, seated next to the woman leaning his arm on his cane," he whispered. I looked in the direction indicated, and saw a face whose striking resemblance to one I had seen before caused me to start with surprise.

"Who is it?" "Ethridge Parsons," was the reply. "The nephew of whom you spoke?" "Does he resemble his uncle?" I was on the point of inquiring, but just then the stranger drew the glove from his right hand and I saw that the first joint of the middle finger was missing, a circumstance which, for sufficient reasons, I circumvented my attention.

"Do you know the exact date of Mr. Parsons' death?" I asked, when we had gained the street at the close of the performance. "Yes," said George. "It was the twenty-third of December. His daughter received a telegram from her cousin announcing the fact the same day. But why do you ask?"

"I have a reason which may or may not prove a good one," I returned, and, stating that I had business engagements for the whole next day, I parted with my friend, promising to meet him on the following evening.

Next afternoon found me at the house of Mr. Parsons, the nephew.

"Mr. Parsons, I presume?" were the words with which I accosted the gentleman I had seen at the theatre.

"Yes, sir."

"You may not remember me, Mr. Parsons, but I believe that we have met before."

"I beg your pardon, sir, for not recollecting the occasion."

"You were in Southampton last winter, were you not?"

"I was," he replied, with some embarrassment.

"I am the solicitor on whom you called to make a draft of a will."

"I turned pale, but made no reply."

"I saw a record of that will at Doctors' Commons, this morning," I resumed.

"You speak of my uncle's will," he hastily interrupted.

"And yet," I continued, you said it was as yours when you applied to have it written. You represented yourself desirous of executing such a document, preparatory to embarking on a perilous voyage. The paper was drawn in accordance with your instructions, leaving the date to be filled in at the date of signing. Your looks were gray then, and you certainly looked old enough to have a marriageable daughter; but your disguise was not perfect."

"I pointed to the mutilated finger."

"What do you mean?" he shouted in a demure tone.

"Simply that your uncle's signature to that will is a forgery!" I answered, rising, confronting him. "He died on the twenty-third of December. Your own telegram to that effect is in existence. It was the day before Christmas that you called on me to prepare the document now on record as his will. The inference is plain; you undertook to manufacture this spurious testament after your uncle's death, and, wishing to clothe your villainy in legal form, you procured from me the required draft. You, or some one at your instigation, simulated the signature of the deceased. The witnesses, who have since perjured themselves in their depositions, were procured in some manner best known to yourself."

"Enough, sir," he ejaculated, placing his back against the door, "you have shown yourself to be in possession of secrets, the custody of which proves dangerous."

"I am not unprepared for your threats," I replied. "In the first place, I have come here unarmed; in the next, I have prepared a full written statement of the facts to which I have alluded, with information, besides, of my present visit to your office. This paper will be delivered to a friend to whom it is directed, unless within an hour I reclaim it from the messenger, who has been instructed to retain it for that length of time."

His face grew livid. His frame quivered with mingled fear and rage, and his eye gleamed like that of a wild beast at bay.

"What is your purpose?" said he, in a voice hoarse with suppressed passion.

"To keep your secret while you live, on one condition."

"Name it."

"That you write instantly to Julia Parsons, renouncing all pretensions to her hand and absolutely withdrawing your proposal of marriage."

After a moment's pause he penned a brief note, which he submitted to my inspection; it was quite satisfactory.

"Be so good as to seal and address it," I said.

He did so.

"I will see that it is delivered," I said, taking it up, and bowing myself out.

When I met George Dickson that evening, his old college look had come back. He had great news to tell me; and the thing was to take me to see Julia; and it was needless to say what a happy evening we spent together, and that a happy marriage followed not long after.

Ethridge Parsons, I have just learned, emigrated to Australia on board of the "London," and went down in that ill-fated ship.

One triumph over calumny only in scoring it.

Hermit's Peak.

Looking west up the river from Las Vegas, New Mexico, the most notable object in the distant landscape is Hermit's Peak, towering high above its fellows. It is about twenty miles distant from town. It is a bold granite mountain, towering at a perpendicular altitude of 2,000 feet above the bed of the river. It is difficult of ascent and there is but one path by which the top can be gained. The summit is bare of vegetation and the altitude renders it, as it looks, cold and inhospitable. It has been an inhabited place, however, the abode of a veritable hermit. In 1860 there appeared in town an old gray-headed man, who seemed to have been the victim of some great ill fortune. He gave no account of himself, but merely gave his name, however, as Juan Augustine. He was a man of much learning and extensive reading, but did not hold much communication with his fellows. He selected the high peak above town as the place for his abode, and for three years he lived there solitary and alone upon the highest pinnacle of the mountain. He abstained from food, and never lighted even a candle save on one day of each week, when he kept three small tapers burning. He was a religious devotee who appeared to be doing penance for an early life of sin, or perhaps for some crime. His history was shrouded in mystery. He spoke French and Spanish fluently, and some English. His religious zeal and mysterious habits and life created much interest among the simple natives of the surrounding settlements, and they looked upon him with a superstitious awe and reverence. They thought it their duty to aid him, and during the whole time of his abode in the mountain they carried him food and provisions. In this way he existed like the patriarch of old fed by the ravens. During his three years of self-imposed exile he occasionally came to the river, but could not be prevailed upon to enter a house or go near a fire. At the end of three years he left Hermit's Peak and went to the Bernal Hill, southwest of Teecolote, where he lived some time. An ancient story is still there to mark the place of his dwelling. He fancied high places far removed above the ordinary walks of men. From Bernal Hill he journeyed into the wilderness of Grant county, where the blood-thirsty Apaches, with as little respect for prayers and penances then as now, murdered and scalped him. His history and real name were never learned, but he gave an enduring name to the high mountain west of town, the "Hermit's Peak."

English Stories.

I was at Buxton, in Derbyshire, the other day; so was Lord Redcliffe. His Lordship is of an inquiring mind. A builder was at work on a new house. The plan was old. "Where is the back door of this house to be, my man?" asked the Earl. "I know nothing of no back door; I build to plans and mind my own business," said the workman. This kind of reply is very characteristic of the lower classes of the English. It reminds one of the Rev. H. Vent Elliot's experience in Western England. He was being driven from Bristol to Bath, and sitting by the side of the coachman, was anxious to draw the "coach" into conversation, and at the same time to increase his local knowledge. "To nearly every question the coachman answered, 'I don't know.' Exasperated at last, the parson exclaimed, 'What do you know?' 'I know how to drive you from Bristol to Bath, was the ready reply. A story characteristic of English dining parties is just now current at the military clubs. A few fellows determined to give a dinner to a brother officer who had just returned "covered with glory" from Zululand. When the night came and dinner was served, several men who did not know the hero whom they had met to honor, asked him questions, and at the same time to increase his local knowledge. "To nearly every question the coachman answered, 'I don't know.' Exasperated at last, the parson exclaimed, 'What do you know?' 'I know how to drive you from Bristol to Bath, was the ready reply. A story characteristic of English dining parties is just now current at the military clubs. A few fellows determined to give a dinner to a brother officer who had just returned "covered with glory" from Zululand. When the night came and dinner was served, several men who did not know the hero whom they had met to honor, asked him questions, and at the same time to increase his local knowledge. "To nearly every question the coachman answered, 'I don't know.' Exasperated at last, the parson exclaimed, 'What do you know?' 'I know how to drive you from Bristol to Bath, was the ready reply. A story characteristic of English dining parties is just now current at the military clubs. A few fellows determined to give a dinner to a brother officer who had just returned "covered with glory" from Zululand. When the night came and dinner was served, several men who did not know the hero whom they had met to honor, asked him questions, and at the same time to increase his local knowledge. "To nearly every question the coachman answered, 'I don't know.' Exasperated at last, the parson exclaimed, 'What do you know?' 'I know how to drive you from Bristol to Bath, was the ready reply. A story characteristic of English dining parties is just now current at the military clubs. A few fellows determined to give a dinner to a brother officer who had just returned "covered with glory" from Zululand. When the night came and dinner was served, several men who did not know the hero whom they had met to honor, asked him questions, and at the same time to increase his local knowledge. "To nearly every question the coachman answered, 'I don't know.' Exasperated at last, the parson exclaimed, 'What do you know?' 'I know how to drive you from Bristol to Bath, was the ready reply. A story characteristic of English dining parties is just now current at the military clubs. A few fellows determined to give a dinner to a brother officer who had just returned "covered with glory" from Zululand. When the night came and dinner was served, several men who did not know the hero whom they had met to honor, asked him questions, and at the same time to increase his local knowledge. "To nearly every question the coachman answered, 'I don't know.' Exasperated at last, the parson exclaimed, 'What do you know?' 'I know how to drive you from Bristol to Bath, was the ready reply. A story characteristic of English dining parties is just now current at the military clubs. A few fellows determined to give a dinner to a brother officer who had just returned "covered with glory" from Zululand. When the night came and dinner was served, several men who did not know the hero whom they had met to honor, asked him questions, and at the same time to increase his local knowledge. "To nearly every question the coachman answered, 'I don't know.' Exasperated at last, the parson exclaimed, 'What do you know?' 'I know how to drive you from Bristol to Bath, was the ready reply. A story characteristic of English dining parties is just now current at the military clubs. A few fellows determined to give a dinner to a brother officer who had just returned "covered with glory" from Zululand. When the night came and dinner was served, several men who did not know the hero whom they had met to honor, asked him questions, and at the same time to increase his local knowledge. "To nearly every question the coachman answered, 'I don't know.' Exasperated at last, the parson exclaimed, 'What do you know?' 'I know how to drive you from Bristol to Bath, was the ready reply. A story characteristic of English dining parties is just now current at the military clubs. A few fellows determined to give a dinner to a brother officer who had just returned "covered with glory" from Zululand. When the night came and dinner was served, several men who did not know the hero whom they had met to honor, asked him questions, and at the same time to increase his local knowledge. "To nearly every question the coachman answered, 'I don't know.' Exasperated at last, the parson exclaimed, 'What do you know?' 'I know how to drive you from Bristol to Bath, was the ready reply. A story characteristic of English dining parties is just now current at the military clubs. A few fellows determined to give a dinner to a brother officer who had just returned "covered with glory" from Zululand. When the night came and dinner was served, several men who did not know the hero whom they had met to honor, asked him questions, and at the same time to increase his local knowledge. "To nearly every question the coachman answered, 'I don't know.' Exasperated at last, the parson exclaimed, 'What do you know?' 'I know how to drive you from Bristol to Bath, was the ready reply. A story characteristic of English dining parties is just now current at the military clubs. A few fellows determined to give a dinner to a brother officer who had just returned "covered with glory" from Zululand. When the night came and dinner was served, several men who did not know the hero whom they had met to honor, asked him questions, and at the same time to increase his local knowledge. "To nearly every question the coachman answered, 'I don't know.' Exasperated at last, the parson exclaimed, 'What do you know?' 'I know how to drive you from Bristol to Bath, was the ready reply. A story characteristic of English dining parties is just now current at the military clubs. A few fellows determined to give a dinner to a brother officer who had just returned "covered with glory" from Zululand. When the night came and dinner was served, several men who did not know the hero whom they had met to honor, asked him questions, and at the same time to increase his local knowledge. "To nearly every question the coachman answered, 'I don't know.' Exasperated at last, the parson exclaimed, 'What do you know?' 'I know how to drive you from Bristol to Bath, was the ready reply. A story characteristic of English dining parties is just now current at the military clubs. A few fellows determined to give a dinner to a brother officer who had just returned "covered with glory" from Zululand. When the night came and dinner was served, several men who did not know the hero whom they had met to honor, asked him questions, and at the same time to increase his local knowledge. "To nearly every question the coachman answered, 'I don't know.' Exasperated at last, the parson exclaimed, 'What do you know?' 'I know how to drive you from Bristol to Bath, was the ready reply. A story characteristic of English dining parties is just now current at the military clubs. A few fellows determined to give a dinner to a brother officer who had just returned "covered with glory" from Zululand. When the night came and dinner was served, several men who did not know the hero whom they had met to honor, asked him questions, and at the same time to increase his local knowledge. "To nearly every question the coachman answered, 'I don't know.' Exasperated at last, the parson exclaimed, 'What do you know?' 'I know how to drive you from Bristol to Bath, was the ready reply. A story characteristic of English dining parties is just now current at the military clubs. A few fellows determined to give a dinner to a brother officer who had just returned "covered with glory" from Zululand. When the night came and dinner was served, several men who did not know the hero whom they had met to honor, asked him questions, and at the same time to increase his local knowledge. "To nearly every question the coachman answered, 'I don't know.' Exasperated at last, the parson exclaimed, 'What do you know?' 'I know how to drive you from Bristol to Bath, was the ready reply. A story characteristic of English dining parties is just now current at the military clubs. A few fellows determined to give a dinner to a brother officer who had just returned "covered with glory" from Zululand. When the night came and dinner was served, several men who did not know the hero whom they had met to honor, asked him questions, and at the same time to increase his local knowledge. "To nearly every question the coachman answered, 'I don't know.' Exasperated at last, the parson exclaimed, 'What do you know?' 'I know how to drive you from Bristol to Bath, was the ready reply. A story characteristic of English dining parties is just now current at the military clubs. A few fellows determined to give a dinner to a brother officer who had just returned "covered with glory" from Zululand. When the night came and dinner was served, several men who did not know the hero whom they had met to honor, asked him questions, and at the same time to increase his local knowledge. "To nearly every question the coachman answered, 'I don't know.' Exasperated at last, the parson exclaimed, 'What do you know?' 'I know how to drive you from Bristol to Bath, was the ready reply. A story characteristic of English dining parties is just now current at the military clubs. A few fellows determined to give a dinner to a brother officer who had just returned "covered with glory" from Zululand. When the night came and dinner was served, several men who did not know the hero whom they had met to honor, asked him questions, and at the same time to increase his local knowledge. "To nearly every question the coachman answered, 'I don't know.' Exasperated at last, the parson exclaimed, 'What do you know?' 'I know how to drive you from Bristol to Bath, was the ready reply. A story characteristic of English dining parties is just now current at the military clubs. A few fellows determined to give a dinner to a brother officer who had just returned "covered with glory" from Zululand. When the night came and dinner was served, several men who did not know the hero whom they had met to honor, asked him questions, and at the same time to increase his local knowledge. "To nearly every question the coachman answered, 'I don't know.' Exasperated at last, the parson exclaimed, 'What do you know?' 'I know how to drive you from Bristol to Bath, was the ready reply. A story characteristic of English dining parties is just now current at the military clubs. A few fellows determined to give a dinner to a brother officer who had just returned "covered with glory" from Zululand. When the night came and dinner was served, several men who did not know the hero whom they had met to honor, asked him questions, and at the same time to increase his local knowledge. "To nearly every question the coachman answered, 'I don't know.' Exasperated at last, the parson exclaimed, 'What do you know?' 'I know how to drive you from Bristol to Bath, was the ready reply. A story characteristic of English dining parties is just now current at the military clubs. A few fellows determined to give a dinner to a brother officer who had just returned "covered with glory" from Zululand. When the night came and dinner was served, several men who did not know the hero whom they had met to honor, asked him questions, and at the same time to increase his local knowledge. "To nearly every question the coachman answered, 'I don't know.' Exasperated at last, the parson exclaimed, 'What do you know?' 'I know how to drive you from Bristol to Bath, was the ready reply. A story characteristic of English dining parties is just now current at the military clubs. A few fellows determined to give a dinner to a brother officer who had just returned "covered with glory" from Zululand. When the night came and dinner was served, several men who did not know the hero whom they had met to honor, asked him questions, and at the same time to increase his local knowledge. "To nearly every question the coachman answered, 'I don't know.' Exasperated at last, the parson exclaimed, 'What do you know?' 'I know how to drive you from Bristol to Bath, was the ready reply. A story characteristic of English dining parties is just now current at the military clubs. A few fellows determined to give a dinner to a brother officer who had just returned "covered with glory" from Zululand. When the night came and dinner was served, several men who did not know the hero whom they had met to honor, asked him questions, and at the same time to increase his local knowledge. "To nearly every question the coachman answered, 'I don't know.' Exasperated at last, the parson exclaimed, 'What do you know?' 'I know how to drive you from Bristol to Bath, was the ready reply. A story characteristic of English dining parties is just now current at the military clubs. A few fellows determined to give a dinner to a brother officer who had just returned "covered with glory" from Zululand. When the night came and dinner was served, several men who did not know the hero whom they had met to honor, asked him questions, and at the same time to increase his local knowledge. "To nearly every question the coachman answered, 'I don't know.' Exasperated at last, the parson exclaimed, 'What do you know?' 'I know how to drive you from Bristol to Bath, was the ready reply. A story characteristic of English dining parties is just now current at the military clubs. A few fellows determined to give a dinner to a brother officer who had just returned "covered with glory" from Zululand. When the night came and dinner was served, several men who did not know the hero whom they had met to honor, asked him questions, and at the same time to increase his local knowledge. "To nearly every question the coachman answered, 'I don't know.' Exasperated at last, the parson exclaimed, 'What do you know?' 'I know how to drive you from Bristol to Bath, was the ready reply. A story characteristic of English dining parties is just now current at the military clubs. A few fellows determined to give a dinner to a brother officer who had just returned "covered with glory" from Zululand. When the night came and dinner was served, several men who did not know the hero whom they had met to honor, asked him questions, and at the same time to increase his local knowledge. "To nearly every question the coachman answered, 'I don't know.' Exasperated at last, the parson exclaimed, 'What do you know?' 'I know how to drive you from Bristol to Bath, was the ready reply. A story characteristic of English dining parties is just now current at the military clubs. A few fellows determined to give a dinner to a brother officer who had just returned "covered with glory" from Zululand. When the night came and dinner was served, several men who did not know the hero whom they had met to honor, asked him questions, and at the same time to increase his local knowledge. "To nearly every question the coachman answered, 'I don't know.' Exasperated at last, the parson exclaimed, 'What do you know?' 'I know how to drive you from Bristol to Bath, was the ready reply. A story characteristic of English dining parties is just now current at the military clubs. A few fellows determined to give a dinner to a brother officer who had just returned "covered with glory" from Zululand. When the night came and dinner was served, several men who did not know the hero whom they had met to honor, asked him questions, and at the same time to increase his local knowledge. "To nearly every question the coachman answered, 'I don't know.' Exasperated at last, the parson exclaimed, 'What do you know?' 'I know how to drive you from Bristol to Bath, was the ready reply. A story characteristic of English dining parties is just now current at the military clubs. A few fellows determined to give a dinner to a brother officer who had just returned "covered with glory" from Zululand. When the night came and dinner was served, several men who did not know the hero whom they had met to honor, asked him questions, and at the same time to increase his local knowledge. "To nearly every question the coachman answered, 'I don't know.' Exasperated at last, the parson exclaimed, 'What do you know?' 'I know how to drive you from Bristol to Bath, was the ready reply. A story characteristic of English dining parties is just now current at the military clubs. A few fellows determined to give a dinner to a brother officer who had just returned "covered with glory" from Zululand. When the night came and dinner was served, several men who did not know the hero whom they had met to honor, asked him questions, and at the same time to increase his local knowledge. "To nearly every question the coachman answered, 'I don't know.' Exasperated at last, the parson exclaimed, 'What do you know?' 'I know how to drive you from Bristol to Bath, was the ready reply. A story characteristic of English dining parties is just now current at the military clubs. A few fellows determined to give a dinner to a brother officer who had just returned "covered with glory" from Zululand. When the night came and dinner was served, several men who did not know the hero whom they had met to honor, asked him questions, and at the same time to increase his local knowledge. "To nearly every question the coachman answered, 'I don't know.' Exasperated at last, the parson exclaimed, 'What do you know?' 'I know how to drive you from Bristol to Bath, was the ready reply. A story characteristic of English dining parties is just now current at the military clubs. A few fellows determined to give a dinner to a brother officer who had just returned "covered with glory" from Zululand. When the night came and dinner was served, several men who did not know the hero whom they had met to honor, asked him questions, and at the same time to increase his local knowledge. "To nearly every question the coachman answered, 'I don't know.' Exasperated at last, the parson exclaimed, 'What do you know?' 'I know how to drive you from Bristol to Bath, was the ready reply. A story characteristic of English dining parties is just now current at the military clubs. A few fellows determined to give a dinner to a brother officer who had just returned "covered with glory" from Zululand. When the night came and dinner was served, several men who did not know the hero whom they had met to honor, asked him questions, and at the same time to increase his local knowledge. "To nearly every question the coachman answered, 'I don't know.' Exasperated at last, the parson exclaimed, 'What do you know?' 'I know how to drive you from Bristol to Bath, was the ready reply. A story characteristic of English dining parties is just now current at the military clubs. A few fellows determined to give a dinner to a brother officer who had just returned "covered with glory" from Zululand. When the night came and dinner was served, several men who did not know the hero whom they had met to honor, asked him questions, and at the same time to increase his local knowledge. "To nearly every question the coachman answered, 'I don't know.' Exasperated at last, the parson exclaimed, 'What do you know?' 'I know how to drive you from Bristol to Bath, was the ready reply. A story characteristic of English dining parties is just now current at the military clubs. A few fellows determined to give a dinner to a brother officer who had just returned "covered with glory" from Zululand. When the night came and dinner was served, several men who did not know the hero whom they had met to honor, asked him questions, and at the same time to increase his local knowledge. "To nearly every question the coachman answered, 'I don't know.' Exasperated at last, the parson exclaimed, 'What do you know?' 'I know how to drive you from Bristol to Bath, was the

SATURDAY, JAN. 17, 1880.

The dispatches from Maine have become so voluminous that we cannot continue their publication in full. After the Republicans organized their Legislature, they submitted questions to the Supreme Court (Republican of course) and declared their intention to abide its decision—we suppose with the same serious resignation that that party held its claims in the Presidential contest of 1876 to the 7 to 8 coin decision.

The Fusionists met as usual but transacted no business and made no disclosure of their intentions.

Meantime the Fusion President of the Senate who had assumed the functions of Governor addressed a communication to the Military Commander, Chamberlain, asking him if he would recognize him as Governor and obey his orders as commander-in-chief. To this Chamberlain made diplomatic reply that he, as a military man, could not undertake to decide a question purely judicial, and that he too would wait the decision of the Supreme Court before recognizing anybody, and that in the meantime he would preserve the peace. So at this writing, it seems the Radicals have the advantage of the situation, unless the Fusionists have something in reserve the public as yet know nothing of, or the Republican Supreme Court of Maine prove itself more virtuous than Republican Supreme Courts are in the habit of being.

The State Press on Gov. Cobb's Appointment of U. S. Senator.

The Talladega Mountain Home says: While, of course, we may be mistaken in our surmises, it is our belief that Gov. Cobb, in his filling the vacant Senatorship, was more actuated by the fact of the political aspirations, than the effect it might have for the "good of the country." At any rate such is the drift of public opinion, and we dare say that he and his advisers in the matter in question will not deny that such a consideration was taken into account before Mr. Luke Pryor's name was fixed upon. Though all the State looked to the candidates who had gone before the Legislature, as a list from which it would be right and proper to make the selection, it was current that the Governor would go clear out side of those names for an appointee—and the reason universally given was that by so doing he would less antagonize the several formulated strengths in the State, and better his condition as a candidate for a second term.

The Mobile News among other things says: Gov. Cobb went outside of all the prominent persons spoken of for the Senatorship, and appointed one unknown to fame. We are told he was the law partner of Senator Houston. Of course this was a good reason for his appointment.

The News says that rumor has it that Gov. Cobb was looking himself to Houston's successorship when he made the appointment, but the News does not vouch for the truth of the rumor.

The Scottsboro Herald says: Gov. Cobb has appointed Luke Pryor, of Athens, former law copartner of Senator Houston, to fill the vacancy in the United States Senate. This appointment, not being a discrimination between aspirants, will perhaps give less dissatisfaction than any that could have been made.

The Tuscaloosa Clarion thought Mr. Pugh would get the appointment, as did also the Ashland Times.

The Rome Courier says: Gov. Cobb, of Alabama, has appointed Luke Pryor, of Athens, former law partner of Senator Houston, to fill the vacancy in the United States Senate.

Mr. Pryor will hold the place until the meeting of the next Legislature in November. He is not a politician, but will fill that place no doubt acceptably to the people of Alabama. We suppose Gov. Cobb ignored the claims of those who have been looking to a seat in the Senate for fear he might give a good start to one of them in a race he will probably enter himself.

The Marion Standard preferred Hon. Peter Hamilton of Mobile.

The Fort Payne Journal thought that Hon. Taul Bradford had the best chance of any of the three gentlemen who were before the Legislature for the Senatorship when Gov. Houston was elected.

The Huntsville Independent said before the appointment: North Alabama expects the appointment. Hon. Lero, P. Walker is the choice of North Alabama.

The Rockford Enterprise wanted Hon. Taul Bradford appointed.

The Selma Times gives us an excellent bit of sarcasm when it prints the following:

NOT WELL INFORMED—"The appointment of Luke Pryor as a successor of Senator Houston, by the Gov. of Alabama, shows that the editor of the Philadelphia Times was truly satisfied when he penned the following paragraph of the 5 instant, viz: "The recent death of Senator Houston, of Alabama, has thrown the politicians of that State into a flutter, since it leaves a Senatorial term of nearly five years to be filled. The Governor will make an appointment and his appointee will follow the policy of the late Governor, and appoint some accommodating fellow who will give way for him when the Legislature comes to make its choice. Mr. Bradford, an ex-Congressman, appears to be the man most likely to enter into this arrangement. But if ability and liberality in politics are considered in the bestowal of the honor, it would go to Colonel Herbert."

The Tuskegee News thought that Mr. Pugh should have had the appointment, but acquiesced in the appointment of Mr. Pryor as follows: Since writing the above the appointment of Hon. Luke Pryor, of Athens, a former law-partner of Senator Houston, has been announced. It is said that Mr. Pryor is a fluent and forcible speaker and a man of considerable ability. We are informed that Gov. Cobb did not want to take sides between the candidates before the Legislature, and being sure that Mr. Pryor would not seek an election, gave him the place.

From the above extracts, which do not include half said on the subject, it will be seen that the newspapers of the State were taken by surprise at the appointment of Mr. Pryor. The Governor in no event could have escaped criticism by any appointment he could have made; and we are loth to charge him with personal motives in the selection of Mr. Pryor.

Latest from Maine.

The Military in Control—Maine gets a Taste of Louisiana's Troubles.

State of Maine, Major General's Office, Augusta, Jan. 8, 1880.—In the extraordinary situation now presented a. the seat of government, I deem it my duty to make public the following orders, issued by his Excellency, the governor and Commander in Chief:

GENERAL ORDER NO. 12. State of Maine, Adjutant General's Office, Jan. 5, 1880.—First—The several counties of this State are constituted into the first division of the militia of Maine.

Second—Maj. Gen. Joshua L. Chamberlain is assigned to the command of the first division.

Third—The commanding officers of all military organizations accepted into the service of the State are required to report to him. He will be obeyed and respected accordingly.

By order of the Governor and Commander in Chief.

S. D. LEAVITT, Adjutant General.

SPECIAL ORDER NO. 45. State of Maine, Augusta, Jan. 5, 1880.—Maj. Gen. J. L. Chamberlain is hereby authorized and directed to protect the public property and institutions of the State until my successor is appointed.

A. GARCELON, Governor.

S. D. LEAVITT, Adj. Gen. I have entered upon the discharge of the duties devolved upon me in pursuance of the above orders, and shall protect the property and institutions of the State in trust for the people until the Governor's successor has been legally elected and duly qualified.

JOSHUA L. CHAMBERLAIN, Major General.

Boston, Jan. 9.—The Augusta special to the Herald to-day says: "The feeling of doubt and distrust which prevails has increased rather than diminished within twenty-four hours. The military power, though no troops are called out, is becoming universally conspicuous for Maine. Gen. Chamberlain in constant consultation with the civil authorities, and is gradually becoming an important figure. Gen. John Marshall Brown, of his staff, arrived from Portland this morning, and active old army officers are expected to-day."

New York, Jan. 9.—The Sun's special from Augusta says: The most important subject before the Maine Legislature to-day was the dividing on the part of four members of the House of the fact that they had been offered bribes by agents of the Republican party if they would refuse to serve as members of the House, and sign a document denouncing the action of the Governor and Council. Never in the history of the State have such astounding revelations of attempted bribery been exposed as were shown up to-day.

Boston, Jan. 10.—The Journal's Augusta dispatch, says: "There were but 54 members in the seats when the House was called to order, the Republicans all being absent. At 9:20 a. m. the House adjourned until Monday. In the Senate, a resolution was adopted providing for a Committee on State Valuation. Mr. Locke objected to the appointment of such a Committee when the cities were not represented. A Fusionist has received a letter from R. P. Gould declaring that a Governor and Council should be chosen before any action is taken on filling any vacancy, and that the opinion of the Court should be disregarded. He says: "We must hold the State Government if it can possibly be done fairly. Let no Republican be seated in either house if he can be excluded on fair legal grounds."

A watchman last night discovered ten armed men guarding arms in the library room, in the upper story of the State House. Upon a protest by the police force against the presence of these men, they were removed by order of Gen. Marshall Brown.

The rumor that the Governor's room had been seized is false. The crowd at the State House has greatly diminished.

The State Treasurer has ordered that no money be paid out of the Treasury on an order of the Legislature until he otherwise directs.

FURTHER FROM MAINE.

THE DEMOCRATS STILL HOLD THE FORT.

AUGUSTA, Me. Jan. 12.—On the assembling of the Senate this morning, President Lamson sent a letter announcing that he assumed the duties of Governor. Senator Ellis of Wells was chosen President pro tem.

The Council on the gubernatorial votes reported that the following votes were thrown at the election held in September. Whole No. of votes, 138,807, necessary for a choice, 69,404. Daniel E. Davis received 68,700, Jos. L. Smith, 47,648. A Garcelon, 31,845, R. Bradbury, 263; D. F. Davis, 200. The remainder were scattering.

The Constitutional candidates, are D. E. Davis, J. S. Smith and A. Garcelon and B. Bradbury. On a proposition of the Senate to hold a joint Convention for the purpose of qualifying the acting Governor, there was some debate. Mr. Locke of Cumberland, made a long speech in which he declared that the certificates issued by the Governor and Council to those not chosen were not legal, and the acts passed by such a body would not be recognized by the courts or obeyed by the people.

Messrs. Barker & Strickland replied: Defending the legality of the Legislature and declaring they meant as honorable gentlemen to do the fair thing when upon investigation should take place before the proper Committee of the Legislature.

A joint convention was formed and in the presence of the Secretary of the State and several members of the Council, J. D. Lamson, took the oath and was proclaimed acting Governor of the State.

Only sixty members were present in the House and, that body adjourned without transaction of any business.

FUTHER FROM MAINE.

THE SITUATION CHANGES.

AUGUSTA, Me. Jan. 12.—At twenty minutes to six this evening the Republican members of the Senate and House proceeded to one State House for the purpose of organizing a Legislature. The movement was entirely unknown to the Fusionists, and but few of the Republicans outside of the immediate members were aware of the position of affairs.

News that the Republicans had taken possession of the State House, came rapidly and caused great rejoicing among the Fusionists, who had been impatient to have this result brought about.

Mr. Lamson, President of the Senate, when he saw people assembling, proceeded to Gen. Chamberlain's headquarters, and excitedly said: "I protest against these men coming in."

Gen. Chamberlain informed Mr. Lamson that he should permit them to come in and stay as long as they pleased. There was no forcible resistance whatever. The halls were lighted, minor officers of previous Legislature, familiar with the premises, taking hold and tending their assistance.

The Republicans then proceeded coolly to organize a Legislature of their own. It looks as if the military Governor, Chamberlain, had gone back on the Democrats. What the devil has become of Garcelon?

Mr. Tilden on the Third Term.

N. Y. Sun.

Mr. Tilden does not hesitate always. He has very positive convictions about the danger of a third term. He spoke like a patriot when he said: "It is the duty of every sincere lover of republican institutions to do his utmost to prevent the reelection of Gen. Grant."

"For my part," he continued, "I will do everything I can to secure the election of the man who may be agreed upon by the members of the Third Term conspiracy as the best candidate to unite the conservative elements of all parties. If a third term can be conferred upon Grant, a fourth and fifth will be. In short, Grant's instalment in the White House in 1881 means the Empire."

The Chattanooga Times, of a recent date, says: We met a gentleman yesterday, who has undoubted information on the subject, and he is certain that if Kinnead will build anywhere from Carrollton, it will be to Decatur, Ala. The Western will also go to Decatur, via Gadsden. Well, that was a very interesting prospect for the Chattanooga, Rome, Columbus and Pensacola connection. Cincinnati has not to have that road, and she will have it.

As we intimated, on yesterday, the efforts to reconcile the Democratic of New York have resulted in an arrangement, as the war out of the difficulty, that the New York delegation go to the convention positively and wholly unpledged, except that they will vote as a unit for a candidate who seems to be indicated by the majority voice of the convention as the most available man. In other words New York will not put forward a candidate of her own, but will give the support of its delegation to Edward Tilden or any other man who seems to be the favorite of the majority of the other States.

U. S. Senator Lamar, of Mississippi has been stricken with paralysis. He is thought to be in a very critical condition.

STATE OF ALABAMA.

Calhoun county.

In Probate Court for said County. Special Term, Jan. 13th, 1880.

This day came G. W. Lloyd, administrator of the estate of Joseph Lloyd deceased and filed in Court his account and vouchers for an annual settlement of his said administration.

It is ordered by the Court that the 16th day of February 1880 be appointed a day on which to make such settlement, at which time all persons interested can appear and contest the said settlement if they think proper.

L. W. CANNON, Judge of Probate.

STATE OF ALABAMA.

Calhoun County.

In Probate Court for said County. Special Term, Jan. 13th, 1880.

This day came J. D. Bryant, administrator of the estate of Benj. E. Brown deceased and filed in Court his account and vouchers for an annual settlement of his said administration.

It is ordered by the Court that the 16th day of February 1880 be appointed a day on which to make such settlement, at which time all persons interested can appear and contest the said settlement if they think proper.

L. W. CANNON, Judge of Probate.

STATE OF ALABAMA.

Calhoun County.

In Probate Court for said County. Special Term, Jan. 13th, 1880.

This day came J. D. Bryant, administrator of the estate of Benj. E. Brown deceased and filed in Court his account and vouchers for an annual settlement of his said administration.

It is ordered by the Court that the 16th day of February 1880 be appointed a day on which to make such settlement, at which time all persons interested can appear and contest the said settlement if they think proper.

L. W. CANNON, Judge of Probate.

THE STATE OF ALABAMA.

Calhoun county.

Probate Court for said County. Special Term, Jan. 13th, 1880.

This day came James Crook, guardian of Rosa Crook, a minor, and filed his account and vouchers for an annual settlement of his said guardianship. It is ordered that the 16th day of February 1880 be appointed a day on which to make such settlement, at which time all persons interested can appear and contest the said settlement if they think proper.

L. W. CANNON, Judge of Probate.

ATTACHMENT NOTICE.

Joseph A. Jones vs. Henry Clews.

Whereas Joseph A. Jones having applied to the undersigned as Clerk of the Circuit Court of the County of Calhoun and State of Alabama, after having made the affidavit and given the bond prescribed by the laws of Alabama, for an attachment against the property of Henry Clews and having obtained the same returnable to the next term of the Circuit Court of said County and State, and whereas it is made to appear that the said Joseph A. Jones is a resident of said County and State, and the said Henry Clews is a resident of the City and State of New York.

Now therefore this is to notify the said Henry Clews that said attachment has been issued, and levied on the Southwest quarter of the Southwest quarter of Section 12, the West half of the Northwest quarter of Section 13 and the East half of the Northeast quarter of Section 14 all in Township 16 of Range 8 East in the Coosa Land District of said State of Alabama, and that if the said Henry Clews does not appear at the next term of said Circuit Court at the time and place of holding the same, to wit: on the 5th day of April, A. D. 1880 in the town of Jacksonville, Alabama, then and there to answer to the complaint in said case, Joseph A. Jones, Plaintiff in said case, a judgment will be rendered on said attachment, and be as conclusive against the said Henry Clews as if he were present to answer and defend the same; and that upon said judgment execution will issue, order of sale be made and other and further process in relation thereto, be had as the law in such case, made and provided, may direct authorize or require.

Given under my hand this 13th day of January A. D. 1880.

G. B. DOUGHTY, Clerk.

NOTICE NO. 195.

U. S. LAND OFFICE AT MONTGOMERY, ALA.

January 17th 1880.

Notice is hereby given that the following named settler has filed notice of his intention to make final proof in support of his claim, and secure final entry thereof at the expiration of thirty days from the date of this notice, viz: Benjamin Perry, homestead entry No. 5,448, for the S. E. 1/4 of S. E. 1/4 of Section 28, Township 16 South, Range 12 East, and names the following as his witnesses, viz: William S. Williams and John Thrasher of Cleburne County, Ala.

PELHAM J. ANDERSON, Register.

Jan. 17th 5w.

NOTICE NO. 196.

U. S. LAND OFFICE AT MONTGOMERY, ALA.

January 17th 1880.

Notice is hereby given that the following named settler has filed notice of his intention to make final proof in support of his claim, and secure final entry thereof at the expiration of thirty days from the date of this notice, viz: Meredith Lokoy, homestead entry No. 5,479 for the West half of N. W. 1/4 of Section 28, Township 16 South, Range 12 East and names the following as his witnesses, viz: William S. Williams and John Thrasher of Cleburne County, Ala.

PELHAM J. ANDERSON, Register.

Jan. 17th 5w.

NOTICE NO. 186.

U. S. LAND OFFICE AT MONTGOMERY, ALA.

January 17th 1880.

Notice is hereby given that the following named settler has filed notice of his intention to make final proof in support of his claim, and secure final entry thereof at the expiration of thirty days from the date of this notice, viz: Mary A. Malone, widow of Woodley B. Malone, homestead entry No. 4,488 for the Northeast 1/4 of Northeast 1/4 of Section 25 and Southeast 1/4 of Southeast 1/4 of Section 24, Township 13 South, Range 11 East and names the following as her witnesses, viz: Wilson P. Howell and Eliza P. Pitchford of Cleburne County, Ala.

PELHAM J. ANDERSON, Register.

Jan. 17th 5w.

NOTICE NO. 187.

U. S. OFFICE AT MONTGOMERY, ALA.

Jan. 17th, 1880.

Notice is hereby given that the following named settler has filed notice of his intention to make final proof in support of his claim, and secure final entry thereof at the expiration of thirty days from the date of this notice, viz: Mary A. Malone, widow of Woodley B. Malone, homestead entry No. 4,488 for the Northeast 1/4 of Northeast 1/4 of Section 25 and Southeast 1/4 of Southeast 1/4 of Section 24, Township 13 South, Range 11 East and names the following as her witnesses, viz: Wilson P. Howell and Eliza P. Pitchford of Cleburne County, Ala.

PELHAM J. ANDERSON, Register.

Jan. 17th 5w.

NOTICE NO. 188.

U. S. LAND OFFICE AT MONTGOMERY, ALA.

Jan. 17th, 1880.

Notice is hereby given that the following named settler has filed notice of his intention to make final proof in support of his claim, and secure final entry thereof at the expiration of thirty days from the date of this notice, viz: William S. Williams, homestead entry No. 5,479 for the West half of N. W. 1/4 of Section 28, Township 16 South, Range 12 East and names the following as his witnesses, viz: William S. Williams and John Thrasher of Cleburne County, Ala.

PELHAM J. ANDERSON, Register.

Jan. 17th 5w.

NOTICE NO. 189.

U. S. OFFICE AT MONTGOMERY, ALA.

Jan. 17th, 1880.

Notice is hereby given that the following named settler has filed notice of his intention to make final proof in support of his claim, and secure final entry thereof at the expiration of thirty days from the date of this notice, viz: William S. Williams, homestead entry No. 5,479 for the West half of N. W. 1/4 of Section 28, Township 16 South, Range 12 East and names the following as his witnesses, viz: William S. Williams and John Thrasher of Cleburne County, Ala.

PELHAM J. ANDERSON, Register.

Jan. 17th 5w.

NOTICE NO. 184.

U. S. LAND OFFICE AT MONTGOMERY, ALA.

Jan. 17th, 1880.

Notice is hereby given that the following named settler has filed notice of his intention to make final proof in support of his claim, and secure final entry thereof at the expiration of thirty days from the date of this notice, viz: James S. Carter, homestead entry No. 5,410 for the S. E. 1/4 of Section 11, Township 15 South, Range 11 East and names the following as his witnesses, viz: Thomas Dye and Thomas Beasley of Calhoun County, Ala.

PELHAM J. ANDERSON, Register.

Jan. 17th 5w.

NOTICE NO. 185.

U. S. LAND OFFICE AT MONTGOMERY, ALA.

Jan. 17th, 1880.

Notice is hereby given that the following named settler has filed notice of his intention to make final proof in support of his claim, and secure final entry thereof at the expiration of thirty days from the date of this notice, viz: Andrew G. Hughes, homestead entry No. 5,478 for the W. 1/2 of N. W. 1/4 of Section 28 and W. 1/2 of S. E. 1/4 of Section 23, Township 13 South, Range 11 East and names the following as his witnesses, viz: Wilson P. Howell and Thomas J. Ezzell of Cleburne County, Ala.

PELHAM J. ANDERSON, Register.

Jan. 17th 5w.

NOTICE NO. 186.

U. S. LAND OFFICE AT MONTGOMERY, ALA.

Dec. 13th, 1879.

Notice is hereby given that the following named settler has filed notice of his intention to make final proof in support of his claim, and secure final entry thereof at the expiration of thirty days from the date of this notice, viz: Francis M. Thayer, homestead entry No. 5,399, for the N. 1/2 of N. W. 1/4 of fractional section 15, township 15 south, range 12 east, and names the following as his witnesses, viz: John W. Thompson and George F. Thompson, of Cleburne County, Ala.

PELHAM J. ANDERSON, Register.

Dec. 13th—5w.

NOTICE NO. 129.

U. S. LAND OFFICE AT MONTGOMERY, ALA.

Dec. 13th, 1879.

Notice is hereby given that the following named settler has filed notice of his intention to make final proof in support of his claim, and secure final entry thereof at the expiration of thirty days from the date of this notice, viz: Benjamin Perry, homestead entry No. 5,448, for the S. E. 1/4 of S. E. 1/4 of Section 28, Township 16 South, Range 12 East, and names the following as his witnesses, viz: William S. Williams and John Thrasher of Cleburne County, Ala.

PELHAM J. ANDERSON, Register.

Dec. 13th—5w.

NOTICE NO. 128.

U. S. LAND OFFICE AT MONTGOMERY, ALA.

Dec. 13th, 1879.

Notice is hereby given that the following named settler has filed notice of his intention to make final proof in support of his claim, and secure final entry thereof at the expiration of thirty days from the date of this notice, viz: Benjamin Perry, homestead entry No. 5,448, for the S. E. 1/4 of S. E. 1/4 of Section 28, Township 16 South, Range 12 East, and names the following as his witnesses, viz: William S. Williams and John Thrasher of Cleburne County, Ala.

PELHAM J. ANDERSON, Register.

Dec. 13th—5w.

WALKER'S IMPROVED COTTON GIN BRUSH.

AND WIPER.

Superior to any other brush in every particular. 1st. This wet cotton as well as dry. 2nd. Does not clog with any cotton, wet or dry. 3rd. It gives greater speed, and also gives better sample by knocking the cotton off the saws clean and admitting straight current of air. 4th. Cheaper, by far, than any other brush. 5th. Cost not exceeding one dollar for renewing brush after right has been purchased. Until further notice I will furnish material and attach brush to the gin of any party purchasing a right of me, at the gin, charging nothing for the material or work. No money demanded until purchasers are satisfied. Orders ordinarily filled in three days after I receive notice. I own the right for Calhoun, Cleburne and Talladega and parties in these counties can only purchase the right to use this brush through me or my authorized agents. I have recently attached these brushes to the gins of T. H. Arnett, 7 miles east of Jacksonville, Mrs. Brock of Cane Creek, 4 miles south of Alexandria, and my own gin, and parties are referred to these for information. It will pay any man to cut the brushes off his gin brush and attach this brush. Further information will be cheerfully given and correspondence is respectfully solicited. A model can be seen at the Republican office.

Address: Z. HENDERSON, Bruner or Cane Creek, Ala.

Nov. 1—3m.

REGISTER'S NOTICE.

Estate of Thomas K. Cook, Deceased.

In Chancery Court of Calhoun county, Ala. Dec. 1st, 18

Street, I have

Jacksonville

Republican

VOLUME XLII.

"THE PRICE OF LIBERTY IS ETERNAL VIGILANCE."
JACKSONVILLE, ALABAMA, SATURDAY, JANUARY 24, 1880.

WHOLE NO. 2232.

THE REPUBLICAN.

EDITED, PRINTED AND PUBLISHED EVERY SATURDAY MORNING BY

J. F. & L. W. GRANT.

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION:

For one year in advance, $2.00

For six months in advance, $1.25

For three months in advance, $0.75

For one month in advance, $0.25

For one copy, $0.05

For one copy, $0.05

For one copy, $0.05

For one copy, $0.05

For one copy, $0.05

For one copy, $0.05

For one copy, $0.05

For one copy, $0.05

For one copy, $0.05

For one copy, $0.05

For one copy, $0.05

For one copy, $0.05

For one copy, $0.05

For one copy, $0.05

For one copy, $0.05

For one copy, $0.05

For one copy, $0.05

For one copy, $0.05

For one copy, $0.05

For one copy, $0.05

For one copy, $0.05

For one copy, $0.05

For one copy, $0.05

For one copy, $0.05

For one copy, $0.05

For one copy, $0.05

For one copy, $0.05

For one copy, $0.05

For one copy, $0.05

For one copy, $0.05

For one copy, $0.05

For one copy, $0.05

For one copy, $0.05

For one copy, $0.05

For one copy, $0.05

For one copy, $0.05

For one copy, $0.05

For one copy, $0.05

For one copy, $0.05

For one copy, $0.05

For one copy, $0.05

For one copy, $0.05

For one copy, $0.05

For one copy, $0.05

For one copy, $0.05

For one copy, $0.05

For one copy, $0.05

For one copy, $0.05

For one copy, $0.05

For one copy, $0.05

For one copy, $0.05

For one copy, $0.05

For one copy, $0.05

For one copy, $0.05

For one copy, $0.05

For one copy, $0.05

For one copy, $0.05

For one copy, $0.05

For one copy, $0.05

For one copy, $0.05

For one copy, $0.05

For one copy, $0.05

For one copy, $0.05

For one copy, $0.05

For one copy, $0.05

For one copy, $0.05

For one copy, $0.05

For one copy, $0.05

For one copy, $0.05

For one copy, $0.05

For one copy, $0.05

For one copy, $0.05

For one copy, $0.05

For one copy, $0.05

For one copy, $0.05

For one copy, $0.05

For one copy, $0.05

For one copy, $0.05

For one copy, $0.05

For one copy, $0.05

For one copy, $0.05

For one copy, $0.05

For one copy, $0.05

LIGHT THROUGH CLOUDS.

Because I hold it sinful to despair.

And will not let the bitterness of life

Blind me with burning tears, but look beyond

Its tumult and its strife.

Because I lift my head above the mist,

Where the sun shines and the broad breezes blow.

By every ray and every raindrop kissed,

That God's love cloth bestow;

Think you I find no bitter less at all.

No burden to be borne like Christian's pack?

Think you there are no ready tears to fall,

Because I keep them back?

Why should I live in life's ill with cold reserve

To curse myself and all who love me? Nay,

A thousand times more good than I deserve

God gives me every day.

And in each one of these rebellious years,

Kept bravely back he makes a rainbow shine.

Grateful I take his slightest gifts; no fears

For any doubts are mine.

Dark skies must clear, and when the clouds are past.

One golden day redeems a weary year;

Patience I have, and that sweet at last

Will sound his voice of cheer.

The Heart of Ice.

The winter's day was drawing to a close, and the bleak shades of a snowy night were settling in.

In the silent seclusion of a deep and lonely glen, far from any other habitation, and some length from the public road, stood a small cottage, known as the Glen Farmhouse, the property of Ralph Granite, who resided there with his wife, and had done so for thirty years.

It was a cold, hard man—cold and hard as the name he bore.

Mary Granite, his wife, was the exact reverse, with a motherly face and a warm and tender heart.

On this bleak night of December, this night of storm, wind and snow, Granite and his wife were quietly seated in the large, homely kitchen.

At last Mrs. Granite, dropping her knitting in her lap, broke the silence of the room.

"I wonder where Alice is to-night,

Ralph?"

"What do you care where she is, eh?"

roughly exclaimed the farmer, looking up from his paper with a dark frown.

"A night of storm never comes but I think of my poor girl! It was on such a night as this that she left our home, and to-night I have such a strange feeling as my heart."

"Banish her from your thoughts as I have done—the disobedient girl."

"Oh, Ralph, Ralph, it is unfatherly to talk thus! Remember that she is your daughter, my child—the only child God ever gave us."

And tears came rushing to the poor mother's eyes.

"What claim has she on us now? A very dutiful daughter she proved, didn't she?" cried the father, bitterly. "When

Alice disobeyed me by marrying that George Conway, I tore her face and memory out of my heart."

"Alice was never a disobedient child—never, never!" wept the mother. "She loved a man who loved her true. She came to you and told you all; he, too, came, and asked your consent, to marry

Alice. What was your answer? You refused, insulted him, and thrust him from your house."

"As he do again," muttered the farmer, between his clenched teeth.

"They were married in the village church," went on Mrs. Granite, "and took the night train for the city two long years ago. From that time to this her fate and whereabouts have been a mystery, and she has never written to us."

"Yes, she wrote," said Ralph Granite, his face growing still harder. "She sent two or three letters after she went away, but I destroyed them the moment I received them."

"And you never told me," Oh, Ralph,

Ralph, that was cruel!"

"Not more so than her disobedience to her father's wishes. Come now, drop the subject."

Once more Alice reigned in the farmer's cottage.

Ten o'clock came and the storm continued

Farmer Granite and his wife were eating breakfast.

The farmer's face wore a strange look,

and his wife was puzzled.

"Wife," said he, after finishing his breakfast, and pushing back his chair, "do you know what I'm going to do to-day?"

"No."

"Well, then, I'm going to write to the city and ask both Alice and her husband to come out here."

"Are you really in earnest?"

"Yes, wife. I've been a stern father long enough. I'm going to make up with Alice and her husband."

"Mrs. Granite's joy was unbounded. The heart of ice was melted at last.

"I wonder what become of that poor woman who came to our door last night?"

"Oh, she's in the village now, in all probability."

A pain, heavy and sharp, seemed to catch his breath.

Why did he start and seize the back of his chair to keep himself from falling?

Four men were coming up the path—four neighbors carrying between them a plank, with something on it.

They entered the farmer's kitchen and laid the burden on the floor.

The farmer and his wife were pale as the dead face before them.

"A woman, Mr. Granite," explained one of the men, "a woman as was found by four this morning, up yonder on the road.

She's quite dead, sir."

"Why—why did you bring her here?"

gasped the farmer.

"Cause I thought as how her face looked like—like—"

A wild shriek came from Mrs. Granite, who dropped on her knees and tore the covering off the face of the dead woman.

So a cry of agony and horror came from the farmer, the dead wife, with his open, glassy eyes, stared up at him.

"Good Heaven!" he cried, covering his eyes, and staggering backwards.

"It is Alice—our Alice—whom you refused to shelter last night! Oh, Ralph, it is the very heart of Heaven!"

A moan, and Mrs. Granite fell to the floor in a swoon.

"Our Alice?" moaned the stricken father, knocking at the dead daughter's side, and parting the frozen hair from the white temple. Our Alice, whose brightness I have so longed for; and I—! I killed her! It was

I who went to write for you to-day, Alice. I too late now!"

His mind was giving way under the awful shock.

A letter was in the postoffice, and had lain there for two weeks past. One day after Alice had been laid in the churchyard,

Mrs. Granite received it.

It was dated from the city, and from her father, telling that her husband had failed in business and died, and that she was coming home—coming back to the place where she was born, for her heart might forgive her.

The letter was received too late.

It is summer, and the little churchyard of the village is a blooming Eden.

A double grave has been made; two coffers have been lowered into the earth, and the little slab contains three names—Ralph and Mary Granite, and Alice, their daughter.

Husband, wife and daughter sleep together now, under the shade of the churchyard willow.

Eighteen Sons in the War.

Rev. Daniel S. Helton, a Baptist preacher of Roane county, Tenn., is 83 years old, and is as active as most men at 50. He recently walked three miles to give testimony at the county seat and returned the same day. He says: "I can fight a rifle gun as well as I could sixty years ago, and only for a slight tremble of California Drivers.

The California ranchmen have won derful splendide for driving, and one sees some good examples among the hills. The round down the mountain sides is entirely unregarded upon the outer edge, and the most in most places is preception.

A balky horse or a fractured wheel, or a slight carelessness in handling the reins, might easily send a carriage load of people to destruction—and an awful death.

The

The Republican.
ANNOUNCEMENTS.
To the people of Graham County.
I take this method of announcing to the people that I am a candidate at the next election for Probate Judge in this county. I do not enter into this election as the representative of any political party, Democratic or Republican, but stand upon the platform of independence, and in seeking for the support of the people, pledge myself that if elected, I will faithfully, honestly and conscientiously discharge the duties incumbent upon me in my official capacity.
J. A. De ANAN.

The people of Graham County have held an election under the local option law, the 19th inst., and voted whiskey out of the tent by a vote of 79 to 54 or by 25 majority.
We congratulate the people of Graham County on this happy result of this election. Of late there has been too serious difficulties in that tent, and in both instances they were directly traceable to the too free use of whiskey. No doubt these difficulties had an effect to arouse the minds of the people of the tent to the necessity of suppressing a traffic fraught with so much danger to the peace and harmony of the tent. We venture the prediction that the good effects of their vote of Monday will be seen immediately - in the good order and decorum which will mark public gatherings and the intercourse of parties at the tent, who may be brought together in the transaction of ordinary business. We learn that good men voted on both sides of the question. Men have always and will always differ on this question.

We regret to learn that a little boy of Mr. Wm. West's of this county was thrown from a horse and killed Thursday.

MARRIED.
Word-McLean. - At the residence of the bride's father, at Oxford, Ala., on January, 15th, by the bride's father, Rev. J. M. McLean, Mr. J. P. Word and Mrs. Carrie H. McLean. No cards.

BLACKSMITH AND WOODWORKMAN.
Wanted. - Either carpenter or wagon maker, for the year. Apply to M. E. EZZELL, Alexandria, Ala.

AMERICAN SALE. - The Hon. E. W. Johnson, of Fairfax County, among the recent sales from his celebrated flock of American Merino sheep, sold to James Crook, of Jacksonville, Ala., two of his choice rams for the sum of $200. Mr. J. P. Word, a registered Merino sheepman, a nation's reputation, and the South's best known breeder, were reliable in filling the order of his patron.

We congratulate Mr. Crook on the purchase of these choice animals, which will all succeed in an enterprise, which, properly cared for, must be profitable to himself and beneficial to the section of country in which he resides. The Ocala Courier.

The Panama Advertiser says: For the benefit of our country readers we will say that the work of the Panama and Selma Railroad is fast progressing. In response to the call made by the contractor, Mr. Callahan, for one thousand laborers, many hands have responded, and have been transferred to the field of operations.

When a young man gets a cataway that buttons from the watch chain up to the shirt collar, and can hold an inch stab of a cigar between his teeth and look unconcerned, he's entitled to a question, and it's an ungrateful public that fails to answer it. What knowledge has a young man to offer in a world that persistently refuses to recognize merit?

THE DIVORCE. - A man in a theatre named "Bravo" at the leading actress, and she liked it, but when another intemperate admirer shouted "Bravo for you, old girl," and "You're a daisy," she stopped acting and demanded his expulsion. Four ushers undertook the task, but he held himself on the floor, but his arms and legs around the heads and was immovable until they pried him loose with a broom handle.

The Dalton Citizen is responsible for the following: A brother editor, who has evidently been lectured by a lady subscriber writes as follows: "A lady writes an indignant note in which, with true rustic innocence, she expresses a belief that editors never go to Heaven. We thought that even country people know that journalists never went anywhere. They don't get the chance. They just sit up nights thinking how to do good, until the tops of their heads near holes through their hair."

Alabama bonds are still steadily advancing in value. At the Stock Exchange in New York, last Friday $2,000,000 of class A, sold for 90 cents, and $10,000,000 for 80 cents. This is a very heavy advance over bonds of a few months ago. These bonds bear 3 per cent. interest, but commenced at 2 per cent. in January. Georgia's sold the same day at 111. The new Alabama's ought to command a handsome premium, but the indications are that owners of the State money will take the most of them.

Grant when asked his opinion about the different cities he had visited, promptly replied that he thought Washington was the handsomest city in the world. Undoubtedly it has superior attractions for him.

Green Greenwood's daughter Annie, who went abroad to cultivate her voice, has given up her dream of a career upon the stage.

Over the Rio Grande.
Orizaba, Mexico, Dec. 28. - Two young Americans, George Green, of Texas, and Frank Benter, of Boston, in a mail coach near Cuernavaca, were attacked by thirty robbers armed with Winchester rifles. They fought the whole band, killed five and wounded several, compelling the others to retreat. Green was slightly wounded. The disturbances in Chihuahua and Sonora have been repressed. It is reported that Mexico is no longer revolutionary. President Hayes' message and General Ord's report have been published here, receiving favorable comments of Mexican journals.

Richmond, Va., Jan. 2. - The new State officials recently elected by the voters took charge of the respective offices to-day. The season is remarkably mild. Strawberry plants are blooming in gardens around the city.

Pittsburg, Pa., Jan. 2. - The Western Iron Association has decided to advance card rates on bar iron three and a half cents per pound next Monday. This will increase the wages of the puddlers.

Washington, Jan. 19. - The President sent the following nominations to the Senate to-day: James Russell Lowell, of Massachusetts, to be Envoy extraordinary and Minister plenipotentiary to England; John W. Foster, of Indiana, to Russia; Lucius Fairbank, of Wisconsin, to Spain; Philip H. Morgan, of Louisiana, to Mexico; Lewis Richmond, of Rhode Island, to United States Consul, at Belfast; Henry W. Leonard, of New Jersey, at Camperdown; Eli H. Murray, of Kentucky, to be Governor of Utah Territory; Stephen M. Simonson, Assistant Approver, of New York, R. M. Kelly, Pension Agent, at Louisville, Kentucky.

Basel M. Yates, a worthy citizen of Wake county, died last week and was buried under peculiar circumstances. The Ocala Record says that during his last illness he gave full and detailed directions as to his coffin and burial, all of which were faithfully carried out. In accordance with his instructions, without coffin was made of rough pine, being seven feet long, three feet wide and eighteen inches deep. In it was placed a feather bed and pillow, on which the corpse was laid, dressed in a new suit of home made jeans, with his arms placed at (not on) his feet, and his hat resting on his breast, which were crossed on his breast, and one of which held a pair of gloves. An immense crowd attended his burial, and a grand dinner was prepared. Meats of all kinds, pork, beef, mutton, etc., in great abundance, were cooked, and all had plenty to eat. It was the most remarkable funeral ever known in this section. The Masses, of which Fraternity Mr. Yates was an honored member, conducted the burial according to their ritual. (Ocala N. O. Observer.)

The Virgin's (Nov.) Enterprise says: It is probably natural that at the last of the season which have made the strongest impressions in its should be recalled by memory. The old mountaineer, when he comes to die, with his last whisper says his snow shoes are last, with a sage driver he is "on a down grade and gambler's the brake," the mule cannot get to the stables, the editor says eight bells have sounded, and the gambler says he has played his last trump. A little girl died here a few years ago, and as her mother held her wrist and noted the fainting and flickering pulse, a smile came to the wan face, and the child whispered, "there's no more desert here mamma, but all the world is full of beautiful flowers." A man met later the same became transfixed. In an Eastern city, not long ago, a Sister of Charity was dying, and at last from a stupor she opened her eyes and said: "It is strange every kind word that I have spoken in life, every tear that I have shed, has become a living flower around me, and they bring to my senses an income ineffable."

The Rocky Mountain Burialists. - The two negroes, Charles Johnson and Perry Lee Johnson, brother and sister, who robbed Sticks, Winters & Co's. drug store at Round Mountain, Iron Works on the night of the 8th inst., were captured Monday on the mountain, seven miles west of the town, by the posse of the Sheriff, and taken to Round Mountain. The goods taken from the store consisted of clothing, jewelry, pocket cutlery, perfumes and money, amounting in all to about $120. The burials passed through Collinsville early Friday morning, taking the road north, where they turned to head about three miles from the town, and traveled through the woods to the Tennessee river, which they crossed on Sunday and had advanced Gunter's mountain when their pursuers came upon them. They were taken to jail, one of them holding a pistol in his hand. Still refusing to surrender, they were fired upon and both wounded - one in the back and thigh with bullets, and the other with small shot. The former fell when shot in the latter part of his pursuers, and three miles before he was captured his wounds were probably fatal. His escape, but for the timely arrival of one of the posse, who came up in front. The party passed through Collinsville Tuesday on route to Round Mountain, where the prisoners were turned over to the proper authorities.

The capture of these men is a marvel when we consider the character of the country through which they traveled. Over such a road, and with so much almost pathless mountains, it is almost impossible for a man to escape. The Johnsons are professional robbers, and it is said that they have been winning all the money the other Jackson made at the Iron Works. One of them stated after the capture that he had intended to use his pistol, which was a very small revolver, when his pursuers came within range, but that he was shot down with a new-made at longer range, which left him no chance to fight. His wounds are serious, but the other's wounds are painful but not dangerous.

There is no portion of the globe that does not bear the impress of Ireland's genius, or show traces of the labor of her sons. In the works of literature, in the field of science, in the career of arms, Irish names stand prominently forward, challenging the admiration and esteem of all mankind.

Yet you expect plenty of food - whether for planting this spring, for your family in winter, and having nothing undone that can be done now.

Our weather machinery was sold too much at the auction and not enough at the next sale the last period, and machine run too much one way. - Rev. Cather.

SPECIAL NOTICE.
Attention is called to the fact that by operation of an act passed by the last Legislature of Alabama, all State warrants for the arrest of persons named in the following list, issued within twelve months from the day they became a charge against the State and forfeited bond, or they are forever barred, and they are forever barred.

Persons holding such warrants, issued by any of the Courts of the State of Alabama prior to the 15th day of February 1879, and which were a charge against said persons, and which were not forfeited before the 15th of February 1879, or which will be barred and void.

Persons holding such warrants, issued by any of the Courts of the State of Alabama prior to the 15th day of February 1879, and which were a charge against said persons, and which were not forfeited before the 15th of February 1879, or which will be barred and void.

Sight Restored!
The undersigned having had remarkable success in treating numerous cases of eye diseases, cataracts, blindness, and persons suffering from any inflammation of the eyes, impaired vision, etc., desires to make known to the public how such cures may be obtained. He has used his wonderful remedy, and the following certificates are published without solicitation - speak for themselves. Persons desiring treatment can be visited by mail or in person.

A. J. KERR, White Plains, Ala.

DAVIDSON, ALA., Dec. 15th, 1878.
This is to certify that Dr. A. J. Kerr has been treating my eye for one, and they are much better - think they will get entirely well. - J. F. DAVIS.

This is to certify that Dr. A. J. Kerr has been treating my eye for one, and they are much better - think they will get entirely well. - J. F. DAVIS.

THE GENUINE
DR. C. McLANE'S
Celebrated American WORM SPECIFIC OR VERMIFUGE.
SYMPTOMS OF WORMS.
THE countenance is pale and leaden-colored, with occasional flushes, or a circumscribed spot on one or both cheeks; the eyes become dull; the pupils dilate; an uneasy semicircular running along the lower eyelid; the nose is irritated, swells, and sometimes bleeds; a swelling of the upper lip; occasional headache, with humming or throbbing of the ears; an unusual secretion of saliva; slimy or furred tongue; breath very foul, particularly in the morning; appetite variable, sometimes voracious, with a gnawing sensation of the stomach, at others, entirely gone; fevers, pains in the stomach; occasional nausea and vomiting; violent pain throughout the abdomen; bowels irregular, at times constive; stools slimy, not unfrequently tinged with blood; belly swollen and hard; urine turbid, and respiration occasionally difficult, accompanied by hicoughs; cough sometimes dry and convulsive; uneasy and disturbed sleep, with grinding of the teeth; temper variable, but generally irritable, &c.

Wherever the above symptoms are found to exist, DR. C. McLANE'S VERMIFUGE will certainly effect a cure. IT DOES NOT CONTAIN MERCURY in any form; it is an innocent preparation, not capable of doing the slightest injury to the most tender infant.

The genuine Dr. McLANE'S VERMIFUGE bears the signatures of C. McLANE and FLEMING BROS. on the wrapper.

DR. C. McLANE'S LIVER PILLS are not recommended as a remedy for all the ills that flesh is heir to, but for the ills of the liver, and in all Bilious Complaints, Dyspepsia and Sick Headache, or diseases of that character, they stand without a rival.

ACUE AND FEVER.
No better cathartic can be used preparatory to, or after taking, a medicine. As a simple purgative they are unequalled.

BEWARE OF IMITATIONS.
The genuine are never sugar coated. Each box has a red wax seal on the lid with the signature of Dr. C. McLANE. Each wrapper bears the signatures of C. McLANE and FLEMING BROS.

Insist upon having the genuine LIVER PILLS prepared by Fleming Bros. of Birmingham, Ala., the market being full of imitations of the name McLANE, and differentially but same pronunciation.

W. W. HARRISON,
Physician and Surgeon.
OFFICE OVER
CANNON'S STORE.
Robertson, Taylor & Co.
Subscribers to
GEO. W. WILLIAMS & CO.
COTTON FACTORS.
WHOLESALE GROCERIES
And Commission Merchants,
Nos. 1 & 3 HAYNE ST. E. H.
CHARLESTON, S. C.
Will give all business their most careful attention. Consequents of each solicited.

FAMILY FAVORITE.
THE IMPROVED WHEEL
Sewing Machine.
LOOK STITCH!
VERY LIGHT RUNNING.
VERY LATEST IMPROVEMENTS.
We sell with this excellent Machine 6 different sized Bunnings, 1 Quilter, 1 Corrier, 1 Gatherer, 1 Taper, 1 Butler, making 11 attachments, or more than are given with any other machine.
PRICE ONLY $25.00.
Call and examine the machine at ROWAN, DEAN & CO.,
Sep 15-3m Jacksonville, Ala.

Undertakers Notice.
Mr. Jno. H. Crawford having removed from Jacksonville, the undersigned, at his request, will in the future keep on hand Coffins, Metallic cases and burial Caskets, and will assist on burial occasions as Mr. Crawford did while in the undertaking business here.
L. A. WEAVER.
Jan 4-3m

Look Here.
All those indebted to me are earnestly requested to come forward and make payment. What I owe must be paid; consequently, I must collect. Please call soon and pay me all you can. If you cannot pay all now, you can pay what you can, and so do the rest you can, for I am needing the money. I refer you to a portion of the last check and 5th issue of St. Paul, which I enclose, which is not for me. I owe no man anything, but to leave one another? Take warning and obey the word for disobedience is dangerous.
Respectfully, E. L. WOODWARD.

NOTICE.
The Board of Education will meet in Jacksonville the fourth Saturday in this month. All persons expecting to teach during this year, are expected to be present, for examination except those who have unlimited licenses. Township Superintendents are earnestly requested to be present.
G. BRYANT RUSSELL.

REMOVAL.
A. M. LANDERS
The recently removed to Family Grocery, and Billiard Saloon to the store rooms formerly occupied by Whitcomb and Dill. In the front room he has a choice line of

Family Groceries
A choice line of both staple and fancy, always on hand. In the rear room is the billiard table, and the billiard saloon, with the best liquors in market. The billiard table has been placed up stairs in a large and comfortable room where gentlemen can enjoy a game free from interruption. Respectfully,
A. M. LANDERS.
Jan. 2nd 11.

CHILDREN'S SCHOOL.
FEMALE ACADEMY BUILDING.
Mrs. Ida Woodworth will open at the Female Academy, Monday, January 12th her school for children, and will continue the session five months.
TERMS. - Spelling Reading and Mental Arithmetic, $1.00 per month. Higher classes, $1.50 per month, payable at the end of each month.

Berrys & Co.,
WHOLESALE Commission Merchants,
AND COTTON FACTORS,
Room, Georgia.
Liberal Cash Advances made on COTTON and PRODUCE Consigned to us.
STATE OF ALABAMA,
CALHOUN COUNTY.
Probate Court for said County.
Special Term, Dec. 24 1878.
This day came John M. Patterson, administrator of the estate of Nancy McCollum deceased, and filed his account and vouchers for a partial settlement of his administration thereof.
It is ordered that the 30th day of Dec. 1878, be appointed a day on which all persons interested can appear and contest the making of the said settlement if they think proper.
J. W. CANNON, Judge of Probate.
Dec. 30w.

ED. G. CALDWELL,
(At the old Forney Corner.)
Has on hand the best brands of Chowling and Smoking TOBACCOES, including the popular Swenson's, and the celebrated Durham Smoking Tobacco. He has the largest stock of CIGARS in Town. Among his brands you will find the Bolinas, Margarita, Royal, Standard and the favorite Florida Wives.
Chocolate Cakes, Imported Chow Chow, Boston Baked Beans, Salmon and Canned Goods in great variety at ED. G. CALDWELL'S.

Coffee, Sugar, Tea, Mol. Meal, Potatoes, Macaroni, Macaroni & Cheese at ED. G. CALDWELL'S.

Cheap Groceries for Cash at the old Forney Corner.
Fresh Hard at ED. G. CALDWELL'S.
Fresh Meat at ED. G. CALDWELL'S.
YOU can buy anything in the GROCERY line CHEAP for CASH at ED. G. CALDWELL'S.

Go buy one of these fine Plows of the Towers patent at ED. G. CALDWELL'S.
Splendid lot of new Tinware at ED. G. CALDWELL'S.
Finest article of kerosene oil at ED. G. CALDWELL'S.
New lot of stone-ware at E. G. CALDWELL'S.
YOU can buy TEN pounds of RICE for $1.00 at E. G. CALDWELL'S.
YOU can buy 10 pounds of SUGAR for $1.00 at E. G. CALDWELL'S.
Salt at manufacturers prices at E. G. CALDWELL'S.
YOU can buy 5 pounds of good COFFEE for ONE DOLLAR at ED. G. CALDWELL'S.

Queensware at Wholesale.
French China in Sets or by the single piece.
SILVER PLATED GOODS
Fine and CHEAP Table knives & Forks, Tin-ware, Wooden-ware, Glass-ware, Lamps, and Lamp-glasses.
Orders solicited from merchants. We will duplicate any bill that can be brought in America.
J. B. CARPENTER & Co.,
China Hall, Rome, Ga.
Jan 28-3m.

SPRINGDALE STOCK FARM.
JAMES CROOK,
-Breeder of-
Thorough-bred Merino
Sheep, Angora Goats, Herd Registered.
Jersey Cattle,
Berkshire and Essex
Hogs,
JACKSONVILLE, ALA.

BURNHAM'S
MILLS AND SUPPLIES.
Warranted Best and Cheapest.
Grain, Flour, Meal, and all Milling Supplies.
Works: Christiansburg, Lancaster Co. Pa. Office, 23 S. Beaver St., York, Pa.

Grand Reduction in Prices.
B. F. CARPENTER HAS JUST RECEIVED, A LARGE AND COMPLETE
Assortment of Family Groceries, which he proposes to sell at bottom prices. Very best brands of Coffee, Sugar, Tea, Finely Flavored Cakes, Western Bacon, Most Assorted Flour, Raisins, Cranberries, Hardwood, Kerosene, and Buckles, Tin-ware. Every thing kept in a well stocked grocery establishment. He also has on hand a large assortment of Hardware, Saddles, and the very best built or designed and executed by workmen of superior skill. He is determined to sell at such prices as to deserve the patronage of the public. Give him a call, and examine the prices, before going elsewhere.

GREAT BARGAINS IN Pianos & Organs.
H. A. SMITH
ROME, GA.
WHOLESALE AND RETAIL.
Bookseller and Music Dealer.
Has just received from the Manufacturers, the Largest Stock of Pianos ever brought to this market. These instruments having been bought for cash at Low Prices, will be sold to cash customers at PRICES LOWER THAN EVER KNOWN in this country.
Purchasers, by calling early, can have the advantage of selecting from the large stock on hand. Large lot of School & Miscellaneous Books always on hand, at low prices.
JAMES HUTCHINSON,
Barber & Hair-Dresser.
Room on Office Row, recently occupied by Dick Walker.
If you desire to have a pleasant and clean shave, or have your hair trimmed in neat & fashionable style, give him a call.
Jacksonville, Ala. 20, 1878.

A BEAUTIFUL ASSORTMENT
Ladies' and Gentlemen's
EMBROIDERED SLIPPERS.
Also a Complete Line of Heavy Goods, at Prices to Suit the Times.
Highest Market Price Paid for Hides.
Call early and examine stock and prices at
M. P. GOVAN & CO.,
No. 21 Broad Street, Rome, Ga.

DAVID H. DOUGHERTY,
Wholesale and Retail Dealer in Dry Goods, Fancy Goods, Notions, Shoes and Hats,
39 & 41 Peachtree Street, Atlanta, Ga.
FINE DRESS GOODS A SPECIALTY
Please send for Samples.
JOHN E. NISBET, formerly of Jacksonville, is with this house.
We will pay express on all orders amounting to $10.00 or over.

JOHN M. HILL & CO.,
WHOLESALE DEALERS IN LIQUORS, TOBACCO, CIGARS, &C.,
-10 Decatur Street, Atlanta, Ga.

NEW STORE!
Common Sense Bargains.
The undersigned have just opened a new and select stock of Dry Goods, consisting of Dress Goods, Notions, Groceries, and Ladies' Underwear, Jeans, Flannels, Shirts, Shirts, Linen and Oil Cloth Table Cloths, Hats, Boots, Shoes, Ready Made Clothing, Hardware, Groceries, Wooden-ware, etc. Also a good line of GROCERIES,
Both Simple and Fancy. Leather, Shoemakers' Findings. In fact, everything to be found in a first class General Store.
No trouble to show Goods, and all prices. Knowing that these times demand Goods to be sold on a close margin, we defy competition in prices of Goods.
WILSON BROS. & HARBOUR,
Oct 4 '79 1y North-east Corner Public Square, JACKSONVILLE, ALA.

City Bar, Billiard Saloon
JOHN RAMAGNANO,
Face-Brewer, Wine & Beer.
Keeps constantly on hand a full line of First Class Whiskies, Peach and Apple Brandy, Wines, Lager and St. Louis bottled Beer, Cider and other Liquors, Cigars, Smoking and Chewing Tobacco, Glassware, etc. I buy my articles direct from the distillery, thus securing a pure, first class article. Among specialties I keep PURE IMPORTED COGNAC BRANDY.
And the Finest and Purest Wines for medicinal purposes. Parties needing a pure article of Whiskey for medicinal purposes, will find my bar the best place to secure it.
Get 4-3m All my goods will be sold at reasonable prices for cash. JOHN RAMAGNANO.

INSURANCE
The undersigned is Agent for (1) four good and reliable FIRE COMPANIES of the South, to wit:
GEORGIA HOME INSURANCE CO., COLUMBUS, GEORGIA.
HOMER PROTECTION " " HUNTSVILLE, ALA.
CENTRAL CITY " " SELMA, ALA.
COLUMBUS INS. & BANKING CO., COLUMBUS, MISS.
It is wisdom to insure your Dwellings, Barns, Gin Houses, Merchandise, etc.
If you desire INSURANCE, call on me at JACKSONVILLE, ALABAMA, or address me through the mails.
I think I am warranted in saying that these Companies are all in a healthy condition financially, have a CAPITAL ample and sufficient to meet all their liabilities.
I. L. SWAN, Agent,
Jacksonville, Ala.
April 26th, 1879

JOSEPH HOFFMAN,
Fancy Boot & Shoemaker,
JACKSONVILLE, ALA.
Have now on hand, and will continue to keep, the finest lot of FRENCH CALF SKIN, GOOD SOLE LEATHER, and Findings ever brought to this market. An inspection will certainly prove what I here state.
After having worked in Paris, France, and London, England, for several years, and in some of the largest cities in the United States since coming to America, I feel that I am warranted to give all who may favor me with their orders, value for money for their money and promptness, guaranteeing in every instance a perfect fit. Thanking the public for past favors, I solicit a liberal share of their patronage.
Very Respectfully,
JOSEPH HOFFMAN,
Jacksonville, Ala.

Light New Running Machine MODELS OF SIMPLICITY STRENGTH BEAUTY
NEVER GETS OUT OF ORDER
AGENTS WANTED PATENT OF PERFECTION
DOES NOT FATIGUE THE OPERATOR
JOHNSON, CLARK & CO.
ORANGE, MASS. 130 NEW YORK CITY

EAGLE AND PHENIX PERFECT BALL SEWING THREAD, COLUMBUS, GA.
PREPARED BY A PROCESS USED IN NO OTHER MILL.
IT HAS NO EQUAL.
16 Balls to pound, one pound packages.
20 Balls to pound, two pound paper boxes.
Packed in Cases of 20, 50, 100 or 500 Pounds Each.
UNIFORM PRICE. INVARIABLE DISCOUNTS.
SOLD BY ALL JOBBERS.
ASK FOR "EAGLE AND PHENIX." USE NO OTHER.

FARM AND GARDEN.

FATTENING TURKEYS.—It is a goodly sight, as the summer days wane, to see the flocks of turkeys coming home from the woods and pastures at nightfall with full crops. If the farm has not been overstocked with these birds, they have very largely made their living upon grasshoppers, crickets, worms, and other insects from the ground food they have had been ready to keep them wanted than to supply any lack of forage. As the cool nights come on, and the supply of insects declines, the business of fattening properly commences. It should be remembered that plump, well-dressed turkeys not only bring a higher price in market, but enhance the reputation of the producer, and make his market sure for future years. The turkey is one of the distinguished products of the farm, and one of the greatest luxuries in the market. The farmer should do his best in preparing his flock for the shambles. The main business now is to lay on fat, and the birds should have every night a morning's full supply of nutritious and fattening food. Instinctively the turkey follows his feed, and if the supply is abundant at the farm-yard, he will not stroll from the house. Solid potatoes, mashed and mixed with meal, and fed moderately warm, is a very excellent feed, both to promote growth and to fatten. If the pigs can be reared on a part of their milk, and it be mixed with a part of the corn, potatoes and meal, it will very much improve the dish. It is very desirable to supply the place of insects with some kind of animal food, and butchers' scraps are one of the cheapest and most desirable forms of food for poultry. Grains should be given at least once a day with the soft and warm feed. Nothing is better than sound corn. The Northern corn is thought to contain more oil than that of Southern growth. Old corn should always be used for this purpose. The new corn keeps them too loose. In feeding only so much corn should be thrown out, as the birds will eat up clean. Take a little time to feed them, and study sedulously as you watch the iridescent hues upon the glossy plumage. There is nothing more charming upon the farm in the whole circle of the year than a hundred or two of these richly-colored turkeys, feeding near the corn-crib. You can afford to enjoy the disappearance of corn while the turkeys are increasing in weight.

HINTS ON HORSE KEEPING.—The wide stall is a luxury, and ought to be six, or even ten feet wide, if room can be spared. Loose boxes are important for horses of great value; in such stalls they can get partially repose by changing their position, and prevent the fatigue of a hard day's drive, and be ready for their task the next day. The best food adapted to the horse is oats and hay of the best quality, occasionally varied with a bran meal, or corn meal, or roots as an alternative. The growth and development of bone and muscle depend greatly on the food they eat. It is important to select such contains all the elements needed to form the bone and muscle of the horse. It is self-evident that the nutritive material supplied by the food must be equal to the exhaustion or natural waste of the body, to keep up condition. The horse that is about to be driven on a journey should be hardened by exercise, and by sweating out the body to purify and increase the circulation of the blood and also by hand-rubbing the legs to make them firm and elastic—a preparation in some degree corresponding to that attained by a horse who is daily driven on the road for ordinary work. For one week from the start they need daily exercise, commencing with eight or ten miles, and gradually increasing to twenty per day. This exercise, with appropriate food, will harden their muscles, strengthen their limbs, and prepare them to perform their tasks without giving out on the road, materially reducing in flesh, or seriously exhausting their physical powers. If we perform long drives with horses accustomed to short work only, the sudden transition from idleness to great exertion will relax their muscles, weaken their joints, depress their spirits and break down their constitution. The leading cause of so many valuable horses being spoiled by long drives is being short of work. They are not prepared for such severe exertions. Condition will prepare their work cheerfully, but only with sound limbs, and prepare their constitutional vigor for future usefulness.

DRY EARTH AS BEDDING FOR STOCK.—There is nothing more useful in promoting the health and comfort of stock during the winter season, when animals have to be housed and fed, than dry earth. While it is the most abundant, cheapest and easily acquired of all absorbents and disinfectants, it is almost entirely neglected. Straw makes a very imperfect bedding. It serves no purpose whatever, as an absorbent of water, and will for long keep the animals clean. Farmers who have comfortable barns and stables for their stock should, during the dry season in the fall, and before freezing commences, gather from roads and sources of supply large quantities of dry earth, and cover, enough pulverized dry earth to keep the stalls and sleeping apartments of their stock well supplied through the winter. A good bed of dry earth is far more comfortable for hogs than one of straw, but both should be used. For keeping the stables where milch cows are sheltered and fed, clean and sweet, fine dry earth is superior to anything else. The liquid voiding of the animals is absorbed by the dry earth, prevented from pervading the premises. A dusting of dry earth banishes vermin from stock, and is at once the simplest, most convenient and harmless of all remedies for, or prevention of, vermin. As a saver of farm wealth, dry earth is the most complete. There is nothing more desirable than clean, sweet cow-stables if good milk and butter can be obtained, and no other means will achieve this end so thoroughly, so conveniently and without extra expense as to have convenient for use through the winter a supply of dry earth.

MURRY HAY AND DAMAGED GRASS cannot be fed to stock with impunity.

Something for the New Year.—The world renowned success of Hostetter's Bitters, and its continued popularity for a quarter of a century, is a remarkable and wonderful fact, the witness of which is a genuine appearance of Hostetter's Almanac. This valuable medical treatise is published by Hostetter & Sons, Philadelphia. The new volume contains the most complete and up-to-date information on all the latest medical discoveries, and is a most valuable and interesting work. It is a most valuable and interesting work, and is a most valuable and interesting work.

PAINTED VEHICLES.—When vehicles have been newly painted do not be in a hurry to use them; it is economy to let them stand until the coat is thoroughly hardened.

BITS OF SCRAPED ICE are better on the tongue than a drink of water.

A GREAT medicine in small vials.—Dr. Hostetter's Little Pills, cheap, paste-board or wooden boxes, that allow a waste of strength, headache, dizziness, rush of blood to the head, bad taste in mouth, bilious stools, jaundice, internal fever, boils and nettle rash. Sold by Druggists.

TO MAKE BAKELY SUGAR.—To every pound of sugar add half a pint of water, and half the weight of an egg. Put the sugar into a well tinned saucepan, with the water, and when the former is dissolved, set it over a moderate fire, adding the well-beaten egg before the mixture gets warm, and stir it well together. When it boils remove the sugar as it rises and keep it boiling until no more appears, and the syrup looks perfectly clear; then strain it through a fine sieve or muslin bag, and put it back into the saucepan. Boil it again like caramel, until it is brittle, when a little is dropped in a basin of cold water, it is then sufficiently boiled. Add a little lemon juice and let it stand for a minute or two. Have ready a marble slab rubbed over with oil, and pour the sugar on, and cut it into strips with a pair of scissors; these strips should then be twisted.

PROFITABLE PATIENTS.—The most wonderful and marvelous success, in cases where persons are sick or wasting away from a condition of weakness, (profitable patients for doctors,) is obtained by the use of Hostetter's Bitters. They begin to cure from the first dose, and in a few days the patient's strength is restored. Whoever is afflicted in this way need not suffer when they can get Hostetter's Bitters. See other columns.

A VERY LARGE QUANTITY of poisonous vines, or ivy, which clings to the trees, particularly oaks, is found scattered all over, and a few persons know what to do to relieve themselves from the tormenting irritation it produces. We therefore recommend "Labarraque's" solution of chloride of soda, which when the skin is not broken, can be applied three or four times a day, when broken, it should be diluted with from three to six parts water. This remedy is also prescribed for erysipelas, burns and scalds and is found to be very efficacious.

MIXED VEAL AND EGGS.—Take some remnants of roast or braised veal, trim off all browned parts, and mince very finely; fry a shallot, or onion, chopped small, in plenty of butter; when it is a light straw color add a little pinch of flour and a little stock, then the minced meat, with chopped parsley, pepper, salt and nutmeg to taste; mix well and cook for five minutes, and let the mixture gradually get hot by the side of the fire; lastly add a few drops of lemon juice. Serve with sippets of bread fried in butter round, and the poached eggs on the top.

THE PRICE of soap is rapidly advancing. A year's supply of "Domina's" Electric Soap, bought now at old price will be a very judicious purchase.

CHOCOLATE DROPS.—Pour half a pint boiling water on one quart of white sugar; mix well, and boil ten minutes without stirring; place the saucepan in cold water, and stir briskly till it becomes stiff enough to handle; mould it in little balls, and let it to cool. Break the chocolate in pieces, and put in a bowl in part of a boiling tea-kettle; when melted, remove the bowl, and drop in the balls one at a time; take them out with a fork and place on buttered paper.

FRICASSE CHICKEN.—Take two good-sized chickens, nicely cleaned and divided. Stew them in one quart of water, and well for long; add milk; add a little salt and pepper, one fourth of a pound of butter, a pint of tender green corn cut from the cob; and when the chickens are perfectly cooked, add the corn, and serve in a spoonful of flour made into a smooth paste with a little cold water. Send to the table in a deep dish.

PETROLIA. Par. Jan. 5, 1873. Messrs. KENNEDY & Co.—My hair is growing out so fast that I can hardly use of your Carboline.

INITIALING ammonia is an excellent remedy for headache and will often relieve the most severe headache. The ammonia is absorbed by the skin, and prepared for heartburn and dyspepsia. Ten drops in a wine glass of water affording relief. The spirits of ammonia can be similarly used but is not so palatable.

TUMBLER CAKE.—Two eggs, one and one half tumbler of sugar, one-half tumbler of butter, one tumbler of sour milk, one-half tumbler of molasses, one tumbler of raisins, three tumbler of flour, one teaspoonful of soda, spices if you like.

A GOOD NURSE is a blessing to every family, and all sensible nurses recommend that innocent but effectual remedy for the pains and ills that befall a baby.—Dr. Bull's Baby Syrup, Price 25 cents.

PAINTED VEHICLES.—When vehicles have been newly painted do not be in a hurry to use them; it is economy to let them stand until the coat is thoroughly hardened.

BITS OF SCRAPED ICE are better on the tongue than a drink of water.

DOMESTIC.

CUTS.—In treating ordinary cuts, cleanliness and care are generally more requisite than skill. If the cut be extensive, or an artery, vein, or any other important part be injured, it becomes a more urgent matter. Accidental cuts from knives, cutting tools, &c., are more likely to occur on the face and other exposed parts of the body. All that is requisite in general, is to bring the parts together as accurately as possible, and bind them up; this is usually done by adhesive plaster, when the cut ceases to bleed. Nothing is so good for this purpose as paper, first washed over on one side with thick gum water, and then dried; when used, it is only to be slightly wetted with the tongue. When the cut bleeds but little, it is well to soak it in warm water for a few minutes, or to keep a wet cloth on it. This removes inflammation and pain, and also a tendency to faintness, which a cut gives some persons. If the bleeding be too copious, dab the part with a rag wetted with creosote. If the wound be large, it should be sewed up. If the blood that issues be very scarlet, it may be concluded that an artery has been touched, and then endeavor the bleeding cannot be stopped, medical aid must be procured, the best method to pursue is to bind up the wound tightly, or to hold a finger strongly against the part that bleeds.

TO MAKE BAKELY SUGAR.—To every pound of sugar add half a pint of water, and half the weight of an egg. Put the sugar into a well tinned saucepan, with the water, and when the former is dissolved, set it over a moderate fire, adding the well-beaten egg before the mixture gets warm, and stir it well together. When it boils remove the sugar as it rises and keep it boiling until no more appears, and the syrup looks perfectly clear; then strain it through a fine sieve or muslin bag, and put it back into the saucepan. Boil it again like caramel, until it is brittle, when a little is dropped in a basin of cold water, it is then sufficiently boiled. Add a little lemon juice and let it stand for a minute or two. Have ready a marble slab rubbed over with oil, and pour the sugar on, and cut it into strips with a pair of scissors; these strips should then be twisted.

PROFITABLE PATIENTS.—The most wonderful and marvelous success, in cases where persons are sick or wasting away from a condition of weakness, (profitable patients for doctors,) is obtained by the use of Hostetter's Bitters. They begin to cure from the first dose, and in a few days the patient's strength is restored. Whoever is afflicted in this way need not suffer when they can get Hostetter's Bitters. See other columns.

A VERY LARGE QUANTITY of poisonous vines, or ivy, which clings to the trees, particularly oaks, is found scattered all over, and a few persons know what to do to relieve themselves from the tormenting irritation it produces. We therefore recommend "Labarraque's" solution of chloride of soda, which when the skin is not broken, can be applied three or four times a day, when broken, it should be diluted with from three to six parts water. This remedy is also prescribed for erysipelas, burns and scalds and is found to be very efficacious.

MIXED VEAL AND EGGS.—Take some remnants of roast or braised veal, trim off all browned parts, and mince very finely; fry a shallot, or onion, chopped small, in plenty of butter; when it is a light straw color add a little pinch of flour and a little stock, then the minced meat, with chopped parsley, pepper, salt and nutmeg to taste; mix well and cook for five minutes, and let the mixture gradually get hot by the side of the fire; lastly add a few drops of lemon juice. Serve with sippets of bread fried in butter round, and the poached eggs on the top.

THE PRICE of soap is rapidly advancing. A year's supply of "Domina's" Electric Soap, bought now at old price will be a very judicious purchase.

CHOCOLATE DROPS.—Pour half a pint boiling water on one quart of white sugar; mix well, and boil ten minutes without stirring; place the saucepan in cold water, and stir briskly till it becomes stiff enough to handle; mould it in little balls, and let it to cool. Break the chocolate in pieces, and put in a bowl in part of a boiling tea-kettle; when melted, remove the bowl, and drop in the balls one at a time; take them out with a fork and place on buttered paper.

FRICASSE CHICKEN.—Take two good-sized chickens, nicely cleaned and divided. Stew them in one quart of water, and well for long; add milk; add a little salt and pepper, one fourth of a pound of butter, a pint of tender green corn cut from the cob; and when the chickens are perfectly cooked, add the corn, and serve in a spoonful of flour made into a smooth paste with a little cold water. Send to the table in a deep dish.

PETROLIA. Par. Jan. 5, 1873. Messrs. KENNEDY & Co.—My hair is growing out so fast that I can hardly use of your Carboline.

INITIALING ammonia is an excellent remedy for headache and will often relieve the most severe headache. The ammonia is absorbed by the skin, and prepared for heartburn and dyspepsia. Ten drops in a wine glass of water affording relief. The spirits of ammonia can be similarly used but is not so palatable.

TUMBLER CAKE.—Two eggs, one and one half tumbler of sugar, one-half tumbler of butter, one tumbler of sour milk, one-half tumbler of molasses, one tumbler of raisins, three tumbler of flour, one teaspoonful of soda, spices if you like.

A GOOD NURSE is a blessing to every family, and all sensible nurses recommend that innocent but effectual remedy for the pains and ills that befall a baby.—Dr. Bull's Baby Syrup, Price 25 cents.

PAINTED VEHICLES.—When vehicles have been newly painted do not be in a hurry to use them; it is economy to let them stand until the coat is thoroughly hardened.

BITS OF SCRAPED ICE are better on the tongue than a drink of water.

A GREAT medicine in small vials.—Dr. Hostetter's Little Pills, cheap, paste-board or wooden boxes, that allow a waste of strength, headache, dizziness, rush of blood to the head, bad taste in mouth, bilious stools, jaundice, internal fever, boils and nettle rash. Sold by Druggists.

TO MAKE BAKELY SUGAR.—To every pound of sugar add half a pint of water, and half the weight of an egg. Put the sugar into a well tinned saucepan, with the water, and when the former is dissolved, set it over a moderate fire, adding the well-beaten egg before the mixture gets warm, and stir it well together. When it boils remove the sugar as it rises and keep it boiling until no more appears, and the syrup looks perfectly clear; then strain it through a fine sieve or muslin bag, and put it back into the saucepan. Boil it again like caramel, until it is brittle, when a little is dropped in a basin of cold water, it is then sufficiently boiled. Add a little lemon juice and let it stand for a minute or two. Have ready a marble slab rubbed over with oil, and pour the sugar on, and cut it into strips with a pair of scissors; these strips should then be twisted.

PROFITABLE PATIENTS.—The most wonderful and marvelous success, in cases where persons are sick or wasting away from a condition of weakness, (profitable patients for doctors,) is obtained by the use of Hostetter's Bitters. They begin to cure from the first dose, and in a few days the patient's strength is restored. Whoever is afflicted in this way need not suffer when they can get Hostetter's Bitters. See other columns.

A VERY LARGE QUANTITY of poisonous vines, or ivy, which clings to the trees, particularly oaks, is found scattered all over, and a few persons know what to do to relieve themselves from the tormenting irritation it produces. We therefore recommend "Labarraque's" solution of chloride of soda, which when the skin is not broken, can be applied three or four times a day, when broken, it should be diluted with from three to six parts water. This remedy is also prescribed for erysipelas, burns and scalds and is found to be very efficacious.

MIXED VEAL AND EGGS.—Take some remnants of roast or braised veal, trim off all browned parts, and mince very finely; fry a shallot, or onion, chopped small, in plenty of butter; when it is a light straw color add a little pinch of flour and a little stock, then the minced meat, with chopped parsley, pepper, salt and nutmeg to taste; mix well and cook for five minutes, and let the mixture gradually get hot by the side of the fire; lastly add a few drops of lemon juice. Serve with sippets of bread fried in butter round, and the poached eggs on the top.

THE PRICE of soap is rapidly advancing. A year's supply of "Domina's" Electric Soap, bought now at old price will be a very judicious purchase.

CHOCOLATE DROPS.—Pour half a pint boiling water on one quart of white sugar; mix well, and boil ten minutes without stirring; place the saucepan in cold water, and stir briskly till it becomes stiff enough to handle; mould it in little balls, and let it to cool. Break the chocolate in pieces, and put in a bowl in part of a boiling tea-kettle; when melted, remove the bowl, and drop in the balls one at a time; take them out with a fork and place on buttered paper.

FRICASSE CHICKEN.—Take two good-sized chickens, nicely cleaned and divided. Stew them in one quart of water, and well for long; add milk; add a little salt and pepper, one fourth of a pound of butter, a pint of tender green corn cut from the cob; and when the chickens are perfectly cooked, add the corn, and serve in a spoonful of flour made into a smooth paste with a little cold water. Send to the table in a deep dish.

PETROLIA. Par. Jan. 5, 1873. Messrs. KENNEDY & Co.—My hair is growing out so fast that I can hardly use of your Carboline.

INITIALING ammonia is an excellent remedy for headache and will often relieve the most severe headache. The ammonia is absorbed by the skin, and prepared for heartburn and dyspepsia. Ten drops in a wine glass of water affording relief. The spirits of ammonia can be similarly used but is not so palatable.

TUMBLER CAKE.—Two eggs, one and one half tumbler of sugar, one-half tumbler of butter, one tumbler of sour milk, one-half tumbler of molasses, one tumbler of raisins, three tumbler of flour, one teaspoonful of soda, spices if you like.

HUMOROUS.

"WHICH TRAIN?"—Recently a lady, after gazing at all the brass-bound officials in the depot finally approached one of the most genial conductors on the road.

"Can you tell me, sir," said she, "who is conductor of this train?"

"What train, madam?"

"This train," (gazing vacantly into space.)

"Yes, madam, but which train?"

"Yes, yes; but which route?" returned the conductor, getting red in the face.

"For the West," sweetly replied the lady.

"Well, which way—by the way of Buffalo?"

"Yes, by the way of Buffalo," she replied.

"Yes, madame, there he stands within two feet of you."

NOT A BEVERAGE.—"They are not a beverage but a medicine, with curative properties of the highest degree, containing no poor whiskey or poisonous drugs. They do not tear down an already debilitated system, but build it up. One bottle contains more hops, than is more real hop strength, than a barrel of ordinary beer. Every drug-gist in Rochester sells them, and the physicians prescribe them."—Evening Express on Hop Bitters

"I was at church to-day, and enjoyed it greatly." "Ah," said the pious landlady, "I am glad that I didn't see you, though, on which side did you sit?"

"Aleem—yes—abow," stammered the dissipated Jones, "I sat on the outside."

A DEARTH of pennies is threatened, and the heathen are elated accordingly. Every hand that passes over the contribution box must drop a three-cent piece or nothing. (Peppermints and lozenges barred out.)

It was at Nantucket, the other day. On the way up from the boat one of the passengers asked the driver, "Do they play 'Piano' here?"

answered the benighted islander, with a puzzled look, "but they play billiards."

"If you want a pug dog, madam," said a dog fancier to a woman who he perceived, "this here's the dog; why his nose is just a turnip" sonnetists "between his ears all the time."

VERIFIERS now acknowledged by our best physicians to be the only safe and sure remedy for all scurvy arising from impure blood, such as scrofula and scrofulous humors.

It is believed that Jacob was the first Indian agent, for the bible represents him as saying "Lo, I have served thee many years."

When the Queen of Sheba said the one-half had not been told her, which half did she mean? Solomon's better half, probably.

Of all the marvelous works of the two great deities, there is nothing that angels behold with such supreme astonishment as a proud man.

When a writer swears because his articles are refused, it's a proof that rejected communication corrupt good manners.

"We are living at present in the very arms of tyranny," exclaimed a western scribbler. Ah! just been married have you?

A FASTIDIOUS magazine says: sisters are never so much longer this winter. "Well, then," by St. George, the men who wear them have got to wear stills, that's all.

Why is a rosebud like a promissory note? It matures by falling dew.

When the deacons of a church hand around a silver contribution-dish, and do not expect it to come back nicked.

Anybody can travel from Boston to New York by telephone who will go on the Sound.

CHARITY covers a multitude of sins. Same way with the camp meeting tent.

A MINCE pie at bedtime is the shortest route to the menagerie.

The season for remembering the poor has come around.

BEAUTY, frankness and freedom are things to delight in.

Way is a lover like a knocker? Because he is bound to adore.

A GRAVE-YARD—Thirty-six inches of black care.

ANY actress can paint but only a few can draw.

Dr. C. Huter, a German savant, of arrangement, he devised a simple arrangement to make the circulation of the blood in the human body by making it visible. What is known as Purkinje's experiment previously enabled an observer to witness the circulation in his own retinal blood vessels; but now, for the first time, the flow of the vital fluid in one person be watched by another, and that, we are assured, with sufficient accuracy to detect anything abnormal, and to obtain invaluable assistance in the diagnosis of disease. Dr. Huter's method is as follows: The patient's head being fixed in a frame, on which is a contrivance for supporting a microscope and a lamp, his lower lip is drawn outward fixed on the stage of the microscope by means of a clip, the inner surface of the upper lip, having a strong light thrown upon it by a condenser. When these preparations are completed all the observer has to do is to bring the microscope to bear on the surface of the lip, and he will see the circulation of the blood in a small superficial vessel. At once he sees the endless procession of the blood corpuscles through the minute capillaries, the colorless ones appearing like white specks dotting the red stream. Dr. Huter asserts that from taking careful note of variations in the blood flow and changes in the corpuscles he has derived great advantages in the treatment of medical cases.

Why does ANY RISK with water (Cotton, Corn, Hoar-frost, or other) when a remedy safe, thorough, and easily obtained as Dr. J. C. Huter's? It is a question that can be asked? If you have contracted a severe cold, save your lungs from the danger of pneumonia, and your throat from the danger of diphtheria, by using Dr. Huter's remedy. It is a remedy that is safe, thorough, and easily obtained as Dr. J. C. Huter's? It is a question that can be asked? If you have contracted a severe cold, save your lungs from the danger of pneumonia, and your throat from the danger of diphtheria, by using Dr. Huter's remedy. It is a remedy that is safe, thorough, and easily obtained as Dr. J. C. Huter's? It is a question that can be asked? If you have contracted a severe cold, save your lungs from the danger of pneumonia, and your throat from the danger of diphtheria, by using Dr. Huter's remedy. It is a remedy that is safe, thorough, and easily obtained as Dr. J. C. Huter's? It is a question that can be asked? If you have contracted a severe cold, save your lungs from the danger of pneumonia, and your throat from the danger of diphtheria, by using Dr. Huter's remedy. It is a remedy that is safe, thorough, and easily obtained as Dr. J. C. Huter's? It is a question that can be asked? If you have contracted a severe cold, save your lungs from the danger of pneumonia, and your throat from the danger of diphtheria, by using Dr. Huter's remedy. It is a remedy that is safe, thorough, and easily obtained as Dr. J. C. Huter's? It is a question that can be asked? If you have contracted a severe cold, save your lungs from the danger of pneumonia, and your throat from the danger of diphtheria, by using Dr. Huter's remedy. It is a remedy that is safe, thorough, and easily obtained as Dr. J. C. Huter's? It is a question that can be asked? If you have contracted a severe cold, save your lungs from the danger of pneumonia, and your throat from the danger of diphtheria, by using Dr. Huter's remedy. It is a remedy that is safe, thorough, and easily obtained as Dr. J. C. Huter's? It is a question that can be asked? If you have contracted a severe cold, save your lungs from the danger of pneumonia, and your throat from the danger of diphtheria, by using Dr. Huter's remedy. It is a remedy that is safe, thorough, and easily obtained as Dr. J. C. Huter's? It is a question that can be asked? If you have contracted a severe cold, save your lungs from the danger of pneumonia, and your throat from the danger of diphtheria, by using Dr. Huter's remedy. It is a remedy that is safe, thorough, and easily obtained as Dr. J. C. Huter's? It is a question that can be asked? If you have contracted a severe cold, save your lungs from the danger of pneumonia, and your throat from the danger of diphtheria, by using Dr. Huter's remedy. It is a remedy that is safe, thorough, and easily obtained as Dr. J. C. Huter's? It is a question that can be asked? If you have contracted a severe cold, save your lungs from the danger of pneumonia, and your throat from the danger of diphtheria, by using Dr. Huter's remedy. It is a remedy that is safe, thorough, and easily obtained as Dr. J. C. Huter's? It is a question that can be asked? If you have contracted a severe cold, save your lungs from the danger of pneumonia, and your throat from the danger of diphtheria, by using Dr. Huter's remedy. It is a remedy that is safe, thorough, and easily obtained as Dr. J. C. Huter's? It is a question that can be asked? If you have contracted a severe cold, save your lungs from the danger of pneumonia, and your throat from the danger of diphtheria, by using Dr. Huter's remedy. It is a remedy that is safe, thorough, and easily obtained as Dr. J. C. Huter's? It is a question that can be asked? If you have contracted a severe cold, save your lungs from the danger of pneumonia, and your throat from the danger of diphtheria, by using Dr. Huter's remedy. It is a remedy that is safe, thorough, and easily obtained as Dr. J. C. Huter's? It is a question that can be asked? If you have contracted a severe cold, save your lungs from the danger of pneumonia, and your throat from the danger of diphtheria, by using Dr. Huter's remedy. It is a remedy that is safe, thorough, and easily obtained as Dr. J. C. Huter's? It is a question that can be asked? If you have contracted a severe cold, save your lungs from the danger of pneumonia, and your throat from the danger of diphtheria, by using Dr. Huter's remedy. It is a remedy that is safe, thorough, and easily obtained as Dr. J. C. Huter's? It is a question that can be asked? If you have contracted a severe cold, save your lungs from the danger of pneumonia, and your throat from the danger of diphtheria, by using Dr. Huter's remedy. It is a remedy that is safe, thorough, and easily obtained as Dr. J. C. Huter's? It is a question that can be asked? If you have contracted a severe cold, save your lungs from the danger of pneumonia, and your throat from the danger of diphtheria, by using Dr. Huter's remedy. It is a remedy that is safe, thorough, and easily obtained as Dr. J. C. Huter's? It is a question that can be asked? If you have contracted a severe cold, save your lungs from the danger of pneumonia, and your throat from the danger of diphtheria, by using Dr. Huter's remedy. It is a remedy that is safe, thorough, and easily obtained as Dr. J. C. Huter's? It is a question that can be asked? If you have contracted a severe cold, save your lungs from the danger of pneumonia, and your throat from the danger of diphtheria, by using Dr. Huter's remedy. It is a remedy that is safe, thorough, and easily obtained as Dr. J. C. Huter's? It is a question that can be asked? If you have contracted a severe cold, save your lungs from the danger of pneumonia, and your throat from the danger of diphtheria, by using Dr. Huter's remedy. It is a remedy that is safe, thorough, and easily obtained as Dr. J. C. Huter's? It is a question that can be asked? If you have contracted a severe cold, save your lungs from the danger of pneumonia, and your throat from the danger of diphtheria, by using Dr. Huter's remedy. It is a remedy that is safe, thorough, and easily obtained as Dr. J. C. Huter's? It is a question that can be asked? If you have contracted a severe cold, save your lungs from the danger of pneumonia, and your throat from the danger of diphtheria, by using Dr. Huter's remedy. It is a remedy that is safe, thorough, and easily obtained as Dr. J. C. Huter's? It is a question that can be asked? If you have contracted a severe cold, save your lungs from the danger of pneumonia, and your throat from the danger of diphtheria, by using Dr. Huter's remedy. It is a remedy that is safe, thorough, and easily obtained as Dr. J. C. Huter's? It is a question that can be asked? If you have contracted a severe cold, save your lungs from the danger of pneumonia, and your throat from the danger of diphtheria, by using Dr. Huter's remedy. It is a remedy that is safe, thorough, and easily obtained as Dr. J. C. Huter's? It is a question that can be asked? If you have contracted a severe cold, save your lungs from the danger of pneumonia, and your throat from the danger of diphtheria, by using Dr. Huter's remedy. It is a remedy that is safe, thorough, and easily obtained as Dr. J. C. Huter's? It is a question that can be asked? If you have contracted a severe cold, save your lungs from the danger of pneumonia, and your throat from the danger of diphtheria, by using Dr. Huter's remedy. It is a remedy that is safe, thorough, and easily obtained as Dr. J. C. Huter's? It is a question that can be asked? If you have contracted a severe cold, save your lungs from the danger of pneumonia, and your throat from the danger of diphtheria, by using Dr. Huter's remedy. It is a remedy that is safe, thorough, and easily obtained as Dr. J. C. Huter's? It is a question that can be asked? If you have contracted a severe cold, save your lungs from the danger of pneumonia, and your throat from the danger of diphtheria, by using Dr. Huter's remedy. It is a remedy that is safe, thorough, and easily obtained as Dr. J. C. Huter's? It is a question that can be asked? If you have contracted a severe cold, save your lungs from the danger of pneumonia, and your throat from the danger of diphtheria, by using Dr. Huter's remedy. It is a remedy that is safe, thorough, and easily obtained as Dr. J. C. Huter's? It is a question that can be asked? If you have contracted a severe cold, save your lungs from the danger of pneumonia, and your throat from the danger of diphtheria, by using Dr. Huter's remedy. It is a remedy that is safe, thorough, and easily obtained as Dr. J. C. Huter's? It is a question that can be asked? If you have contracted a severe cold, save your lungs from the danger of pneumonia, and your throat from the danger of diphtheria, by using Dr. Huter's remedy. It is a remedy that is safe, thorough, and easily obtained as Dr. J. C. Huter's? It is a question that can be asked? If you have contracted a severe cold, save your lungs from the danger of pneumonia, and your throat from the danger of diphtheria, by using Dr. Huter's remedy. It is a remedy that is safe, thorough, and easily obtained as Dr. J. C. Huter's? It is a question that can be asked? If you have contracted a severe cold, save your lungs from the danger of pneumonia, and your throat from the danger of diphtheria, by using Dr. Huter's remedy. It is a remedy that is safe, thorough, and easily obtained as Dr. J. C. Huter's? It is a question that can be asked? If you have contracted a severe cold, save your lungs from the danger of pneumonia, and your throat from the danger of diphtheria, by using Dr. Huter's remedy. It is a remedy that is safe, thorough, and easily obtained as Dr. J. C. Huter's? It is a question that can be asked? If you have contracted a severe cold, save your lungs from the danger of pneumonia, and your throat from the danger of diphtheria, by using Dr. Huter's remedy. It is a remedy that is safe, thorough, and easily obtained as Dr. J. C. Huter's? It is a question that can be asked? If you have contracted a severe cold, save your lungs from the danger of pneumonia, and your throat from the danger of diphtheria, by using Dr. Huter's remedy. It is a remedy that is safe, thorough, and easily obtained as Dr. J. C. Huter's? It is a question that can be asked? If you have contracted a severe cold, save your lungs from the danger of pneumonia, and your throat from the danger of diphtheria, by using Dr. Huter's remedy. It is a remedy that is safe, thorough, and easily obtained as Dr. J. C. Huter's? It is a question that can be asked? If you have contracted a severe cold, save your lungs from the danger of pneumonia, and your throat from the danger of diphtheria, by using Dr. Huter's remedy. It is a remedy that is safe, thorough, and easily obtained as Dr. J. C. Huter's? It is a question that can be asked? If you have contracted a severe cold, save your lungs from the danger of pneumonia, and your throat from the danger of diphtheria, by using Dr. Huter's remedy. It is a remedy that is safe, thorough, and easily obtained as Dr. J. C. Huter's? It is a question that can be asked? If you have contracted a severe cold, save your lungs from the danger of pneumonia, and your throat

Jacksonville Republican

"THE PRICE OF LIBERTY IS ETERNAL VIGILANCE."

JACKSONVILLE, ALABAMA, SATURDAY, JANUARY 31, 1880.

WHOLE NO. 2233.

VOLUME XLII.

THE REPUBLICAN.

PRINTED AND PUBLISHED EVERY SATURDAY MORNING BY

L. W. GRANT.

Terms of Subscription:

One year in advance $2.00

Three months in advance $1.00

Single copies 5 cents

Terms of Advertising:

One square of 10 lines or less, first insertion 10 cents

Second insertion 5 cents

Third insertion 3 cents

Fourth insertion 2 cents

Longer advertisements at special rates

Advertisements for real estate at 50 cents per line

Advertisements for business at 75 cents per line

Advertisements for legal notices at 10 cents per line

Advertisements for public notices at 10 cents per line

Advertisements for public notices at 10 cents per line

Advertisements for public notices at 10 cents per line

Advertisements for public notices at 10 cents per line

Advertisements for public notices at 10 cents per line

Advertisements for public notices at 10 cents per line

Advertisements for public notices at 10 cents per line

Advertisements for public notices at 10 cents per line

Advertisements for public notices at 10 cents per line

Advertisements for public notices at 10 cents per line

Advertisements for public notices at 10 cents per line

Advertisements for public notices at 10 cents per line

Advertisements for public notices at 10 cents per line

Advertisements for public notices at 10 cents per line

Advertisements for public notices at 10 cents per line

Advertisements for public notices at 10 cents per line

Advertisements for public notices at 10 cents per line

Advertisements for public notices at 10 cents per line

Advertisements for public notices at 10 cents per line

Advertisements for public notices at 10 cents per line

Advertisements for public notices at 10 cents per line

Advertisements for public notices at 10 cents per line

Advertisements for public notices at 10 cents per line

Advertisements for public notices at 10 cents per line

Advertisements for public notices at 10 cents per line

Advertisements for public notices at 10 cents per line

Advertisements for public notices at 10 cents per line

Advertisements for public notices at 10 cents per line

Advertisements for public notices at 10 cents per line

Advertisements for public notices at 10 cents per line

Advertisements for public notices at 10 cents per line

Advertisements for public notices at 10 cents per line

Advertisements for public notices at 10 cents per line

Advertisements for public notices at 10 cents per line

Advertisements for public notices at 10 cents per line

Advertisements for public notices at 10 cents per line

Advertisements for public notices at 10 cents per line

Advertisements for public notices at 10 cents per line

Advertisements for public notices at 10 cents per line

Advertisements for public notices at 10 cents per line

Advertisements for public notices at 10 cents per line

Advertisements for public notices at 10 cents per line

Advertisements for public notices at 10 cents per line

Advertisements for public notices at 10 cents per line

Advertisements for public notices at 10 cents per line

Advertisements for public notices at 10 cents per line

Advertisements for public notices at 10 cents per line

Advertisements for public notices at 10 cents per line

Advertisements for public notices at 10 cents per line

Advertisements for public notices at 10 cents per line

Advertisements for public notices at 10 cents per line

Advertisements for public notices at 10 cents per line

Advertisements for public notices at 10 cents per line

Advertisements for public notices at 10 cents per line

Advertisements for public notices at 10 cents per line

Advertisements for public notices at 10 cents per line

Advertisements for public notices at 10 cents per line

Advertisements for public notices at 10 cents per line

Advertisements for public notices at 10 cents per line

Advertisements for public notices at 10 cents per line

WAIT A WHILE.

Wait a while,
Cheerily smile,
Soon the storm will be over,
There's a bit of blue
In the sky for you,
There's a sweetness yet in the clover,
Trust and wait,
Though burdens great,
Hard on the heart are presser,
For a hand of love
Will the cross remove,
And leave in its stead a blessing.
Nestle the snow
No roses blow,
And there no bees are humming;
But they gather sweets
In their dark retreats
To brighten the days that are coming.
Dark and drear
The skies appear,
When the cloudy day is declining,
But the night must fall
And cover all,
Ere the sun renews its shining.

The Doctor's Choice.

The cream of Galton society was congregated in the Town Hall, waiting for the lecture.

Conspicuous in the crowd sat Miss Alfreda Morton, smiling and happy; for was not her new silk dress the envy of the town, and her hat imported direct from Paris, and was not her escort for the evening young Dr. Grey, the best "catch" in Galton, a rising man in his profession, with some fortune besides?

"And then it was so seldom that Dr. Grey showed any young lady with his attentions, that handsome Miss Alfreda felt especially honored."

"She smiled complacently upon her less fortunate sisters, chatted gaily with the doctor, displayed her pretty, ringed hands, and made herself the centre of attraction till Mabel Benson and her father came in and took seats in front of them."

Now Miss Alfreda had a piece of spite in her nature, and made some pretensions as a musician, while Mabel Benson was undoubtedly a better musician.

The young lady never allowed an occasion to show her petty jealousy to pass, and one was ready for her now.

She turned to her intimate friend, Effie Barry, who sat directly behind, and said:

"Just look at Mabel Benson's bonnet! It's every bit made up out of old pieces. It's her own work, I know."

"It looks nice, though, Alfreda," said Effie.

"Oh, it looks well enough, but the idea of wearing such a thing in good society! She had those flowers on her last summer's hat, and that tip is off her winter hat, and that pearl ribbon is the same she had on her light silk dress."

"I think it is. But you know the Bensons are not rich, and Mabel has to save all she can," said Effie, who was kind-hearted.

"Let her save in some other way, then! Why! don't you think she actually gave twenty-five dollars to the pastor's library?"

"She did?"

"Yes! Brother Jack's one of the committee, you know, and he told me. They pay her twenty-five dollars a quarter for her services in the library, and she gives her quarter's salary for the library. She might have bought a decent hat with it!"

"Did you give anything to the library?" asked Effie.

"No, indeed! I told him if they would give me a Brussels carpet for my study, I would give them ten dollars, but to buy nasty old books, never! Look at her overskirt! As sure as I live, that's her old poplin, turned! I declare, if I could not have one decent dress, I would not pretend to go into good society at all."

"But, Alfreda, I know she bought her little brown new suit with her own money only last week."

"So it is, I dare say she only does it to get praise for her goodness. Anyway, if she goes like a dowdy, she needn't expect to be received in respectable society. I won't recognize her, for one."

"Flush! there comes the lecturer," said Effie.

They settled into attention, but young Doctor Grey, who had heard every word of the whispered colloquy, turned his attention to Miss Benson, who was directly in front of him.

He had noticed her before, as a pleasant, sweet-faced girl, but now he gave her as thorough a study as he could with her back towards him.

His glance went first to the despatch hat, and he saw a dainty little grey creation, and then he saw a cluster of pearls, and he decided, if it was her own work, it was far prettier than many of the wonderful hats and bonnets around, which had cost much more.

And many times during the evening he was drawn to look at her, regardless of Miss Morton's silken robes and luring smiles.

When the lecture was over and greetings were exchanged, Miss Alfreda turned her back on Miss Benson, but Doctor Grey lingered to say good evening.

And as Mabel raised her eyes, half astonished, to answer him, he observed what he never had before, that her eyes were the sweetest, clearest brown, with an expression of earnest womanliness in their depths which went straight to his heart.

After he left Miss Alfreda at her own door, he went to his own room musing deeply on what he had heard of Miss Benson.

"Why, I didn't know," he said to himself, "that I should find her so sweet. Thanks to the stylish Miss Alfreda for the introduction."

So it came about, the next evening, that Miss Morton waited in her elegant parlor for Doctor Grey till she was wild with vexation.

While he, forgetting that she had invited him to call, rapped at the door of Mabel Benson's little cottage, and quite astonished the little organism by asking permission to spend the evening with her.

But she was not displeased, either, for Dr. Grey was a very attractive young man, and could win friends when he chose very rapidly.

He did not stay late, but asked permission to call again.

And upon the very next Sunday evening he did call again.

Miss Alfreda was very busy at seeing this, and determined it should soon stop.

Will a Terrestrial Sting?

Why didn't I leave my gold dust when I had it young, father?" sneered an old pioneer who had been bragging to the loungers in Knox's court room, Virginia City, Nevada, of the piles of gold he had got rid of in early days.

"Well, perhaps it's natural to ask that, seeing you don't even know what gold dust is," said a man who had been to his own banker, and the only safe bank was a fellow's pocket. It wouldn't do to leave your dust nowhere if you didn't want it to turn up mischievous when you went after it. A thousand dollars in dust weighs just about five pounds, and when you get four or five thousand in your belt it ain't no easy load to pack around. I'm blowed if the dead weight of many a man's belt didn't drive him from the digger's down to Frisco and Sacramento just to have a whoop to get rid of it. S'pose you try packing ten or fifteen pounds of lead round your waist for a month or two, young fellow, and then you'll see why I wasn't so dreadfully anxious to hold on to the dust when I got it."

Having thus sat down on the presumptuous Johnny-Come-Lately, the relic of the days when gold could be had for the digging grew garrulous.

"Lord, how free he was with the dust! Judge, d'ye remember the time when you were keepin' bar in the Round Tent in Sacramento? What tricks you fellows was up to in them days. Boys, I've seen the judge here take his knife of an 'evenin' and pick up such as $5 or $6 outen the cracks in the red-wood corner. When one of us called up the crowd we just yanked out our backskin sack and told the bar-keeper to take out $4 worth. They all had scales and a horn spoon 'n' they'd shovel it out 'n' weigh it. Some 'ud drop, 'n' that's how the judge here gouged high wages out of the cracks of his fingers. The judge didn't take chances then times neither. He had the bar built up with rock inside, 'n' when the boys begin to go off he was on his belly behind that there stun. Ha, ha! I've seen that there old Round Tent of a mornin' lookin' like a washin' hung out to dry. Nobody didn't wait to go out of the door when shootin' was begin' done. Every fellow jest out with his knife 'n' ripped a door fur himself."

"D'ye see that bare spot on tops o' my concomb?" inquired the venerable argument, removing his hat and holding down his gray pool for inspection.

The boys got up and made for the door. They knew what was coming. That was only the first of eighteen bullet 'n' knife wounds that every man in town has seen and heard the minute history of. Just as the judge was about to rise, the deserted and indignant pioneer with:

"Will you come and have a drink, Billy?"

"Will a terrestrial sting?" responded the old chap with recovered cheerfulness.

Journal occupies a whole satire with considerations for cooking a single fish; and Martial has consecrated the chief portion of one of his books, called "Xenia," to a poetic catalogue of subjects of diet. Not the least remarkable of these is a dish made of the tongues of singing-birds, counted by Claudius Aesopus, the actor. The tongue of the flamingo was one of the ingredients of Vitellius's celebrated entree which he called his shield of Minerva. Martial and Pliny were both admirers of foie gras—the latter pathetically alludes to it as the tenderest, moistest and sweetest of livers; and the liver of a white goose fed on fat figs is mentioned by Horace as one of the delicacies of the table of Nasidienus. Many dishes, like Wordsworth's ideal woman, not too good for human nature's daily food, appear at that weird feast, but none of them equal in horror the blinded cuttle-fish in the "Rutens" of Plautus. Here is a dish that the famous cream sauce of the Marquis de Beuchamp could hardly render palatable, although the courtier of the grand monarch boasted that with it he yet failed to discover her natural inherent bitterness. "I hate him worse than cold boiled veal," Macaulay said, or is reported to have said, of the modest Mr. Croker; but what is cold veal to a clammy cuttle-fish? Surely the two a man would prefer the tender, palatable, although the courtier of the grand monarch boasted that with it he yet failed to discover her natural inherent bitterness. "I hate him worse than cold boiled veal," Macaulay said, or is reported to have said, of the modest Mr. Croker; but what is cold veal to a clammy cuttle-fish? Surely the two a man would prefer the tender, palatable, although the courtier of the grand monarch boasted that with it he yet failed to discover her natural inherent bitterness. "I hate him worse than cold boiled veal," Macaulay said, or is reported to have said, of the modest Mr. Croker; but what is cold veal to a clammy cuttle-fish? Surely the two a man would prefer the tender, palatable, although the courtier of the grand monarch boasted that with it he yet failed to discover her natural inherent bitterness. "I hate him worse than cold boiled veal," Macaulay said, or is reported to have said, of the modest Mr. Croker; but what is cold veal to a clammy cuttle-fish? Surely the two a man would prefer the tender, palatable, although the courtier of the grand monarch boasted that with it he yet failed to discover her natural inherent bitterness. "I hate him worse than cold boiled veal," Macaulay said, or is reported to have said, of the modest Mr. Croker; but what is cold veal to a clammy cuttle-fish? Surely the two a man would prefer the tender, palatable, although the courtier of the grand monarch boasted that with it he yet failed to discover her natural inherent bitterness. "I hate him worse than cold boiled veal," Macaulay said, or is reported to have said, of the modest Mr. Croker; but what is cold veal to a clammy cuttle-fish? Surely the two a man would prefer the tender, palatable, although the courtier of the grand monarch boasted that with it he yet failed to discover her natural inherent bitterness. "I hate him worse than cold boiled veal," Macaulay said, or is reported to have said, of the modest Mr. Croker; but what is cold veal to a clammy cuttle-fish? Surely the two a man would prefer the tender, palatable, although the courtier of the grand monarch boasted that with it he yet failed to discover her natural inherent bitterness. "I hate him worse than cold boiled veal," Macaulay said, or is reported to have said, of the modest Mr. Croker; but what is cold veal to a clammy cuttle-fish? Surely the two a man would prefer the tender, palatable, although the courtier of the grand monarch boasted that with it he yet failed to discover her natural inherent bitterness. "I hate him worse than cold boiled veal," Macaulay said, or is reported to have said, of the modest Mr. Croker; but what is cold veal to a clammy cuttle-fish? Surely the two a man would prefer the tender, palatable, although the courtier of the grand monarch boasted that with it he yet failed to discover her natural inherent bitterness. "I hate him worse than cold boiled veal," Macaulay said, or is reported to have said, of the modest Mr. Croker; but what is cold veal to a clammy cuttle-fish? Surely the two a man would prefer the tender, palatable, although the courtier of the grand monarch boasted that with it he yet failed to discover her natural inherent bitterness. "I hate him worse than cold boiled veal," Macaulay said, or is reported to have said, of the modest Mr. Croker; but what is cold veal to a clammy cuttle-fish? Surely the two a man would prefer the tender, palatable, although the courtier of the grand monarch boasted that with it he yet failed to discover her natural inherent bitterness. "I hate him worse than cold boiled veal," Macaulay said, or is reported to have said, of the modest Mr. Croker; but what is cold veal to a clammy cuttle-fish? Surely the two a man would prefer the tender, palatable, although the courtier of the grand monarch boasted that with it he yet failed to discover her natural inherent bitterness. "I hate him worse than cold boiled veal," Macaulay said, or is reported to have said, of the modest Mr. Croker; but what is cold veal to a clammy cuttle-fish? Surely the two a man would prefer the tender, palatable, although the courtier of the grand monarch boasted that with it he yet failed to discover her natural inherent bitterness. "I hate him worse than cold boiled veal," Macaulay said, or is reported to have said, of the modest Mr. Croker; but what is cold veal to a clammy cuttle-fish? Surely the two a man would prefer the tender, palatable, although the courtier of the grand monarch boasted that with it he yet failed to discover her natural inherent bitterness. "I hate him worse than cold boiled veal," Macaulay said, or is reported to have said, of the modest Mr. Croker; but what is cold veal to a clammy cuttle-fish? Surely the two a man would prefer the tender, palatable, although the courtier of the grand monarch boasted that with it he yet failed to discover her natural inherent bitterness. "I hate him worse than cold boiled veal," Macaulay said, or is reported to have said, of the modest Mr. Croker; but what is cold veal to a clammy cuttle-fish? Surely the two a man would prefer the tender, palatable, although the courtier of the grand monarch boasted that with it he yet failed to discover her natural inherent bitterness. "I hate him worse than cold boiled veal," Macaulay said, or is reported to have said, of the modest Mr. Croker; but what is cold veal to a clammy cuttle-fish? Surely the two a man would prefer the tender, palatable, although the courtier of the grand monarch boasted that with it he yet failed to discover her natural inherent bitterness. "I hate him worse than cold boiled veal," Macaulay said, or is reported to have said, of the modest Mr. Croker; but what is cold veal to a clammy cuttle-fish? Surely the two a man would prefer the tender, palatable, although the courtier of the grand monarch boasted that with it he yet failed to discover her natural inherent bitterness. "I hate him worse than cold boiled veal," Macaulay said, or is reported to have said, of the modest Mr. Croker; but what is cold veal to a clammy cuttle-fish? Surely the two a man would prefer the tender, palatable, although the courtier of the grand monarch boasted that with it he yet failed to discover her natural inherent bitterness. "I hate him worse than cold boiled veal," Macaulay said, or is reported to have said, of the modest Mr. Croker; but what is cold veal to a clammy cuttle-fish? Surely the two a man would prefer the tender, palatable, although the courtier of the grand monarch boasted that with it he yet failed to discover her natural inherent bitterness. "I hate him worse than cold boiled veal," Macaulay said, or is reported to have said, of the modest Mr. Croker; but what is cold veal to a clammy cuttle-fish? Surely the two a man would prefer the tender, palatable, although the courtier of the grand monarch boasted that with it he yet failed to discover her natural inherent bitterness. "I hate him worse than cold boiled veal," Macaulay said, or is reported to have said, of the modest Mr. Croker; but what is cold veal to a clammy cuttle-fish? Surely the two a man would prefer the tender, palatable, although the courtier of the grand monarch boasted that with it he yet failed to discover her natural inherent bitterness. "I hate him worse than cold boiled veal," Macaulay said, or is reported to have said, of the modest Mr. Croker; but what is cold veal to a clammy cuttle-fish? Surely the two a man would prefer the tender, palatable, although the courtier of the grand monarch boasted that with it he yet failed to discover her natural inherent bitterness. "I hate him worse than cold boiled veal," Macaulay said, or is reported to have said, of the modest Mr. Croker; but what is cold veal to a clammy cuttle-fish? Surely the two a man would prefer the tender, palatable, although the courtier of the grand monarch boasted that with it he yet failed to discover her natural inherent bitterness. "I hate him worse than cold boiled veal," Macaulay said, or is reported to have said, of the modest Mr. Croker; but what is cold veal to a clammy cuttle-fish? Surely the two a man would prefer the tender, palatable, although the courtier of the grand monarch boasted that with it he yet failed to discover her natural inherent bitterness. "I hate him worse than cold boiled veal," Macaulay said, or is reported to have said, of the modest Mr. Croker; but what is cold veal to a clammy cuttle-fish? Surely the two a man would prefer the tender, palatable, although the courtier of the grand monarch boasted that with it he yet failed to discover her natural inherent bitterness. "I hate him worse than cold boiled veal," Macaulay said, or is reported to have said, of the modest Mr. Croker; but what is cold veal to a clammy cuttle-fish? Surely the two a man would prefer the tender, palatable, although the courtier of the grand monarch boasted that with it he yet failed to discover her natural inherent bitterness. "I hate him worse than cold boiled veal," Macaulay said, or is reported to have said, of the modest Mr. Croker; but what is cold veal to a clammy cuttle-fish? Surely the two a man would prefer the tender, palatable, although the courtier of the grand monarch boasted that with it he yet failed to discover her natural inherent bitterness. "I hate him worse than cold boiled veal," Macaulay said, or is reported to have said, of the modest Mr. Croker; but what is cold veal to a clammy cuttle-fish? Surely the two a man would prefer the tender, palatable, although the courtier of the grand monarch boasted that with it he yet failed to discover her natural inherent bitterness. "I hate him worse than cold boiled veal," Macaulay said, or is reported to have said, of the modest Mr. Croker; but what is cold veal to a clammy cuttle-fish? Surely the two a man would prefer the tender, palatable, although the courtier of the grand monarch boasted that with it he yet failed to discover her natural inherent bitterness. "I hate him worse than cold boiled veal," Macaulay said, or is reported to have said, of the modest Mr. Croker; but what is cold veal to a clammy cuttle-fish? Surely the two a man would prefer the tender, palatable, although the courtier of the grand monarch boasted that with it he yet failed to discover her natural inherent bitterness. "I hate him worse than cold boiled veal," Macaulay said, or is reported to have said, of the modest Mr. Croker; but what is cold veal to a clammy cuttle-fish? Surely the two a man would prefer the tender, palatable, although the courtier of the grand monarch boasted that with it he yet failed to discover her natural inherent bitterness. "I hate him worse than cold boiled veal," Macaulay said, or is reported to have said, of the modest Mr. Croker; but what is cold veal to a clammy cuttle-fish? Surely the two a man would prefer the tender, palatable, although the courtier of the grand monarch boasted that with it he yet failed to discover her natural inherent bitterness. "I hate him worse than cold boiled veal," Macaulay said, or is reported to have said, of the modest Mr. Croker; but what is cold veal to a clammy cuttle-fish? Surely the two a man would prefer the tender, palatable, although the courtier of the grand monarch boasted that with it he yet failed to discover her natural inherent bitterness. "I hate him worse than cold boiled veal," Macaulay said, or is reported to have said, of the modest Mr. Croker; but what is cold veal to a clammy cuttle-fish? Surely the two a man would prefer the tender, palatable, although the courtier of the grand monarch boasted that with it he yet failed to discover her natural inherent bitterness. "I hate him worse than cold boiled veal," Macaulay said, or is reported to have said, of the modest Mr. Croker; but what is cold veal to a clammy cuttle-fish? Surely the two a man would prefer the tender, palatable, although the courtier of the grand monarch boasted that with it he yet failed to discover her natural inherent bitterness. "I hate him worse than cold boiled veal," Macaulay said, or is reported to have said, of the modest Mr. Croker; but what is cold veal to a clammy cuttle-fish? Surely the two a man would prefer the tender, palatable, although the courtier of the grand monarch boasted that with it he yet failed to discover her natural inherent bitterness. "I hate him worse than cold boiled veal," Macaulay said, or is reported to have said, of the modest Mr. Croker; but what is cold veal to a clammy cuttle-fish? Surely the two a man would prefer the tender, palatable, although the courtier of the grand monarch boasted that with it he yet failed to discover her natural inherent bitterness. "I hate him worse than cold boiled veal," Macaulay said, or is reported to have said, of the modest Mr. Croker; but what is cold veal to a clammy cuttle-fish? Surely the two a man would prefer the tender, palatable, although the courtier of the grand monarch boasted that with it he yet failed to discover her natural inherent bitterness. "I hate him worse than cold boiled veal," Macaulay said, or is reported to have said, of the modest Mr. Croker; but what is cold veal to a clammy cuttle-fish? Surely the two a man would prefer the tender, palatable, although the courtier of the grand monarch boasted that with it he yet failed to discover her natural inherent bitterness. "I hate him worse than cold boiled veal," Macaulay said, or is reported to have said, of the modest Mr. Croker; but what is cold veal to a clammy cuttle-fish? Surely the two a man would prefer the tender, palatable, although the courtier of the grand monarch boasted that with it he yet failed to discover her natural inherent bitterness. "I hate him worse than cold boiled veal," Macaulay said, or is reported to have said, of the modest Mr. Croker; but what is cold veal to a clammy cuttle-fish? Surely the two a man would prefer the tender, palatable, although the courtier of the grand monarch boasted that with it he yet failed to discover her natural inherent bitterness. "I hate him worse than cold boiled veal," Macaulay said, or is reported to have said, of the modest Mr. Croker; but what is cold veal to a clammy cuttle-fish? Surely the two a man would prefer the tender, palatable, although the courtier of the grand monarch boasted that with it he yet failed to discover her natural inherent bitterness. "I hate him worse than cold boiled veal," Macaulay said, or is reported to have said, of the modest Mr. Croker; but what is cold veal to a clammy cuttle-fish? Surely the two a man would prefer the tender, palatable, although the courtier of the grand monarch boasted that with it he yet failed to discover her natural inherent bitterness. "I hate him worse than cold boiled veal," Macaulay said, or is reported to have said, of the modest Mr. Croker; but what is cold veal to a clammy cuttle-fish? Surely the two a man would prefer the tender, palatable, although the courtier of the grand monarch boasted that with it he yet failed to discover her natural inherent bitterness. "I hate him worse than cold boiled veal," Macaulay said, or is reported to have said, of the modest Mr. Croker; but what is cold veal to a clammy cuttle-fish? Surely the two a man would prefer the tender, palatable, although the courtier of the grand monarch boasted that with it he yet failed to discover her natural inherent bitterness. "I hate him worse than cold boiled veal," Macaulay said, or is reported to have said, of the modest Mr. Croker; but what is cold veal to a clammy cuttle-fish? Surely the two a man would prefer the tender, palatable, although the courtier of the grand monarch boasted that with it he yet failed to discover her natural inherent bitterness. "I hate him worse than cold boiled veal," Macaulay said, or is reported to have said, of the modest Mr. Croker; but what is cold veal to a clammy cuttle-fish? Surely the two a man would prefer the tender, palatable, although the courtier of the grand monarch boasted that with it he yet failed to discover her natural inherent bitterness. "I hate him worse than cold boiled veal," Macaulay said, or is reported to have said, of the modest Mr. Croker; but what is cold veal to a clammy cuttle-fish? Surely the two a man would prefer the tender, palatable, although the courtier of the grand monarch boasted that with it he yet failed to discover her natural inherent bitterness. "I hate him worse than cold boiled veal," Macaulay said, or is reported to have said, of the modest Mr. Croker; but what is cold veal to a clammy cuttle-fish? Surely the two a man would prefer the tender, palatable, although the courtier of the grand monarch boasted that with it he yet failed to discover her natural inherent bitterness. "I hate him worse than cold boiled veal," Macaulay said, or is reported to have said, of the modest Mr. Croker; but what is cold veal to a clammy cuttle-fish? Surely the two a man would prefer the tender, palatable, although the courtier of the grand monarch boasted that with it he yet failed to discover her natural inherent bitterness. "I hate him worse than cold boiled veal," Macaulay said, or is reported to have said, of the modest Mr. Croker; but what is cold veal to a clammy cuttle-fish? Surely the two a man would prefer the tender, palatable, although the courtier of the grand monarch boasted that with it he yet failed to discover her natural inherent bitterness. "I hate him worse than cold boiled veal," Macaulay said, or is reported to have said, of the modest Mr. Croker; but what is cold veal to a clammy cuttle-fish? Surely the two a man would prefer the tender, palatable, although the courtier of the grand monarch boasted that with it he yet failed to discover her natural inherent bitterness. "I hate him worse than cold boiled veal," Macaulay said, or is reported to have said, of the modest Mr. Croker; but what is cold veal to a clammy cuttle-fish? Surely the two a man would prefer the tender, palatable, although the courtier of the grand monarch boasted that with it he yet failed to discover her natural inherent bitterness. "I hate him worse than cold boiled veal," Macaulay said, or is reported to have said, of the modest Mr. Croker; but what is cold veal to a clammy cuttle-fish? Surely the two a man would prefer the tender, palatable, although the courtier of the grand monarch boasted that with it he yet failed to discover her natural inherent bitterness. "I hate him worse than cold boiled veal," Macaulay said, or is reported to have said, of the modest Mr. Croker; but what is cold veal to a clammy cuttle-fish? Surely the two a man would prefer the tender, palatable, although the courtier of the grand monarch boasted that with it he yet failed to discover her natural inherent bitterness. "I hate him worse than cold boiled veal," Macaulay said, or is reported to have said, of the modest Mr. Croker; but what is cold veal to a clammy cuttle-fish? Surely the two a man would prefer the tender, palatable, although the courtier of the grand monarch boasted that with it he yet failed to discover her natural inherent bitterness. "I hate him worse than cold boiled veal," Macaulay said, or is reported to have said, of the modest Mr. Croker; but what is cold veal to a clammy cuttle-fish? Surely the two a man would prefer the tender, palatable, although the courtier of the grand monarch boasted that with it he yet failed to discover her natural inherent bitterness. "I hate him worse than cold boiled veal," Macaulay said, or is reported to have said, of the modest Mr. Croker; but what is cold veal to a clammy cuttle-fish? Surely the two a man would prefer the tender, palatable, although the courtier of the grand monarch boasted that with it he yet failed to discover her natural inherent bitterness. "I hate him worse than cold boiled veal," Macaulay said, or is reported to have said, of the modest Mr. Croker; but what is cold veal to a clammy cuttle-fish? Surely the two a man would prefer the tender, palatable, although the courtier of the grand monarch boasted that with it he yet failed to discover her natural inherent bitterness. "I hate him worse than cold boiled veal," Macaulay said, or is reported to have said, of the modest Mr. Croker; but what is cold veal to a clammy cuttle-fish? Surely the two a man would prefer the tender, palatable, although the courtier of the grand monarch boasted that with it he yet failed to discover her natural inherent bitterness. "I hate him worse than cold boiled veal," Macaulay said, or is reported to have said, of the modest Mr. Croker; but what is cold veal to a clammy cuttle-fish? Surely the two a man would prefer the tender, palatable, although the courtier of the grand monarch boasted that with it he yet failed to discover her natural inherent bitterness. "I hate him worse than cold boiled veal," Macaulay said, or is reported to have said, of the modest Mr. Croker; but what is cold veal to a clammy cuttle-fish? Surely the two a man would prefer the tender, palatable, although the courtier of the grand monarch boasted that with it he yet failed to discover her natural inherent bitterness. "I hate him worse than cold boiled veal," Macaulay said, or is reported to have said, of the modest Mr. Croker; but what is cold veal to a clammy cuttle-fish? Surely the two a man would prefer the tender, palatable, although the courtier of the grand monarch boasted that with it he yet failed to discover her natural inherent bitterness. "I hate him worse than cold boiled veal," Macaulay said, or is reported to have said, of the modest Mr. Croker; but what is cold veal to a clammy cuttle-fish? Surely the two a man would prefer the tender, palatable, although the courtier of the grand monarch boasted that with it he yet failed to discover her natural inherent bitterness. "I hate him worse than

The Republican.
SATURDAY, JAN. 31, 1880.
ANNOUNCEMENTS.
Five Dollars cash for announcements under this head, except in case of Commissioners, which announcements are made for three dollars, cash.
FOR STATE SENATE.
We are authorized to announce I. W. GRANT as a candidate for State Senator for the 7th senatorial district, composed of the counties of Calhoun and Cleburne.
FOR PROBATE JUDGE.
We are authorized to announce I. W. CANNON as a candidate for Probate Judge of Calhoun county.
To the people of Calhoun County:
I take this method of announcing to the people that I shall be a candidate at the next election for Probate Judge in this county. I do not enter into this election as the representative of any political party, Democratic or Republican, but stand upon the platform of Independence, and in asking for the suffrages of the people, pledge myself that if elected, I will faithfully, honestly and impartially discharge the duties incumbent upon me in my official capacity.
J. S. DE ARMAN.
FOR SHERIFF.
We are authorized to announce A. G. STEWART as a candidate for Sheriff of Calhoun county.
The difficulty in the State of Maine has ended in the dispersion of the Fusion Government.
In another column we print dispatches to show how they talked fight up there before the thing ended. But superior pluck and rascality won the victory for the Republicans.—We are reluctantly coming to the conclusion that the Democrats of the North and West are a cowardly lot.
Enquiry has been recently started at Washington as to what has become of all the money paid into the treasury of the National Grange by subordinate granges throughout the country—some million and a half dollars.
Rev. B. D. Turner has given us the following receipt for composting a cheap fertilizer, which he has found, after fair test, to be as good as the commercial fertilizers, now sold in this and other markets. He has found that it costs from $10 to $18 per ton.
60 pounds Sulphate of ammonia,
40 pounds Nitrate of soda,
20 pounds Rock potash.
The above three compounds are put in a kettle of hot water and dissolved. The best plan to make the best compost is to take chip manure and raked up stuff and burn on a log heap made with eyes after the manner of a brick kiln. Use about fifteen bushels of this burned stuff with ten bushels of well rotted stable manure. Make heap of compost under a dry shelter. Pour the liquid over compost as heap is made, and thoroughly mix. The above will make from twenty-three to twenty-five hundred pounds. Apply at rate of from a hundred and fifty to two hundred pounds to the acre, and you will find it equal to any of the commercial fertilizers. The ingredients can be ordered through your merchant.
Some of our friends have expressed a desire to see the salutary article in the first issue of the Cleburne County Clarion, in which the future political conduct of the paper was defined, etc. As the edition was exhausted in Cleburne, and we have no copies of the paper, we print below the article referred to. It will be seen we enunciate the same political opinions in Cleburne through the Clarion that we do in Calhoun through the Republican. We quote from the Clarion:
It has become as universally the rule in starting a newspaper enterprise for the editor to give his readers an intimation of what his politics will be, and what will be its general line of conduct, that we do not feel at liberty to disregard it, though frankly, we would much prefer to place our modest sheet before the people of Cleburne and the press of the State, and let it speak for itself on every question, from time to time, as occasion might arise.
First of all, the paper will be conducted, as its motto indicates, in the interest of the whole people of the county. Untrammeled now, it shall never come under the influence or control of any combination or clique of men, should such there be, but under all circumstances, shall be the friend of the people at large—the channel through which they may discuss public questions—the advocate of their rights. The paper will be Democratic in its politics because its editors are Democrats and believe in the highest interests of the people of the whole country. It is in the triumph of Democratic principles, and much more especially now, since the Republican party of the North show such strong tendency to drift into Centralism, which is but the forerunning shadow of Empire and Despotism. But while we believe that the Democratic party is the only party within the present limits of the country that do not propose to either big oted or intolerant. We freely acknowledge that men may differ with us politically, and still be patriots at heart; and while we may regard them as mistaken in their views, we have no disposition to abuse them for the opinions. We shall not, therefore, attempt the impracticable feat of driving the Republicans of Cleburne into Democratic ranks by abuse, but prefer rather first to secure them by honesty and sincerity in their views, and then by facts and reason convince them if we can, that their trust and highest interests lie with the political party whose banner we follow.

We want the people of Cleburne, in respect of party to subscribe and read their county paper. If the Republicans of the county cannot endorse our political views, there is a common ground we can all meet on, and that is the encouragement of the local enterprise having for their end the welfare of the county and the advancement of the material interests of the people.
The people of Cleburne have a county that for hidden wealth in the precious metals has no rival from the Gulf to the Tennessee. Let but the magic hand of Capital touch her hills, and wealth sufficient for the enrichment of nations will be forthcoming. To meet the eyes of the workers to her wonderful resources in this respect will be, in part, the mission of the CLARION.
Her population, for honesty, industry, good order and due observance of law, will compare favorably with that of any county in the State. To encourage these virtues, and stimulate the people of Cleburne to yet higher attainments will be another aim of this paper.
To sum up, on this platform we place: We shall be the friend of the people—the advocate against all enemies or combinations of their rights and their interests.
We shall be fair and courteous in our treatment of political opponents, and fearless in the expression of our own views.
We shall herald the vast natural resources of Cleburne county, and labor in season and out of season to advance her material interests.
We shall enjoin good morals, encourage education and advocate obedience to law.
We shall endeavor to elevate Cleburne county to that position among the counties of the State that her natural advantages and the virtues of her people entitle her to.
If you can meet us on this ground, give us your hand.

FROM MAINE.
Fee, Fo'um—Smell the Blood of Mulligan.
Blood Across the Face of the Moon.
Augusta, Jan. 24.
The general impression is that matters are in a more critical condition than they have been for some time. Crowds are collecting at various points, and secret plans of armed men drilling, and other circumstances tend to create alarm.
The Chronicle (Greenback labor organ) of Auburn, states that the State House must be taken though it cost thousands of lives.
The Governor is not alarmed and will make the State House perfectly impregnable. The first military company that ever entered the State House marched in at midnight last night.
Pillsbury, Elliott, Channing, and others are known to be enrolling in every county in the State. Men are enlisted in company towns for Fusion Governor—J. L. Smith's call.
Capt. Black, of Augusta, is drilling men nightly.
Mayor Nash has addressed the following to Governor Davis to-night: "In view of the threatening attitude of persons hostile to the present government of the State, I feel constrained to say to your Excellency that I fear my civil police force will be unable sufficiently to protect public property at the capital, or even hold possession of the building itself against such a force as the enemy seem to be willing and able to bring against it."
From a dispatch with military authorities, it became thoroughly convinced of the seriousness of the situation, and that the position of Mayor Nash is perfectly sound. He therefore ordered to the State House the Capital Guards and Richmond Light Infantry, who at 1 a. m. went there. The Auburn Light Infantry will leave that place for the capital at 2 o'clock this a. m., and other military forces will be brought, if necessary. Information from reliable men of the enemy's center from reliable men of the State House, the design is to take the State House, Pillsbury's last hope. It is hoped the prompt action of Gov. Davis will avoid trouble. Men are known to be ready at the call of Smith, in Lincoln and Somerset counties, who are to take sleighs across the country.
The arms in the State Armory are under guard.
The Republicans mean to hold possession and the State troops are inadequate. The President will be called upon for aid.
Pillsbury says in his daily Standard this morning "Men of Maine, the next article on the programme is to disperse by force the Legislature convened in Union Hall. Are you as free as air, willing to submit to this outrage? See to it that your representatives are protected. This is the culmination of the outrage. The Democrats and Greenbackers by the stalwart pimps and lackeys of the Republican party. Who is the man, who will now step out of our ranks and side with the cowardly men entrenched in the State House, who tremble at the sounds of their own voices and do not feel safe unless backed up by the bayonets of the State militia. Let the end be what it may, history will read that Corporal Davis was the first man in the State of Maine to authorize an army of bayonets at the State House, to keep from its portals citizens of the Commonwealth."
Every military company in Maine is under arms. Capt. Black, of the Fusion staff, says all he asks is to be arrested.
A. F. Gould, legal adviser to the Fusion government, characterizes the moving of troops as a desperate act, and would serve to reduce to the political advantage of the Fusionists. He says it is the biggest blunder yet made by the Republicans.
The Fusionist Legislature met with diminished numbers. Speaker Talbot told the reporter that his house needed protection more than the Republicans. The Fusionists seem nervous over State affairs. Should the Fusion Legislature go to Biddeford, it is likely it will find the doors of any hall it may engage guarded by armed men. No feeling any longer is the Republican talk to day. The State House is converted into a sort of barracks. Stores have been set up in the cellar to cook rations of beef, &c. for the soldiers. The Governor is strongly urged at once to disperse the Union Hall Legislature and Fusion government but whether he acts until the first of next week is doubtful. Sunday night the State troops will all be under arms.
The questions propounded by the committee of Fusionists, and which they are considering whether they will submit to the Supreme Court, are preceded by preamble setting forth all the facts from their standpoint, and all the facts of Gov. Garcelon and council.
In the Republican House the judiciary committee was ordered to inquire what action, if any is necessary, to prevent any persons from falsely pretending to assume functions and duties of State officers.
Hutchinson presented the following: Whereas, Information is received that certain persons have been engaged in enlisting men in a manner and for purposes unauthorized by the laws of the State, and
Whereas, such enlistment and organization tend to the disturbance of the public peace and to disorder and revolution, therefore, be it enacted, that a joint committee of seven on the part of the House with such of the Senate as may join, be appointed for the purpose of investigating the truth of such reports, and to ascertain what action, if any, should be taken, and make report of their doings to the House, said committee to have power to send for persons and papers. Passed, and committee appointed.
House adjourned until Monday.
It is feared that in case the Fusion Legislature is dispersed, riots will break out at Lewiston and Biddeford. The State troops continue under arms until further orders.
Gov. Davis will not issue a proclamation commanding the Fusion Legislature to disperse until he has exhausted every peaceful resource, but will not give them an undue amount of time for negotiation.
Presence of the military in the State House excites the populace, who murmur at military rule and indications of a movement to intimidate.
In a private letter from our able and faithful representative in Congress, Gen. Forey, to the Editor of this paper, the General concludes:
"Political matters, at present, quiet—but the storm will soon be upon us. And when it does come the Democracy will feel hounded and safe with such men as the soldier and statesman—Forey—in the front battling for their rights. They have trusted him on the floor of Congress, and they will trust him in the halls of Congress."

Administrator's Notice.
Letters of administration on the estate of J. F. Grant, deceased, having been granted the undersigned on the 15th day of March, 1879, by Hon. J. W. Cannon, Judge of the Probate Court of Calhoun county, Ala., notice is hereby given that all persons having claims against said estate will be required to present the same within the time prescribed by law or of the same will be barred. Prescribed by law of the same will be barred. I, W. GRANT, Administrator.
Jan. 31—24.
Wanted! A Farm.
The undersigned wants to buy for another party a farm costing not less than two thousand dollars, situated in a neighborhood convenient to school and where labor can be had. It must be good land and well watered.
L. W. GRANT, Real Estate Agent.
Jan. 31—24.
THE STATE OF ALABAMA,
Calhoun County.
In Probate Court for said County Special Term January 27th 1880.
This day came Wm. E. Mellon Jr. Guardian of the person of John A. Adams, a minor, and filed his account and vouchers for an annual settlement of his said guardianship. It is ordered that the 23rd day of Feb. 1880 be appointed a day on which to make such settlement, at which time all persons interested can appear and contest the said settlement if they think proper.
L. W. CANNON, Judge of Probate.
Jan. 31—24.
NOTICE FARMERS.
The undersigned has just received from the Western Station and will keep through the season a large supply of:
Patapasco Guano.
Patapasco Acid Phosphate.
Mastodons Soluble Ammoniated Phosphate.
Acid Phosphate. (Manufactured by the Georgia Chemical Phosphate Works, Augusta, Ga.)
The above brands will be sold on the most liberal terms either for cash or on credit option. A supply sufficient to meet the local demand will be kept at Greenville and Anniston. All communications addressed to:
W. C. COOPER, Alexandria, Ala., or D. F. WEAYER, Weaver's Station, Ala. Jan. 31—24 mos.
MORTGAGE SALE.
Under and by virtue of a mortgage executed to the undersigned, J. S. Smith, A. Adams and J. B. Adams, and recorded under number 596 and 597 of Book 12 Vol. 10, records of mortgages in the office of the Probate Judge of Calhoun County, I will proceed to sell on the 23rd day of March 1880, at Jacksonville in said County between the legal hours of sale, the following described property to-wit:
An undivided one-half interest in a twenty acre lot of land situated within the corporate limits of the town of Jacksonville, Ala., and being bounded N. by the lot of Wm. B. Barks's estate, E. by the lot of Mrs. E. J. Tate's lot—on the south by the lots known as the Lester, McGee, Weaver and Carroll lots, and being in the S. E. 1/4 of Section 11, T. 14, R. 8 East in the Coosa Land District.
JAMES M. LAUGHLIN, Mortgagee.
Jan. 31—24 mos.
NOTICE FARMERS.
Notice is hereby given that the following named settler has filed notice of his intention to make final proof in support of his claim, and secure final entry thereof at the expiration of thirty days from the date of this notice, viz:
Amos F. Tomlin, Homestead Entry No. 5202 for the N. E. quarter of S. W. quarter of Section 28, Township 12 South, Range 9 East and names the following as his witnesses, viz: Robert R. Savage and Richard T. Ray of Cleburne County, Ala.
PELHAM J. ANDERSON, Register.
Jan. 24—5w.
STATE OF ALABAMA,
Calhoun County.
County Special Term, Jan. 17th 1880.
Lucinda Hall deceased Estate of— This day came R. E. Lewis administrator of said estate, and filed his State account and vouchers for a final settlement of his administration. It is ordered that the 16th day of Feb. 1880 be appointed a day on which to make such settlement, at which time all persons interested can appear and contest the making of such settlement if they think proper.
L. W. CANNON, Judge of Probate.
Jan. 24—5w.
NOTICE FARMERS.
The undersigned will have in store in a few days a large stock of Soluble Pacific Guano and Phosphates, Chemicals &c. for composting, at low prices, cotton option. Call early and supply yourselves for the coming crop.
JNO. D. HAMMOND.
Dec. 13—4t.
STATE OF ALABAMA,
Calhoun County.
In Probate Court for said County. Special Term, Jan. 13th, 1880.
This day came G. W. Lloyd, administrator of the estate of Joseph Lloyd deceased and filed in Court his account and vouchers for an annual settlement of his said administration. It is ordered by the Court that the 16th day of February 1880 be appointed a day on which to make such settlement, at which time all persons interested can appear and contest the said settlement if they think proper.
L. W. CANNON, Judge of Probate.
Jan. 17th—3t.
STATE OF ALABAMA,
Calhoun County.
In Probate Court for said County Special Term, Jan. 13th, 1880.
This day came J. D. Bryant, administrator of the estate of Benj. F. Brown deceased and filed in Court his account and vouchers for an annual settlement of his said administration. It is ordered that the 16th day of February 1880 be appointed a day on which to make such settlement, at which time all persons interested can appear and contest the said settlement if they think proper.
L. W. CANNON, Judge of Probate.
Jan. 17th—3t.
STATE OF ALABAMA,
Calhoun County.
In Probate Court for said County Special Term, Jan. 13th, 1880.
This day came J. D. Bryant, administrator of the estate of Benj. F. Brown deceased and filed in Court his account and vouchers for an annual settlement of his said administration. It is ordered that the 16th day of February 1880 be appointed a day on which to make such settlement, at which time all persons interested can appear and contest the said settlement if they think proper.
L. W. CANNON, Judge of Probate.
Jan. 17th—3t.
NOTICE FARMERS.
The undersigned will have in store in a few days a large stock of Soluble Pacific Guano and Phosphates, Chemicals &c. for composting, at low prices, cotton option. Call early and supply yourselves for the coming crop.
JNO. D. HAMMOND.
Dec. 13—4t.
STATE OF ALABAMA,
Calhoun County.
In Probate Court for said County. Special Term, Jan. 13th, 1880.
This day came G. W. Lloyd, administrator of the estate of Joseph Lloyd deceased and filed in Court his account and vouchers for an annual settlement of his said administration. It is ordered by the Court that the 16th day of February 1880 be appointed a day on which to make such settlement, at which time all persons interested can appear and contest the said settlement if they think proper.
L. W. CANNON, Judge of Probate.
Jan. 17th—3t.
STATE OF ALABAMA,
Calhoun County.
In Probate Court for said County Special Term, Jan. 13th, 1880.
This day came J. D. Bryant, administrator of the estate of Benj. F. Brown deceased and filed in Court his account and vouchers for an annual settlement of his said administration. It is ordered that the 16th day of February 1880 be appointed a day on which to make such settlement, at which time all persons interested can appear and contest the said settlement if they think proper.
L. W. CANNON, Judge of Probate.
Jan. 17th—3t.
NOTICE FARMERS.
The undersigned will have in store in a few days a large stock of Soluble Pacific Guano and Phosphates, Chemicals &c. for composting, at low prices, cotton option. Call early and supply yourselves for the coming crop.
JNO. D. HAMMOND.
Dec. 13—4t.
STATE OF ALABAMA,
Calhoun County.
In Probate Court for said County. Special Term, Jan. 13th, 1880.
This day came G. W. Lloyd, administrator of the estate of Joseph Lloyd deceased and filed in Court his account and vouchers for an annual settlement of his said administration. It is ordered by the Court that the 16th day of February 1880 be appointed a day on which to make such settlement, at which time all persons interested can appear and contest the said settlement if they think proper.
L. W. CANNON, Judge of Probate.
Jan. 17th—3t.
STATE OF ALABAMA,
Calhoun County.
In Probate Court for said County Special Term, Jan. 13th, 1880.
This day came J. D. Bryant, administrator of the estate of Benj. F. Brown deceased and filed in Court his account and vouchers for an annual settlement of his said administration. It is ordered that the 16th day of February 1880 be appointed a day on which to make such settlement, at which time all persons interested can appear and contest the said settlement if they think proper.
L. W. CANNON, Judge of Probate.
Jan. 17th—3t.
NOTICE FARMERS.
The undersigned will have in store in a few days a large stock of Soluble Pacific Guano and Phosphates, Chemicals &c. for composting, at low prices, cotton option. Call early and supply yourselves for the coming crop.
JNO. D. HAMMOND.
Dec. 13—4t.
STATE OF ALABAMA,
Calhoun County.
In Probate Court for said County. Special Term, Jan. 13th, 1880.
This day came G. W. Lloyd, administrator of the estate of Joseph Lloyd deceased and filed in Court his account and vouchers for an annual settlement of his said administration. It is ordered by the Court that the 16th day of February 1880 be appointed a day on which to make such settlement, at which time all persons interested can appear and contest the said settlement if they think proper.
L. W. CANNON, Judge of Probate.
Jan. 17th—3t.
STATE OF ALABAMA,
Calhoun County.
In Probate Court for said County Special Term, Jan. 13th, 1880.
This day came J. D. Bryant, administrator of the estate of Benj. F. Brown deceased and filed in Court his account and vouchers for an annual settlement of his said administration. It is ordered that the 16th day of February 1880 be appointed a day on which to make such settlement, at which time all persons interested can appear and contest the said settlement if they think proper.
L. W. CANNON, Judge of Probate.
Jan. 17th—3t.
NOTICE FARMERS.
The undersigned will have in store in a few days a large stock of Soluble Pacific Guano and Phosphates, Chemicals &c. for composting, at low prices, cotton option. Call early and supply yourselves for the coming crop.
JNO. D. HAMMOND.
Dec. 13—4t.
STATE OF ALABAMA,
Calhoun County.
In Probate Court for said County. Special Term, Jan. 13th, 1880.
This day came G. W. Lloyd, administrator of the estate of Joseph Lloyd deceased and filed in Court his account and vouchers for an annual settlement of his said administration. It is ordered by the Court that the 16th day of February 1880 be appointed a day on which to make such settlement, at which time all persons interested can appear and contest the said settlement if they think proper.
L. W. CANNON, Judge of Probate.
Jan. 17th—3t.
STATE OF ALABAMA,
Calhoun County.
In Probate Court for said County Special Term, Jan. 13th, 1880.
This day came J. D. Bryant, administrator of the estate of Benj. F. Brown deceased and filed in Court his account and vouchers for an annual settlement of his said administration. It is ordered that the 16th day of February 1880 be appointed a day on which to make such settlement, at which time all persons interested can appear and contest the said settlement if they think proper.
L. W. CANNON, Judge of Probate.
Jan. 17th—3t.
NOTICE FARMERS.
The undersigned will have in store in a few days a large stock of Soluble Pacific Guano and Phosphates, Chemicals &c. for composting, at low prices, cotton option. Call early and supply yourselves for the coming crop.
JNO. D. HAMMOND.
Dec. 13—4t.
STATE OF ALABAMA,
Calhoun County.
In Probate Court for said County. Special Term, Jan. 13th, 1880.
This day came G. W. Lloyd, administrator of the estate of Joseph Lloyd deceased and filed in Court his account and vouchers for an annual settlement of his said administration. It is ordered by the Court that the 16th day of February 1880 be appointed a day on which to make such settlement, at which time all persons interested can appear and contest the said settlement if they think proper.
L. W. CANNON, Judge of Probate.
Jan. 17th—3t.
STATE OF ALABAMA,
Calhoun County.
In Probate Court for said County Special Term, Jan. 13th, 1880.
This day came J. D. Bryant, administrator of the estate of Benj. F. Brown deceased and filed in Court his account and vouchers for an annual settlement of his said administration. It is ordered that the 16th day of February 1880 be appointed a day on which to make such settlement, at which time all persons interested can appear and contest the said settlement if they think proper.
L. W. CANNON, Judge of Probate.
Jan. 17th—3t.
NOTICE FARMERS.
The undersigned will have in store in a few days a large stock of Soluble Pacific Guano and Phosphates, Chemicals &c. for composting, at low prices, cotton option. Call early and supply yourselves for the coming crop.
JNO. D. HAMMOND.
Dec. 13—4t.
STATE OF ALABAMA,
Calhoun County.
In Probate Court for said County. Special Term, Jan. 13th, 1880.
This day came G. W. Lloyd, administrator of the estate of Joseph Lloyd deceased and filed in Court his account and vouchers for an annual settlement of his said administration. It is ordered by the Court that the 16th day of February 1880 be appointed a day on which to make such settlement, at which time all persons interested can appear and contest the said settlement if they think proper.
L. W. CANNON, Judge of Probate.
Jan. 17th—3t.
STATE OF ALABAMA,
Calhoun County.
In Probate Court for said County Special Term, Jan. 13th, 1880.
This day came J. D. Bryant, administrator of the estate of Benj. F. Brown deceased and filed in Court his account and vouchers for an annual settlement of his said administration. It is ordered that the 16th day of February 1880 be appointed a day on which to make such settlement, at which time all persons interested can appear and contest the said settlement if they think proper.
L. W. CANNON, Judge of Probate.
Jan. 17th—3t.
NOTICE FARMERS.
The undersigned will have in store in a few days a large stock of Soluble Pacific Guano and Phosphates, Chemicals &c. for composting, at low prices, cotton option. Call early and supply yourselves for the coming crop.
JNO. D. HAMMOND.
Dec. 13—4t.
STATE OF ALABAMA,
Calhoun County.
In Probate Court for said County. Special Term, Jan. 13th, 1880.
This day came G. W. Lloyd, administrator of the estate of Joseph Lloyd deceased and filed in Court his account and vouchers for an annual settlement of his said administration. It is ordered by the Court that the 16th day of February 1880 be appointed a day on which to make such settlement, at which time all persons interested can appear and contest the said settlement if they think proper.
L. W. CANNON, Judge of Probate.
Jan. 17th—3t.
STATE OF ALABAMA,
Calhoun County.
In Probate Court for said County Special Term, Jan. 13th, 1880.
This day came J. D. Bryant, administrator of the estate of Benj. F. Brown deceased and filed in Court his account and vouchers for an annual settlement of his said administration. It is ordered that the 16th day of February 1880 be appointed a day on which to make such settlement, at which time all persons interested can appear and contest the said settlement if they think proper.
L. W. CANNON, Judge of Probate.
Jan. 17th—3t.
NOTICE FARMERS.
The undersigned will have in store in a few days a large stock of Soluble Pacific Guano and Phosphates, Chemicals &c. for composting, at low prices, cotton option. Call early and supply yourselves for the coming crop.
JNO. D. HAMMOND.
Dec. 13—4t.
STATE OF ALABAMA,
Calhoun County.
In Probate Court for said County. Special Term, Jan. 13th, 1880.
This day came G. W. Lloyd, administrator of the estate of Joseph Lloyd deceased and filed in Court his account and vouchers for an annual settlement of his said administration. It is ordered by the Court that the 16th day of February 1880 be appointed a day on which to make such settlement, at which time all persons interested can appear and contest the said settlement if they think proper.
L. W. CANNON, Judge of Probate.
Jan. 17th—3t.
STATE OF ALABAMA,
Calhoun County.
In Probate Court for said County Special Term, Jan. 13th, 1880.
This day came J. D. Bryant, administrator of the estate of Benj. F. Brown deceased and filed in Court his account and vouchers for an annual settlement of his said administration. It is ordered that the 16th day of February 1880 be appointed a day on which to make such settlement, at which time all persons interested can appear and contest the said settlement if they think proper.
L. W. CANNON, Judge of Probate.
Jan. 17th—3t.
NOTICE FARMERS.
The undersigned will have in store in a few days a large stock of Soluble Pacific Guano and Phosphates, Chemicals &c. for composting, at low prices, cotton option. Call early and supply yourselves for the coming crop.
JNO. D. HAMMOND.
Dec. 13—4t.
STATE OF ALABAMA,
Calhoun County.
In Probate Court for said County. Special Term, Jan. 13th, 1880.
This day came G. W. Lloyd, administrator of the estate of Joseph Lloyd deceased and filed in Court his account and vouchers for an annual settlement of his said administration. It is ordered by the Court that the 16th day of February 1880 be appointed a day on which to make such settlement, at which time all persons interested can appear and contest the said settlement if they think proper.
L. W. CANNON, Judge of Probate.
Jan. 17th—3t.
STATE OF ALABAMA,
Calhoun County.
In Probate Court for said County Special Term, Jan. 13th, 1880.
This day came J. D. Bryant, administrator of the estate of Benj. F. Brown deceased and filed in Court his account and vouchers for an annual settlement of his said administration. It is ordered that the 16th day of February 1880 be appointed a day on which to make such settlement, at which time all persons interested can appear and contest the said settlement if they think proper.
L. W. CANNON, Judge of Probate.
Jan. 17th—3t.
NOTICE FARMERS.
The undersigned will have in store in a few days a large stock of Soluble Pacific Guano and Phosphates, Chemicals &c. for composting, at low prices, cotton option. Call early and supply yourselves for the coming crop.
JNO. D. HAMMOND.
Dec. 13—4t.
STATE OF ALABAMA,
Calhoun County.
In Probate Court for said County. Special Term, Jan. 13th, 1880.
This day came G. W. Lloyd, administrator of the estate of Joseph Lloyd deceased and filed in Court his account and vouchers for an annual settlement of his said administration. It is ordered by the Court that the 16th day of February 1880 be appointed a day on which to make such settlement, at which time all persons interested can appear and contest the said settlement if they think proper.
L. W. CANNON, Judge of Probate.
Jan. 17th—3t.
STATE OF ALABAMA,
Calhoun County.
In Probate Court for said County Special Term, Jan. 13th, 1880.
This day came J. D. Bryant, administrator of the estate of Benj. F. Brown deceased and filed in Court his account and vouchers for an annual settlement of his said administration. It is ordered that the 16th day of February 1880 be appointed a day on which to make such settlement, at which time all persons interested can appear and contest the said settlement if they think proper.
L. W. CANNON, Judge of Probate.
Jan. 17th—3t.
NOTICE FARMERS.
The undersigned will have in store in a few days a large stock of Soluble Pacific Guano and Phosphates, Chemicals &c. for composting, at low prices, cotton option. Call early and supply yourselves for the coming crop.
JNO. D. HAMMOND.
Dec. 13—4t.
STATE OF ALABAMA,
Calhoun County.
In Probate Court for said County. Special Term, Jan. 13th, 1880.
This day came G. W. Lloyd, administrator of the estate of Joseph Lloyd deceased and filed in Court his account and vouchers for an annual settlement of his said administration. It is ordered by the Court that the 16th day of February 1880 be appointed a day on which to make such settlement, at which time all persons interested can appear and contest the said settlement if they think proper.
L. W. CANNON, Judge of Probate.
Jan. 17th—3t.
STATE OF ALABAMA,
Calhoun County.
In Probate Court for said County Special Term, Jan. 13th, 1880.
This day came J. D. Bryant, administrator of the estate of Benj. F. Brown deceased and filed in Court his account and vouchers for an annual settlement of his said administration. It is ordered that the 16th day of February 1880 be appointed a day on which to make such settlement, at which time all persons interested can appear and contest the said settlement if they think proper.
L. W. CANNON, Judge of Probate.
Jan. 17th—3t.
NOTICE FARMERS.
The undersigned will have in store in a few days a large stock of Soluble Pacific Guano and Phosphates, Chemicals &c. for composting, at low prices, cotton option. Call early and supply yourselves for the coming crop.
JNO. D. HAMMOND.
Dec. 13—4t.
STATE OF ALABAMA,
Calhoun County.
In Probate Court for said County. Special Term, Jan. 13th, 1880.
This day came G. W. Lloyd, administrator of the estate of Joseph Lloyd deceased and filed in Court his account and vouchers for an annual settlement of his said administration. It is ordered by the Court that the 16th day of February 1880 be appointed a day on which to make such settlement, at which time all persons interested can appear and contest the said settlement if they think proper.
L. W. CANNON, Judge of Probate.
Jan. 17th—3t.
STATE OF ALABAMA,
Calhoun County.
In Probate Court for said County Special Term, Jan. 13th, 1880.
This day came J. D. Bryant, administrator of the estate of Benj. F. Brown deceased and filed in Court his account and vouchers for an annual settlement of his said administration. It is ordered that the 16th day of February 1880 be appointed a day on which to make such settlement, at which time all persons interested can appear and contest the said settlement if they think proper.
L. W. CANNON, Judge of Probate.
Jan. 17th—3t.
NOTICE FARMERS.
The undersigned will have in store in a few days a large stock of Soluble Pacific Guano and Phosphates, Chemicals &c. for composting, at low prices, cotton option. Call early and supply yourselves for the coming crop.
JNO. D. HAMMOND.
Dec. 13—4t.
STATE OF ALABAMA,
Calhoun County.
In Probate Court for said County. Special Term, Jan. 13th, 1880.
This day came G. W. Lloyd, administrator of the estate of Joseph Lloyd deceased and filed in Court his account and vouchers for an annual settlement of his said administration. It is ordered by the Court that the 16th day of February 1880 be appointed a day on which to make such settlement, at which time all persons interested can appear and contest the said settlement if they think proper.
L. W. CANNON, Judge of Probate.
Jan. 17th—3t.
STATE OF ALABAMA,
Calhoun County.
In Probate Court for said County Special Term, Jan. 13th, 1880.
This day came J. D. Bryant, administrator of the estate of Benj. F. Brown deceased and filed in Court his account and vouchers for an annual settlement of his said administration. It is ordered that the 16th day of February 1880 be appointed a day on which to make such settlement, at which time all persons interested can appear and contest the said settlement if they think proper.
L. W. CANNON, Judge of Probate.
Jan. 17th—3t.
NOTICE FARMERS.
The undersigned will have in store in a few days a large stock of Soluble Pacific Guano and Phosphates, Chemicals &c. for composting, at low prices, cotton option. Call early and supply yourselves for the coming crop.
JNO. D. HAMMOND.
Dec. 13—4t.
STATE OF ALABAMA,
Calhoun County.
In Probate Court for said County. Special Term, Jan. 13th, 1880.
This day came G. W. Lloyd, administrator of the estate of Joseph Lloyd deceased and filed in Court his account and vouchers for an annual settlement of his said administration. It is ordered by the Court that the 16th day of February 1880 be appointed a day on which to make such settlement, at which time all persons interested can appear and contest the said settlement if they think proper.
L. W. CANNON, Judge of Probate.
Jan. 17th—3t.
STATE OF ALABAMA,
Calhoun County.
In Probate Court for said County Special Term, Jan. 13th, 1880.
This day came J. D. Bryant, administrator of the estate of Benj. F. Brown deceased and filed in Court his account and vouchers for an annual settlement of his said administration. It is ordered that the 16th day of February 1880 be appointed a day on which to make such settlement, at which time all persons interested can appear and contest the said settlement if they think proper.
L. W. CANNON, Judge of Probate.
Jan. 17th—3t.
NOTICE FARMERS.
The undersigned will have in store in a few days a large stock of Soluble Pacific Guano and Phosphates, Chemicals &c. for composting, at low prices, cotton option. Call early and supply yourselves for the coming crop.
JNO. D. HAMMOND.
Dec. 13—4t.
STATE OF ALABAMA,
Calhoun County.
In Probate Court for said County. Special Term, Jan. 13th, 1880.
This day came G. W. Lloyd, administrator of the estate of Joseph Lloyd deceased and filed in Court his account and vouchers for an annual settlement of his said administration. It is ordered by the Court that the 16th day of February 1880 be appointed a day on which to make such settlement, at which time all persons interested can appear and contest the said settlement if they think proper.
L. W. CANNON, Judge of Probate.
Jan. 17th—3t.
STATE OF ALABAMA,
Calhoun County.
In Probate Court for said County Special Term, Jan. 13th, 1880.
This day came J. D. Bryant, administrator of the estate of Benj. F. Brown deceased and filed in Court his account and vouchers for an annual settlement of his said administration. It is ordered that the 16th day of February 1880 be appointed a day on which to make such settlement, at which time all persons interested can appear and contest the said settlement if they think proper.
L. W. CANNON, Judge of Probate.
Jan. 17th—3t.
NOTICE FARMERS.
The undersigned will have in store in a few days a large stock of Soluble Pacific Guano and Phosphates, Chemicals &c. for composting, at low prices, cotton option. Call early and supply yourselves for the coming crop.
JNO. D. HAMMOND.
Dec. 13—4t.
STATE OF ALABAMA,
Calhoun County.
In Probate Court for said County. Special Term, Jan. 13th, 1880.
This day came G. W. Lloyd, administrator of the estate of Joseph Lloyd deceased and filed in Court his account and vouchers for an annual settlement of his said administration. It is ordered by the Court that the 16th day of February 1880 be appointed a day on which to make such settlement, at which time all persons interested can appear and contest the said settlement if they think proper.
L. W. CANNON, Judge of Probate.
Jan. 17th—3t.
STATE OF ALABAMA,
Calhoun County.
In Probate Court for said County Special Term, Jan. 13th, 1880.
This day came J. D. Bryant, administrator of the estate of Benj. F. Brown deceased and filed in Court his account and vouchers for an annual settlement of his said administration. It is ordered that the 16th day of February 1880 be appointed a day on which to make such settlement, at which time all persons interested can appear and contest the said settlement if they think proper.
L. W. CANNON, Judge of Probate.
Jan. 17th—3t.
NOTICE FARMERS.
The undersigned will have in store in a few days a large stock of Soluble Pacific Guano and Phosphates, Chemicals &c. for composting, at low prices, cotton option. Call early and supply yourselves for the coming crop.
JNO. D. HAMMOND.
Dec. 13—4t.
STATE OF ALABAMA,
Calhoun County.
In Probate Court for said County. Special Term, Jan. 13th, 1880.
This day came G. W. Lloyd, administrator of the estate of Joseph Lloyd deceased and filed in Court his account and vouchers for an annual settlement of his said administration. It is ordered by the Court that the 16th day of February 1880 be appointed a day on which to make such settlement, at which time all persons interested can appear and contest the said settlement if they think proper.
L. W. CANNON, Judge of Probate.
Jan. 17th—3t.
STATE OF ALABAMA,
Calhoun County.
In Probate Court for said County Special Term, Jan. 13th, 1880.
This day came J. D. Bryant, administrator of the estate of Benj. F. Brown deceased and filed in Court his account and vouchers for an annual settlement of his said administration. It is ordered that the 16th day of February 1880 be appointed a day on which to make such settlement, at which time all persons interested can appear and contest the said settlement if they think proper.
L. W. CANNON, Judge of Probate.
Jan. 17th—3t.
NOTICE FARMERS.
The undersigned will have in store in a few days a large stock of Soluble Pacific Guano and Phosphates, Chemicals &c. for composting, at low prices, cotton option. Call early and supply yourselves for the coming crop.
JNO. D. HAMMOND.
Dec. 13—4t.
STATE OF ALABAMA,
Calhoun County.
In Probate Court for said County. Special Term, Jan. 13th, 1880.
This day came G. W. Lloyd, administrator of the estate of Joseph Lloyd deceased and filed in Court his account and vouchers for an annual settlement of his said administration. It is ordered by the Court that the 16th day of February 1880 be appointed a day on which to make such settlement, at which time all persons interested can appear and contest the said settlement if they think proper.
L. W. CANNON, Judge of Probate.
Jan. 17th—3t.
STATE OF ALABAMA,
Calhoun County.
In Probate Court for said County Special Term, Jan. 13th, 1880.
This day came J. D. Bryant, administrator of the estate of Benj. F. Brown deceased and filed in Court his account and vouchers for an annual settlement of his said administration. It is ordered that the 16th day of February 1880 be appointed a day on which to make such settlement, at which time all persons interested can appear and contest the said settlement if they think proper.
L. W. CANNON, Judge of Probate.
Jan. 17th—3t.
NOTICE FARMERS.
The undersigned will have in store in a few days a large stock of Soluble Pacific Guano and Phosphates, Chemicals &c. for composting, at low prices, cotton option. Call early and supply yourselves for the coming crop.
JNO. D. HAMMOND.
Dec. 13—4t.
STATE OF ALABAMA,
Calhoun County.
In Probate Court for said County. Special Term, Jan. 13th, 1880.
This day came G. W. Lloyd, administrator of the estate of Joseph Lloyd deceased and filed in Court his account and vouchers for an annual settlement of his said administration. It is ordered by the Court that the 16th day of February 1880 be appointed a day on which to make such settlement, at which time all persons interested can appear and contest the said settlement if they think proper.
L. W. CANNON, Judge of Probate.
Jan. 17th—3t.
STATE OF ALABAMA,
Calhoun County.
In Probate Court for said County Special Term, Jan. 13th, 1880.
This day came J. D. Bryant, administrator of the estate of Benj. F. Brown deceased and filed in Court his account and vouchers for an annual settlement of his said administration. It is ordered that the 16th day of February 1880 be appointed a day on which to make such settlement, at which time all persons interested can appear and contest the said settlement if they think proper.
L. W. CANNON, Judge of Probate.
Jan. 17th—3t.
NOTICE FARMERS

Republican.

Paul Bradford was in Tuesday evening.

He glad to see Judge Walcott's streets again in greatly health.

an Advertiser has returned C. whether he went to sell lights.

J. Privett has returned Georgia after a successful trip sale of a patent cotton turn thanks to Gen. For faithful Representative in Congress, for copies of the Congressional Record every day.

Friday and Saturday was for killing hogs, and killed themselves of the city. A great deal of meat seriously has been lost.

standing the "boom" in the immense advance in iron goods, Walt Nisstill sell a full trimmed for ten dollars. Give all.

out crop may be expected. The weather is favorable for sowing, and people have that plenty of oats are a dollar a bushel.

are an offer for advertisement a New Orleans firm by can get an organ very. If any church or society county want an instrument kind, we can give them a ave an offer for advertisement enable us to sell a new, latest improved and grinding corn mill, with burr stones, at a bargain. ly for application of power. ly waiting such an article to well to call soon.

ave an offer for advertisement of the new invention in cut saw, worked by one with feet and hands, and enables one man to easily than do the work of two. m sell it cheap. Anybody such an article should ap- as we will not accept ad- ment unless we can dispose again return thanks to those patrons who have come for and settled past dues. Oth- remain. Let them come and do likewise. In the of administration on the es- the late senior partner of per, the accounts will soon be settled and closed out. nt to give nobody trouble, ought to understand that course is necessary on our part.

Jas. H. Savage has been several days. He intends to Westminster, S. C. in ways to look into the Clement ment, preparatory to the in this Spring of the one he released. He will stay in minister a week or ten days. ish Calhoun was filled en of his enterprise and vim.

week or two ago we stated, untant a shooting affair off- took and laid had with a hom they were trying to ar- at the man had been, con- of wife murder in Mississippi. e are told is a great mistake. e is living, and with him, led a negro man, we learn, d assaulted him with a blud- and beaten him terribly, g one of his arms. Of we were misinformed as to ent of his crime, and are be able to make the correc-

Sunday the M. E. Sunday at this place, which has all attended throughout the organized for the present with the following officers: Chas. Woodruff is clerking for Crook Bros.

Woodruff, Sup't, Porter Jr, Ass't Sup't, H. Privett, Treasurer, Cannon, Sec'y & Lib'n, Francis, Ass't Librarian.

TEACHERS.—Mrs. Dr. Francis, Mrs. T. J. Mar- Sue Hayden, Miss Sallie

TEACHERS.—L. W. Grant, Borden.

Both at Mount Polk and Jacksonville a light type of measles is prevalent.

We have on hand now and will keep constantly for sale Chattel Mortgage blanks, Crop lien blanks, Land Deeds and Deeds of Trust. Jan. 31-11.

Messrs. Jerry and William Wilson, of this county and Messrs. Brook and Walden of Cherokee have been in Jacksonville several days of this week. Mr. Walden, the brilliant young lawyer of Cherokee, stayed over to assist in the defense of the parties charged with burglary, noticed elsewhere.

Some of our candidates think it rather too early to announce. A candidate of ordinary endurance ought to be able to stand fire from now until August. Moreover, the advantage of an early announcement is that people so inclined will grow tired of lying on you before the election comes on. Announce now, and let the slaughter of your reputation begin. It will have to come sooner or later, if you are a candidate.

Absence in Cleburne nearly every issue of this paper since the first of January has prevented us noticing the new and desirable additions to the population of Jacksonville since the beginning of the year. Mr. Ott Smith has moved his family to town for the purpose of giving his children the educational advantages they will have here. Capt. P. D. Ross has bought a town residence and a plantation near here and moved to town for the same reason. Mr. Henry Montgomery has moved to Jacksonville for the purpose of over looking the shipment of the Linder Distributer which is in growing demand throughout the south. We welcome each and all to Jacksonville, while we congratulate our people on so desirable accessions to our social circle.

Some weeks ago the floor of Johnny Ramagnano's saloon in this place, was cut through from the under side, directly beneath three barrels of Lincoln County whiskey, and the entire contents of the barrels abstracted. The case was worked up by Marshal Crook, and some seven or eight arrests were made among the negroes of this place and Alexandria. The case was heard yesterday before Judge Cannon, sitting as a committing magistrate. Messrs. Stevenson, Hunter and Caldwell, and Ellis and Martin appeared for the state and prosecution and Messrs. Woodward and Walden for the defendants. The examination of witnesses occupied the greater part of two days. The result was that all the defendants were turned loose except Barwell Slaton or Barwell Williams, as he is sometimes called, who was bound over in a bond of $100.

MARTIN'S CROSS ROADS.—Farmers in this section are making preparations for another crop. There is more small grain sown than usual. The last cold weather gave farmers a chance to save meat, and they are improving the opportunity. There is a great stir among the guano agents—too many agents and too few buyers.

Miss Bessie Whatley and Fannie Martin will soon enter Shorter College at Rome, Ga.

There were five young married couples at church last Sunday. Hard times coming.

MARRIED.—In the M. E. Church at Morrisville, Sunday, January 25th. Mr. T. L. Harvey and Miss Addie E. Laney.

The fair young bride looked her loveliest, and the face of the happy young groom was wreathed in smiles of victory, happy that he had won the prize: May peace, joy and prosperity attend them. T. H. M.

The following local items were sent us last week from Alexandria, but were crowded out.

Large oat crop sown.

Measles in light form in the valley.

Messrs. Bowling will move their steam saw mill to the pinery on Cape Creek.

Clate Woodruff is clerking for Crook Bros.

Alexandria is to have a new school house.

W. P. Cooper is building a large guano depot at Heavers' Station.

We have a very interesting Sunday School at the "Grange Hall" every Sunday.

J. D. Richards, Esq., of Milltown, will soon remove to Oxford Calhoun county, when he proposes to engage in the grocery business. We commend the grocery business to the good people of J. D. Richards to the good people of Oxford and congratulate them on acquiring such a substantial citizen. Lafayette Clippard.

Bob Ingersoll thinks that all the hell a man passes through in this world. This idea he formed while running a newspaper and trying to please everybody.

Look Here.

All those indebted to me are earnestly requested to come forward and make payment. What I owe must be paid; consequently, I must collect. Please call soon and pay me all you can. If you cannot pay all now, you can pay some. Be so good as to do the best you can, for I am needing the money.

I refer you to a portion of the 12th, 13th and 14th verses of St. Paul to the Romans, which is as follows: "Owe no man anything, but to love one another."

Take warning and obey the word, for disobedience is dangerous.

Respectfully, E. L. WOODWARD.

NOTICE NO. 188.

U. S. LAND OFFICE AT MONTGOMERY, ALA.

Jan. 17th, 1880.

Notice is hereby given, that the following named settler has filed notice of his intention to make final proof in support of his claim, and secure final entry therefor at the expiration of thirty days from the date of this notice, viz:

William Soovorn, Homestead Entry No. 6364 for Fraction of Section 22 and Northeast q. of Northwest q., Northwest q. of Northeast q. of Section 27, Township 23 South, Range 11 East and names the following as his witnesses, viz: Wilson P. Howell and E. L. F. Davidson of Cleburne County, Ala.

PELHAM J. ANDERSON, Register.

Jan. 17-5w.

ATTACHMENT NOTICE.

Joseph A. Jones vs. Henry Clews.

Whereas Joseph A. Jones having applied to the undersigned as Clerk of the Circuit Court of the County of Calhoun and State of Alabama, after having made the affidavit and given the bond prescribed by the laws of Alabama, for an attachment against the property of Henry Clews and having obtained the same returnable to the next term of the Circuit Court of said County and State, and whereas it is made to appear that the said Joseph A. Jones is a resident of said County and State, and the said Henry Clews is a resident of the City and State of New York.

Now therefore this is to notify the said Henry Clews that said attachment has been issued, and levied on the Southwest quarter of the Southwest quarter of Section 12, the West half of the Northwest quarter of Section 13 and the East half of the Northwest quarter of Section 14 all in Township 16 of Range 8 East in the Ocean Land District of said State of Alabama, is now pending before said Circuit Court, and that if the said Henry Clews does not appear at the time and place of holding the court to wit: on the 5th day of April, A. D. 1880 in the town of Jacksonville, Alabama, then and there to answer to the complaint of the said Joseph A. Jones, Plaintiff in said attachment, judgment will be rendered on said attachment, and he is hereby notified to answer and defend the same; and that upon said judgment execution will issue, and order of sale be made and other and further process in relation thereto, be had as the law in such case made and provided, may direct otherwise or require.

Given under my hand this 13th day of January, A. D. 1880.

G. B. BOUGHTON, Clerk.

Jan. 17th, 18.

THE GENUINE DR. C. McLANE'S WORM SPECIFIC OR VERMIFUGE.

SYMPTOMS OF WORMS.

THE countenance is pale and leaden, colored, with occasional flushes, or a circumscribed spot on one or both cheeks; the eyes become dull; the pupils dilate; an azure semicircle runs along the lower eye-lid; the nose is irritated, swells, and sometimes bleeds; a swelling of the upper lip; occasional headache, with humming or throbbing of the ears; an unusual secretion of saliva; slimy or furred tongue; breath very foul, particularly in the morning; appetite variable, sometimes voracious, with a gnawing sensation of the stomach, at others, entirely gone; fleeting pains in the stomach; occasional nausea and vomiting; violent pains throughout the abdomen; bowels irregular, at times constive; stools slimy, not unfrequently tinged with blood; belly swollen and hard; urine turbid; respiration occasionally difficult, and accompanied by hiccup; cough sometimes dry and convulsive; uneasy and disturbed sleep, with grinding of the teeth; temper variable, but generally irritable, &c.

Whenever the above symptoms are found to exist, DR. C. McLANE'S VERMIFUGE will certainly effect a cure.

IT DOES NOT CONTAIN MERCURY in any form; it is an innocent preparation, not capable of doing the slightest injury to the most tender infant.

The genuine DR. McLANE'S VERMIFUGE bears the signatures of C. McLANE and FLEMING BROS. on the wrapper.

DR. C. McLANE'S LIVER PILLS

are not recommended as a remedy "for all the ills that flesh is heir to," but in affections of the liver, and in all Bilious Complaints, Dyspepsia and Sick Headache, or diseases of that character, they stand without a rival.

AGUE AND FEVER.

No better cathartic can be used preparatory to, or after taking Quinine.

As a simple purgative they are unequalled.

Beware of Imitations.

The genuine are never sugar coated. Each box has a red wax seal on the lid with the impression DR. McLANE'S LIVER PILLS. Each wrapper bears the signatures of C. McLANE and Fleming Bros.

Insist upon having the genuine DR. C. McLANE'S LIVER PILLS, prepared by Fleming Bros., of Pittsburgh, Pa., the market being full of imitations of the same. Beware of cheaply different but same pronunciation.

NEW GOODS! ADDED ATTRACTIONS!

The undersigned has recently removed from depot Street to the Red Store on Public Square, and has largely increased his line of first class FAMILY GROCERIES, both Staple and Fancy, which he is prepared to sell at such BOTTOM PRICES. My stock is very complete, and embraces every thing in this market. The highest price paid for Country produce either in cash or barter.

C. W. BREWTON.

ALSO, Agent for the sale of the celebrated Patapoco Guano. Kept in stock at Jacksonville during the season. Sold for cash or cotton option. Call for circulars.

Jan. 31st, 11

FAMILY FAVORITE. THE IMPROVED WHEEL Sewing Machine.

LOOK STITCH. VERY LIGHT RUNNING. VERY LATEST IMPROVEMENTS.

We sell with this excellent Machine 5 different sized Hemmers, 1 Quilter, 1 Corder, 1 Garherer, 1 Tucker, 1 Ruffler, making 11 attachments, or more than are given with any other machine.

PRICE ONLY $30.

Call and examine the machine at ROWAN, BRAN & CO., Jan 13-3m Jacksonville, Ala.

Undertakers Notice.

Mr. Jno. H. Crawford having removed from Jacksonville, the undersigned, at his request, will in the future keep on hand Coffins, Metallic cases and burial Caskets, and will assist on burial occasions as Mr. Crawford did while in the undertaking business here.

L. A. WEAVER.

Jan 4-3m

NOTICE.

The Board of Education will meet in Jacksonville the fourth Saturday in this month. All persons expecting to teach during this year, are expected to be present, for examination; except those who have unlimited license.

Township Superintendents are earnestly requested to be present.

G. BRYANT RUSSELL.

REMOVAL.

A. M. LANDERS

Has recently removed his Family Grocery, near and adjacent to the store formerly occupied by Whitcomb and Driskill. In the new room he has a choice line of

Family Groceries

of all kinds, both staple and fancy, picked tobacco, in the great variety of the best which has been raised up and furnished with the best figures in market. The limited public has been placed upon a large and comfortable room, where gentlemen can enjoy a glass of fine foreign wine.

A. M. LANDERS.

Jan. 2nd-11.

CHILDREN'S SCHOOL.

FEMALE ACADEMY BUILDING.

Mrs. Ida Woodward will open at the Female Academy, Monday, January 12th her school for children, and will continue the session five months.

Terms.—Spelling Reading and Mental Arithmetic, $1.00 per month. Higher classes, $1.50 per month, payable at the end of each month.

Berrys & Co., WHOLESALE GROCER, Commission Merchants, AND COTTON FACTORS, Remo, Georgia.

Liberal Cash Advances made on COTTON and PRODUCE Consigned to us.

Sight Restored!

The undersigned having had remarkable success in treating numerous cases of cataracts, cataracts, dimness of sight, and persons suffering from any infirmity of the eyes, impaired vision, etc., desires to make known to the public how such sufferers may avail themselves of his wonderful remedies. The following certificates—obtained without solicitation—speak for themselves. Persons desiring treatment can be visited by me if preferred.

A. J. KERR, White Plains, Ala. DAVISVILLE, ALA., Dec. 19th, 1879.

This is to certify that Dr. A. J. Kerr has been treating my eyes for one, and they are much better—think they will get entirely well. Cheerfully recommend his treatment to the public.

J. F. DAVIS.

This is to certify that Lucinda McDowell's eye became affected by loss of sight four or five years ago, and remained so till three or four weeks since, when she went under the treatment of Mr. Andrew Kerr, and in six or eight days afterwards she could see with that eye as well as ever.

WASHINGTON WILLIAMS.

I certify that this is a true statement with regard to my daughter.

JNO. W. McDOWELL.

Dec. 20th, 1877.

STATE OF ALABAMA, TOWNSHIP COUNTY, Feb. 7th, 1879.

TO ALL WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

This is to certify that my grand-daughter, Nancy Griffith, was afflicted with sore eyes for three years, to such an extent that she could scarcely see to go about. Six months ago Mr. A. J. Kerr came and took her under treatment, and to our astonishment she could soon see to thread sewing, I hereby recommend Mr. Kerr's medicine to any one similarly afflicted.

Given as mentioned.

A BEAUTIFUL ASSORTMENT of Ladies' and Gentlemen's EMBROIDERED SLIPPERS: Also a Complete Line of Heavy Goods, at Prices to Suit the Times. Highest Market Price Paid for Hides.

Call early and examine stock and prices at M. F. GOVAN & CO. No. 21 Broad Street, Rome, Ga.

DAVID H. DOUGHERTY, Wholesale and Retail Dealer in Dry Goods, Fancy Goods, Notions, Shoes and Hats, 39 & 41 Peachtree Street, Atlanta, Ga. FINE DRESS GOODS A SPECIALTY

Please send for Samples. JOHN E. NISBET, formerly of Jacksonville, is with this house. We will pay express on all orders amounting to $10.00 or over.

JOHN M. HILL & CO., WHOLESALE DEALERS IN LIQUORS, TOBACCO, CIGARS, &c., 16 Decatur Street, Atlanta, Ga.

NEW STORE: Common Sense Bargains.

The undersigned have just opened a new and select stock of Dry Goods, consisting of Dress Goods, Soling, Gentlemen's and Ladies' Underwear, Jeans, Flannels, Shirts, Shootings, Linen and Oil Cloth Table Cloths, Hats, Boots, Shoes, Ready Made Clothing, Hardware, Crockery, Woodenware etc. etc. Also a good line of GROCERIES, Both Staple and Fancy, Leather, Shoemakers' Findings; In fact, everything to be found in a first class General Store. No trouble to show Goods and sell prices. Knowing that these times demand Goods to be sold on a close margin, we defy competition in prices of Goods.

WILSON BROS. & HARBOUR, Oct 4 '79 1y North-east Corner Public Square, JACKSONVILLE, ALA.

NEW RUNNING HOME

MODEL OF ORIGIN. SIMPLICITY, STRENGTH AND BEAUTY. NEVER GETS OUT OF ORDER. AGENTS WANTED. JOHNSON, CLARK & CO. 30 UNION SQUARE (MASS.) NEW YORK CITY.

THE greatest labor-saving implement in use. LINDER & MONTGOMERY, Jacksonville, Ala. Jan. 31.

INSURANCE

The undersigned is Agent for (4) four good and reliable FIRE COMPANIES of the South, to wit: GEORGIA HOME INSURANCE CO., COLUMBUS, GEORGIA. HOME PROTECTION " HUNTSVILLE, ALA. CENTRAL CITY " SELMA, ALA. COLUMBUS INS. & BANKING CO., COLUMBUS, MISS.

It is wisdom to insure your Dwellings, Barns, Gin Houses, Merchandise, etc. If you desire INSURANCE, call on me at JACKSONVILLE, ALABAMA, or address me through the mails—

I think I am warranted in saying that these Companies are all in a healthy condition financially, have a CAPITAL ample and sufficient to meet all their liabilities.

I. L. SWAN, Agent, Jacksonville, Ala. April 26th, 1879.

T. T. HAYDOCK.

Has the largest complete works for the manufacture of Carriages IN THE WORLD. Buggies for the trade a specialty. CORNER PLUM AND TWELFTH STREETS, CINCINNATI, O.

EAGLE AND PHENIX PERFECT BALL SEWING THREAD, COLUMBUS, GA.

PREPARED BY A PROCESS USED IN NO OTHER MILL. IT HAS NO EQUAL.

13 Balls to pound, one pound packages. 20 Balls to pound, two pound paper boxes. Packed in Cases of 20, 30, 50, 100 or 500 Pounds Each. UNIFORM PRICE. INVARIABLE DISCOUNTS. SOLD BY ALL JOBBERS. LOOK FOR "EAGLE AND PHENIX." USE NO OTHER.

Association of Family Groceries, which he proposes to sell at bottom prices. Very best brands of Coffee, Sugar, Tea, Finely Flavored Cigars, Western Bacon, Meat, Snowdrift Flower, Molasses, Crockery, Hardware, Kerosene oil, Buckets, Tinware. Every thing kept in a well stocked grocery establishment. He also has on hand a large assortment of Harness, Saddles, Bridles, made of the very best leather, and designed by workmen of superior skill. He invites all to call, for he is determined to sell at such prices as to deserve the patronage of the public. Give him a call, and examine his prices, before going elsewhere.

GREAT BARGAINS IN Pianos & Organs.

H. A. SMITH, HOME, GA. WHOLESALE AND RETAIL

Bookkeeper and Music Dealer

Has just received from the Manufacturer, the Largest Stock of Pianos ever brought to this market. These instruments having been bought for cash at LOW PRICES, will be sold to each customer at PRICES LOWER THAN EVER KNOWN in this country. Purchasers, by calling early, can have the best selection from the lot.

